SPRINGDALE

The Springdale Parent-Teacher circle held its meeting last Monday night, with a nice program. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kinder from Gresham gave a number of violin and piano selections which were enjoyed by all. After the program the hour was given over to Mr. Kinder to speak about the club work. He gave a very interesting talk on its importance for the coming generation. After the lecture coffee and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Vest are able to be around again after their illness. Mrs. Vest had a touch of the flu, which seems to running a course around the vicinity. Mr. Vest had the misfortune to chop his hand with the ax while cutting wood. Eight stitches had to be taken. The wound is healing nicely now.

Mrs. Cecil Pounder will entertain the 500 club on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hendrickson gave an old time dance in their home Saturday night. An enjoyable time was spent by all present.

The Springdale school planted a number of nice trees on Arbor day. Tom Northway gave an interesting talk on forests in the morning after which the trees were planted. Then a Lincoln program was held in the forenoon. Mrs. Miller, the upper grade teacher, gave an interesting talk on Lincoln. The afternoon was devoted to a program and valentine party.

The sewing circle will meet at Mrs. Tom Northway's the 24th of February.

The Springdale baseball team defeated the Hurlburt team on Friday, February 12, score being 13 to 12. This was the first game of the season.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks for the many kindnesses shown us, during the illness and death of our little son, Roderick Reed Catlow. May God's richest blessings be yours is our prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Catlow.

Money to loan on real estate. Farm loans at 6 per cent. B. W. Thorne.

ARBOLEDA

Mrs. Richard Stoner entertained last Friday evening with a card party. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dryden, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Boseman, Miss Mildred McGregor and Walter Zenger.

Mrs. Edith Birney, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Peter Borgan over the week-end.

The Lynhurst club entertained the Joker club with a card party on Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Wm. McKee on Section Line road. Five tables of 500 were made up. Honors went to Mrs. D. W. Bridgefarmer and Mrs. H. C. Bourne. A short program of piano duets was given by Mrs. H. C. Bourne and Mrs. W. O. Shaver, after which lunch was served.

The dance given in the Arboleda clubhouse Saturday evening, February 13, for the benefit of the Lynch Parent-Teacher association was a big success. About $25 was turned over to the association.

On Thursday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Bourne were hosts for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hornecker and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Halladay. Cards was the diversion for the evening, honors going to Mrs. Floyd Halladay and Mr. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Peebler, of Seaside, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borgan on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bridgefarmer entertained Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Fortner, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lancefield, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Robison and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Finnell. Cards were enjoyed after which a delightful supper was served.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fortner over last week-end were Mrs. Fortner's mother, Mrs. Carrie Kinnicutt and Mrs. Fortner's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Combs, accompanied by their daughter, Corinne. The visitors all reside in Eugene.

Mrs. W. R. Locke entertained the Joker club at her home on Friday afternoon. Honors were awarded Mrs. D. W. Bridgefarmer and Mrs. F. L. Bourne.

POWELLHURST

One of the recent social events in Powellhurst was a large party, given as a surprise at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gates. The suggestion of a "surprise" came from Mr. Gates first proposing to give one on a friend. Consequently it created quite a good deal of fun when the plans went on and it was quietly planned to be on Mr. Gates instead. Progressive 500 was played after which refreshments were served. Those present enjoyed the evening to its full extent declaring Mr. and Mrs. Gates delightful hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eggenberger are to entertain at progressive 500 on Saturday evening.

New people have moved into the Bennett place which has been vacant so long. They are Mr. and Mrs. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Walker of the Oregon garage.

Mr. Kamas moved his family out from Portland last week. At present they are at the senior Kamas' waiting to complete their home near Bellrose station.

CEDAR

F. H. Hoecker is still laid up from the result of a cut hand which injury he sustained last week while engaged in splitting kindling. He struck the left forefinger with the axe about an inch below the knuckle on the back of the hand, severing the cords. The injury, while not serious, is painful and it takes considerable time for the tendons to knit.
