STATED COMMUNICATION
 Fairview Lodge No. 92, A. F. & A. M., Saturday evening, January 2, 1926, at 8 o'clock. Labor in F. C. Degree. Visiting brethren welcome.
 WM. H. STANLEY, Sec'y.
 HARRY FEDERSPIEL, W. M.
 Make your friends among your fellow fraternalists, and they will not desert you in the hour when you most need them.

Oh, Lady, Lady!
 "For giving the face a good color, get one pot of rouge and one rabbit's foot. Bury them two miles from home and walk out and back once a day to see if they are still there."
Pertinent Question.
 Salesman—"Here is a very nice automatic pistol, lady. It shoots eight times."
 Fair Customer—"Say, what do you think I am, a polygamist?"

CORBETT

This section of Multnomah county was visited by a strong wind storm which did some damage to fishing property at Corbett station.

Favor Reed is at the Portland sanitarium slowly recovering from an operation.

Mr. Zilm, of Portland, is a visitor at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. Baker.

Mrs. Lewis Reed went to Portland last Wednesday to meet her friend, Miss Helen Leghorn from Olympia, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Knight were dinner guests Christmas of the latter's brother and family, Arthur Johnson, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reed in the evening.

The pupils under the training of Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart's school gave an entertainment Wednesday evening to the relatives and friends of the pupils. The entertainment consisted of a three act play, "Santa up to Date," recitations and singing. Some of the work of the pupils was on display, and especially their writing, samples of which were taken at the beginning of the term and at the ending, December 24. A very marked improvement was noticeable.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellrod and daughters, of Portland, were at the home of Mrs. Bellrod's father, George Kaeriem, over Christmas.

Chauncy Clark and Joe Letsinger of Keiso, Washington, were calling on old friends in this vicinity last week. Mrs. Clark, nee Myra Letsinger, is in a Portland hospital in a very critical condition from the effects of an operation for cancer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed's and Mrs. Olivia Leland's guests on Christmas were Mrs. M. M. Leghorn and daughter Helen of Olympia, Washington and Mrs. Clara Smith and daughter, Ethel Smith Stewart of Ferndale Place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross visited their daughter, Mrs. Laura Samuelson at McMinnville from Thursday until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ough, of Bend, are here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ough.

Ivo Spybrock came out from Portland Sunday and visited in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Rickert.

Miss Pauline Rickert is spending the holiday vacation at Salem, Miss Joy Crockett at Spokane and Miss Pauline Rogroden in Portland. They are teachers in the Corbett schools.

The members of Columbia grange expect to enjoy a watch night party at their hall Thursday evening. The diversion will be singing, games and dancing.

The young people home from college for the holiday vacation are Wm. Morgan, from University of Oregon, Lucille Kincaid and Gaylord Davies State Normal and Clifford Reed, Agatha Harding, Dolores Morgan and Burton Bush from Oregon Agricultural college.

The upper classmen of the Columbian high entertained the alumni of the school Friday evening.

Mrs. Myrta E. Reed and daughter, Mrs. Dean Hansen of Portland, are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Arlie Kincaid and Ethel Smith Stewart are attending the annual teachers meeting in Portland.

When the East Wind Blows.
 In Gresham we have everything,
 As everybody knows,
 To make all days seem just like
 spring,
 'Cept when the east wind blows.

We dance and run and laugh and sing,
 And go to all the shows,
 We are all happier than any king,
 'Cept when the east wind blows.

Our goats and sheep and horse and cows
 To the pasture merrily go,
 Where most contentedly they browse,
 'Cept when the east winds blow.

Then behind any shelter they will hide,
 The water trickles from my nose,
 So I don't take my sweetie for a ride
 Whenever the east wind blows.

But on those days—enough's been said.
 It's no wonder nothing grows.
 So I go to bed and cover up my head
 Whenever the east wind blows.
 —Thos. Harvey.

SPRINGDALE

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Vest entertained for Christmas Mrs. H. Henman, mother of Mrs. Vest, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powers, daughter and son, Laura and Lyle. Mrs. Powers is a sister of Mrs. Vest. They all reside in Yakima, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bell spent Christmas at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Reeves.

The Springdale school held Christmas exercises Thursday afternoon and had a nice big Christmas tree. All the children had an enjoyable afternoon.

Wm. Northway, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Northway and daughters, Juanita and Gloria, Nell Van Zant and Lew Nielson motored to Herman creek where they spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Northway.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Pounder's guests on Christmas were James Pounder and daughter, Crystal, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pounder, Albert Pounder, Miss Florence Bowker, Miss Frances Bowker and Jean Amond.

Be Reasonable.
 Irate Papa—"What do you mean by coming home at 4 a. m.?"
 Flapper—"For heaven's sake, pop, I have to patronize the old roost some time, don't I?"

The Farmer Agrees.
 "Eating too much is bound to shorten your life," observed the doctor.
 "That's right," agreed the farmer.
 "Pigs would live a good deal longer if they didn't make hogs of themselves."—Poultry Tribune.

When You Get to Florida

SOLID HAINES CITY

CAN a city be solid? As well ask, "Can gold be solid?" Of course it can. Besides, solid gold is the only gold worth while. There used to be jewelry called 'gold washed'. It had the appearance but not the reality.

There are cities like that, but Haines City is not one of them. It has substance. Nothing hollow about it. Its finances are sound. Its Banks are busy and growing. Its Factories are increasing. Its Business Concerns are expanding. One Wholesale House is doing approximately $750,000 a year. There is no commercial camouflage about Haines City. We have the real thing.

This applies also to the real estate. The land is high and dry, standing 221 feet above sea level. It has an enviable location in the center of Central Florida, consequently its values are as high as its elevation; but, fortunately for the investor, the prices are still low by comparison. This is a state of affairs which is distinctly favorable for action, and the time for action is now.

NOT TOMORROW. NOT NEXT WEEK. NOW.
