How?

The question of how to express our feelings of devotion to those who have been taken from us often seems to be of overwhelming weight. Our years of experience have shown us what you will want and the correct way in which the symbol of your affection should be expressed. We want you to feel that we take a sincere and kindly interest in helping you.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. John Jonas was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Monday and underwent a major operation at the hospital the following day. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The members of Troutdale Chapter of Eastern Star spent a delightful evening, April 2, at the home of Mrs. Susan Harding at Corbett. The guests came in costume and those worth special mention were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Low of Troutdale were very cute in Scotch kilts, and entertained the guests by dancing several highland flings. George Wilcox of Latourell was dressed as a baby in white rompers, with Mrs. Wilcox as his nurse. They caused much merriment. C. Bush of Bridal Veil was a typical farmer, and the hostess, received her guests at the main entrance, dressed as an Italian maiden and with her hair hanging in two heavy braids, looked her part to perfection. The evening passed away quickly playing 500 and dancing. Prizes were given for the best costume and high and low score in card playing. Mrs. Jonas of Fairview, presented Mrs. Harding with a beautiful console set to which Mrs. Harding most graciously responded with thanks. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Rainbow girls of Waverly chapter will put on their work at Troutdale Friday evening. Miss Marjorie Bush of Bridal Veil and Miss Bella Reed of Corbett will be candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. LaLande, of Corbett, are the happy parents of a baby girl born last week in Portland. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mrs. Wilcox, of Latourell, received a telegram from Chicago yesterday stating that her aged mother, Mr. Hoffell had passed away and will be buried Thursday. Mrs. Wilcox visited her mother last Christmas and will not undertake to make the trip to Chicago now.

Mrs. Stuart gave a dinner on Easter Sunday at her Latourell home to a large circle of friends and relatives. About 25 shared the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stuart.

Rev. Mr. Harriman of Portland preached the Easter sermon at the church at Corbett on Sunday to a well filled house. C. Woodie had charge of the music and singing, which was very nicely carried out by the young people of the community. The pulpit was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Floyd Reed, who has been on the sick list for some time, is somewhat better at this time.

Mrs. Bramhall has returned home after spending a couple of months in California.
