STEWIER'S PLATFORM GOOD.

Frederick Steiwer, of Pendleton, is a candidate for United States senator on the republican ticket. A picture of Mr. Steiwer will be found elsewhere in today's paper and we have before us his platform. Both look good and should be carefully studied by the voters.

He starts out by saying he has no private interest to serve but will endeavor to the best of his ability to serve the nation and all the people and every part of the state. He says it will be his purpose and ambition to support those things which Oregon approves and which are in accord with the nation's best interests.

This is the best general statement we have seen from any candidate. The state has had experience with some whose conduct does not commend them, whatever their platforms may promise. Elton Watkins, democratic candidate, has had experience as a congressman and now seeks the nomination as United States senator. He was devoted and fairly efficient but has just finished defending in federal court a bunch of bootleggers and, as a good lawyer, tried to free them, though proven notoriously guilty.

Regarding alcoholic traffic and law enforcement Mr. Steiwer says: "I believe in the principle of the 18th Amendment and the objects sought to be obtained by it. I stand for its observance and its enforcement and for the enforcement of the laws enacted pursuant to the 18th Amendment. Congress must not make ineffective the plain intent of the Constitution but must provide means for its preservation and to insure respect for its provisions. For law enforcement positions I favor men who are in sympathy with the particular laws they are appointed to enforce."

We believe Frederick Steiwer means what he says and will vote true to this declaration. We are willing to put him to the test. Some other candidates appear to not have the courage to commit themselves on this important subject.

On other leading issues Steiwer is equally clear. These will be presented from time to time in the Outlook.

WINTER SPORTS ON MT. HOOD.

It is certainly coming to pass that Mt. Hood is to be a winter as well as a summer attraction. And why not? It is easy of access on the south, west and east sides. It has an abundance of snow extending down into the foothills. The winter temperature is mild and adapted to exhilarating winter sports.

The past winter has been exceptional with its scarcity of snowfall but it has been ample for winter sports, and with the possibility of auto travel to Government Camp and other points, thousands have enjoyed the outdoor pastimes.

The slogan now is, "Mt. Hood All the Year." Hood River people, who are alive and appreciate publicity as few other communities in Oregon do, has awakened to the value of Mt. Hood as a winter playground and is planning a new Cloud Cap Inn.

Surely Portland will support every move to popularize Mt. Hood as a winter attraction.

HOME SWEET HOME.

"Home Sweet Home", as a melody, is still known to every man and woman in the country, but it represents today merely some lovely music set around some empty words.

Even the song our mothers and fathers almost looked on as a hymn is "jazzed" to make rhythm for frivolous feet, is desecrated at thousands of dances that make "Home Sweet Home" a mockery.

There is distressingly little respect for the father or the mother where there is distressingly little realization on their part of the sweet responsibilities of parenthood.

It is a condition that is dangerous, a condition that must be remedied, even though it should mean a total revolution of our existing religious and school teaching.

The home must be saved, but the country must first be aroused to an appreciation of the fact that home life is not only seriously menaced and in a very unhealthy state, but is, actually, in an almost moribund condition, not of itself, but through the inroads of all these ultra-modern encroachments that have had such destructive influences.

MORE BEEF, LESS PORK.

According to figures just given out by the National Livestock and Meat Board there has been, during the past year a marked increase in the consumption of beef, veal, lamb and mutton and a decrease in the consumption of pork.

The average person in the United States consumed a total of 154.3 pounds of all meats for the year, or nearly one-half pound a day, according to the board's chairman. He points out that this amount is greater by about four pounds than the average per capita consumption computed for the entire period since federal meat inspection was instituted in 1907.

The amount of beef consumed by the individual was placed at 63.1 pounds. Attention is called to the fact that with the exception of one year, 1918, this is the largest consumption of beef since 1912. The increase over 1924 was about one-half a pound.

MOTOR REGISTRATION MAY REACH 240,000

A registration of at least 240,000 motor vehicles for Oregon this year is predicted by Secretary of State Kozer, based upon the registration so far this year, totaling 162,000 commercial and passenger vehicles. Based upon this registration, Kozer estimates that registration fees collected for the year will aggregate more than $6,000,000, with another $3,500,000 collected by the state through the tax on motor fuel oils.

Oregon now has a motor vehicle for every four of its population, Kozer points out. Kozer also predicts a heavy tourist traffic for the Pacific Northwest this year.

"Comparing the license fees and taxes which the people of Oregon pay for the privilege of operating their motor vehicles over and upon our highways, we find that during the year 1926 there will be nearly twice as much as that contributed to direct property tax for the support and maintenance of all of the various state institutions, departments and activities which are provided for through appropriations made at the biennial sessions of the legislature. The direct property tax for the year 1926, exclusive of the two mill elementary school levy, is only a little in excess of $5,000,000.

"I think that the great volume which the motor vehicle owners of the state are now contributing in license fees and gas tax has much to do with the present agitation for a decrease in the amount of the motor vehicle license, especially upon cars which are three years or more old. There are many expressions of motor vehicle owners in this regard."—Oregon Business.

C. E. CONVENTION IN ALBANY NEXT MONTH

The annual convention of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union will be held at Albany April 15 to 18. Judge Jacob Kanzler, of Portland, state president, will preside. Leading ministers and workers from all parts of the state will appear on the program.

HOW TO USE LEFT OVER WAFFLE BATTER

Batter left over from waffles and pancakes is often covered with a wet cloth tied firmly over the container, and set in a cold place. The next day one-half as much baking powder as was originally used is sifted lightly over the top and stirred in. The batter is then ready for use. The pancakes or waffles will be very good. Muffins, simple cake, or steamed pudding, are also successfully made from left-over batter.

To make muffins of the left-over batter, a scant half of the original amount of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, for each cup of flour, is stirred in. Bran, graham flour, or whole wheat flour, are added in the same way to make different kinds of muffins.

After flour has been added, extra butter, melted, sugar, another beaten egg or two, and floured raisins or dates are added to make an excellent simple cake.

To make a steamed pudding, extra flour, finely chopped suet—instead of butter—, and either chopped figs, chopped apples, or any fresh berries in season, are added.
