

GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Helen Hoss was brought home from Portland sanitarium, where she was operated on for toxic goitre. She is slowly regaining her strength.

Mrs. Elsie Cogswell, of Cleveland, Ohio, a niece of J. V. Cogswell, arrived in Gresham a few days ago to spend an indefinite period at the Cogswell home. It is possible she may decide to reside permanently in Gresham.

Mrs. Elmer Moore, of Pendleton, has been the guest of Mrs. Kenneth C.

Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Moore drove to Government Camp recently, stopping at Welches and Aldrich Lodge.

Mrs. Effie Beegle and her granddaughter, Mrs. Ruth Calkins, enjoyed the joint celebration of their birthdays on February 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Calkins. Mrs. Beegle was 70 years of age and Mrs. Calkins 22. Besides the two guests of honor there were present Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. A. Adams and L. D. Calkins.

The reading club will be held at the library every second and fourth Tuesday in the month at 7:30 p. m. The members will study contemporary American authors.

An attractive fence is being constructed on the rear of the residence property of Dr. H. H. Hughes on West Powell street, Frank Gibbs is in charge of the work.

Lewis Metzger is confined to his bed by an illness which dated from Thanksgiving time when he suffered a stroke of paralysis. Recently he had a severe fall which added to his weakened physical condition.

Winifred Bechill, an eighth grade school pupil, is recovering from an attack of influenza which bordered on pneumonia.

Miss Jean Adix accompanied a party of Portland friends to Eugene Friday where she witnessed the basket ball game between University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural college. She visited until Monday with her brother, Victor Adix, and friends.

Among college students who returned to Gresham over the week-end holiday were William Fritz from the University of Oregon and the Misses Eliza Bechill, Vada Anderson and Helen Lawrence from the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth.

Mrs. George Duncan was called to Newport, Oregon, Saturday by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. B. F. Wilkins, who has pneumonia.

Kenneth Jones, a student at the Oregon Agricultural College and a friend of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Smith who came here from Spokane, spent the week-end at the Smith home.

Mrs. Isabel Leland has had the roof of her home on Fourth street re-shingled.

Mrs. Mary Welch and Grace Welch were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Trimble are here from Molalla at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Paul Stone. Mr. Trimble is employed on the construction work of the new Brown building.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Welling came down from Salem Saturday and visited with the relatives of both until the following day. Mr. and Mrs. Welling have recently erected a new modern home for their occupancy in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Eastman have come from Portland to Gresham to make their home. For the present they are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eastman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kern, of Vancouver, spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern.

In honor of the birthday of Mrs. George Tacheron, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Ott entertained at Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. Tacheron, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Welling, Miss Violet Perret and Mrs. Alice Vuilleumier.

Miss Thelma Hesgard, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Fendall for the past two weeks, has returned to her home near Lents. She is a student at Franklin high school.
