

Baptist Church Services-
Although the improvements being made in the Baptist church building are not completed, the services next Sunday will be held in the church. The Bible school will begin at the regular hour 10 a. m. and the church service will commence at 11 o'clock. The general theme for a series of sermons at the morning service is, "The People Called Baptists." Next Sunday morning the topic will be "Baptists and the History of England and Europe." Short sketches of the lives of such men as Roger Williams, John Bunyan, Charles Spurgeon and Menno Simons will be given. There will be no intermediate society meeting and all the evening meetings will be cancelled. The teachers and officers of the Bible school will lead the prayer service next Wednesday evening beginning at 7:30. An outline of the book of Esther will be given.

Zion Evangelical Services.

Sunday school of the Zion Evangelical church will convene at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, followed by the preaching services at 11 from the topics, "Friendship" and "As the Hart Panteth." Senior League will meet at 7:30 p. m.

GRESHAM LOCALS

A new flag pole has been secured for the city hall grounds to replace the one which was blown down during a recent high wind. The new pole will be erected soon.

The bridge just north of the pickle factory was somewhat damaged by the high water which prevailed a week or so ago, the north approach of the bridge caving in badly and endangering traffic to some extent. Several loads of rock and gravel have repaired the cavities temporarily.

Mrs. Elizabeth McLain has been ill for a week or more with intestinal influenza. Her daughters, Mrs. Inez Miller, from Monmouth, and Mrs. Ethel Miller, from the Children's Farm Home near Corvallis, came down Friday and stayed with their mother until Sunday.

Mrs. A. D. Charlton was the hostess Tuesday afternoon for a group of Portland ladies to a 1 o'clock luncheon, followed by bridge, at The Wisteria. Nine were present in all and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. Mrs. Charlton is a prominent leader of society in the city.

Dr. Thomas Darling, who lives near Schiller station, has been seriously ill for a few days with an attack of pneumonia, but, at present he is reported to be convalescing.

The remodeling of the Baptist church had progressed enough to permit of services being held in the building Sunday, although much remains yet to be done. As soon as repairs and changes are fully completed, the congregation is planning on a re-dedication. The interior already presents a fine appearance and is the subject of enthusiastic comment on all sides.

Mrs. Elsie Leming has begun work for the Walrad Mercantile company as saleslady to take the place of Miss Myrtle Rusher who recently resigned her position in that store.

James Alexander, of Bellingham, Washington, a student at North Pacific Dental college, was a week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott. Mr. Alexander is a cousin of Mrs. Ott.

The family of C. E. Johnson arrived Saturday from Moro, Oregon, and with Mr. Johnson are occupying the Cone house on First street. Mr. Johnson is the newly-elected cashier at the Bank of Gresham.

The Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will hold a food sale Saturday, February 27, at the A. W. Metzger store, beginning at 1 o'clock.

The information has come through a letter received by Mrs. Effie Beegle from her son, Burton, who, with his wife, has been for the past four years engaged in missionary work in the Isthmus of Panama, that on account of the declining health of his wife they have left the Canal zone for the present and are now at Los Angeles.

It is possible they may come to Oregon later. Mrs. Beegle has been afflicted with malaria and Mr. Beegle also has been in a weakened physical condition. He attended school in Gresham something over 25 years ago and will doubtless be remembered by many here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Krueger on the Base Line road, were given a pleasant surprise Saturday, February 6, the date being their 20th wedding anniversary, by about 30 friends, and were presented with a beautiful mantle clock and console set. Five hundred was played and a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. Evelyn Carliquist, of Portland, was a caller on Mrs. I. B. Bent Wednesday.

Mrs. Hans Larsen visited from Sunday until Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hill and Mrs. John Houser, of Longview, Washington.

Mrs. M. Sturm, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ben Hoover, had her tonsils removed by a local physician Thursday morning. Although the operation was somewhat an unusual one, Mrs. Sturm rallied nicely from its effects.

Mrs. G. A. Cox was an attendant at the "Spirilla" corsetiere training school which was held in Portland on Tuesday and Wednesday. Mrs. Cox has become an agent for this line of speciality.

Washington's Birthday

On February 22d we again celebrate the anniversary of the great American—George Washington. Master of himself, he became a great leader of men. The fate of the nation depended upon his judgment—his strength of will—his courage. Our hope was not in vain! With a small and poorly equipped army he faced the greatest nation on earth—and won. A new nation was born—a land of liberty and of unequalled opportunity. But what a different story might well be told had it not been for WASHINGTON!
