Maximum Horsepower Per Man in United States.

The rapid increase in use of mechanical power is the secret of high productiveness and efficiency of American industry, agriculture and transportation, and is one of the factors accounting for the high "real" wages, or prosperity, of the American worker, according to comparative studies of development of primary power in United States, made by National Industrial Conference Board of New York.

Sandy Pioneer Passes Away.

Death came on Wednesday morning to John Henry Wewer, aged 81 years, who passed away at the Thomas sanitarium after a serious illness of two weeks from complications of heart leakage and diabetes. He was thought to be improving on Monday, but on the following day his condition was much worse. Mr. Wewer is an old pioneer of the Sandy country, having gone there 50 years ago and taken up a homestead on which he had lived since that time. He is survived by his wife and three children, Henry Wewer who lives on the home place near Sandy, Mrs. Arthur Frisch and Mrs. Peter Veatsch, of Portland. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Sandy Lutheran church in charge of the Rev. F. Dobberfuhl. Interment was made in Cliffside cemetery.

CORBETT DAIRYMAN SELLS MILK ROUTE

K. Hanneman, who has been engaged in the dairying business at Corbett, has disposed of the retail part of the trade to George Bosworth, connected with the Hoover Guernsey dairy of Portland. Mr. Hanneman, it is understood, received a handsome figure for the sale of the milk route supplying the retail trade in Portland which includes some of the best groceries in the city, the Hannemann Jersey milk selling for 18 cents a quart.

The milk will be produced as heretofore and will go under the same name as formerly, but Mr. Hanneman will be relieved of all the work in connection with milking, bottling, cooling and distribution and will be able to devote more of his time to the manufacture of ice cream which already is more than locally famous. This trade has grown enormously since it was started five years ago when, for the first three years the ice cream was retailed only to highway customers. For the past two years the production has enjoyed a wholesale trade in addition to the retail, several of the better shops in Portland having been agents for it. During the year 1925, 5000 gallons were disposed of. It is said that tourists as far east as the Atlantic coast have remembered and commented highly on the brand of home made ice cream which they purchased at the Hanneman dairy farm on the Columbia River highway.

SANDY

A double header basket ball game was played at Sandy Wednesday night between West Linn and the Sandy teams, the latter meeting its first defeat of the year when West Linn scored 16 to 10. The Sandy girls, however, put up a better fight and won over the West Linn girls, 23 to 15. The Sandy high school band dispensed its usual fine brand of music and the home economic girls served supper to the players as is the custom.

A return double header game was played at West Linn last evening, in which the scores of both games stood in their favor. The Sandy team was defeated 17 to 12 and this wrests the county championship from them by but five points. The girls' score stood 17 to 14 for West Linn, although they have another chance to play for the championship , which will be done later.

Powell Valley Women Hurt in Collision.

Mrs. Emil Satterstrom and her mother, Mrs. Mary Anderson, aged 71, are in St. Vincents hospital suffering from numerous cuts and bruises which they sustained when the Ford coupe in which they were riding and which was driven by Joseph Anderson collided with a Hollywood California machine at the intersection of Union avenue and Columbia boulevard, Portland, Wednesday morning as the three Powell Valley residents were on their way to Kenton.

Anderson was arrested on the charge of failing to stop for a through street, the case to be brought before Municipal Judge Stadter. He slowed up as he approached the intersection, but failed to make a complete stop as the ordinance requires. According to the report of investigating motorcycle cops the California auto was proceeding south on Union avenue and Anderson was driving west on Columbia boulevard. The impact of the two cars caused the Hollywood machine to turn over, throwing out the occupants of the other vehicle. The ladies are still in the hospital, but it is not thought their injuries are serious.

The teachers put on a brief program which was enjoyed, especially the work of the two lower grades. Their work in mental arithmetic and reading was especially fine for little tots.

The Parent-Teacher association gave a hard time party Monday evening, 500 and dancing, followed by refreshments taking up most of the evening. Mrs. Willard Cook, in knickers, tattered shirt and carpet slippers carried off the prize for the most forlorn costume and Ed. McCann won the prize for the gentlemen. Health Reminders

By Frederick D. Stricker, M. D.

Typhoid Fever.

Typhoid fever has shown an apparent increase in prevalence in 1925. Typhoid fever is too common in the state of Oregon and active measures are necessary for its prevention. Much disease would be prevented if physicians would report to health authorities all cases of indefinite illness among food handlers as in families of grocers, dairymen, candy and ice cream makers, particularly, if symptoms point toward intestinal or lung involvement.

Persons who sell foods or who prepare or handle foods for sale should realize that if there is any diseased person in their employ, their customers are apt to learn of it and such careless disregard of public protection will eventually damage or destroy their business. Those who sell foods exposed to infection make themselves liable to prosecution. Every community should take active control over its milk supply.

Swimming in polluted water accounted for a number of cases of typhoid. The water of all swimming pools should be sterilized during its circulation.

Campers sometimes contract typhoid infection from the water or food supplies. The well or spring may be contaminated. Most streams are polluted. The only safety lies in boiling or chemical disinfection before using. Persons who contemplate camping should become immunized against typhoid as an added precaution.

Thoughtlessness has resulted in many cases of typhoid fever. Contact infection in typhoid families causes many cases. The family of a typhoid patient should remember that the patient, his hands, bedding and eating utensils are constantly infected with typhoid germs, and that without constant and extreme care the infection will be transmitted. No matter how careful she may be the patient's nurse should not cook nor handle foods for other persons. The careless disposal of the body discharges from typhoid cases maintains the high development rate of typhoid cases. Both the kidney and intestinal discharges should be sterlized from the beginning of the illness. Typhoid vaccine will prevent typhoid fever but not after the person is already infected. Immunization against typhoid is highly recommended.

Typhoid fever was almost unknown in the army, and would be in our communities if everyone was protected against this disease. Every case of typhoid is caused by carelessness or failure of some individual to observe the rules of common decency or cleanliness. The annual toll from typhoid in Oregon is too large, and only by taking active preventive measures can we eradicate the disease.
