DEATH BRINGS RELEASE TO MRS. M. D. KERN

Death entered the home of M. D. Kern Sunday morning April 11, and so quietly stole away the spirit of one, Mrs. Margaret A. Kern, that those who were left were not even aware of the exact moment her death took place. Mrs. Kern had been in poor health for many years and for the past four months had been practically an invalid. During that time she had been unable to rest in a reclining position and the end came while she was apparently sleeping in her chair, the direct cause of death being that of dropsy attended by heart complications. The funeral was held this morning at St. Joseph's Catholic church three miles west of Gresham, with interment in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Margaret A. Dolan was born August 10, 1854, in Ohio and moved with her parents from there to Kansas in 1874. Her marriage to Michael D. Kern took place February 5, 1878, at Palmer, Kansas. To this union were born three children, W. R. Kern, of Vancouver, Washington, Mrs. W. J. Hollenbeck, of Los Angeles and H. A. Kern, of San Francisco, all of whom, with the bereaved husband, remain to mourn the loss of one who, while scarcely knowing the meaning of good health, was ever thoughtful of their well being and kindly considerate of the best interests of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Kern came to Oregon in 1906, stopping first at Hood River and coming to Gresham about 1909. Since residing in Gresham Mrs. Kern had made many friends, although she was not able to get out and mingle with neighbors and acquaintances as she would have wished. Through the medium of her telephone and through written communications she kept in touch with the outside world and radiated a message of cheerfulness to those around her. She was especially interested in the county fair and those who have viewed her splendid display of canned fruits and vegetables in the domestic science department exhibit, will marvel how one in declining health could possibly have had the patience or ability to superintend such a collection. She was an ardent supporter of the grange until unable to longer attend the gatherings. She will be missed by the Outlook reporter force, as many times she thoughtfully contributed a bit of news by telephone that otherwise might have been missed. Her sunny disposition, coupled with untiring energy, made up a characteristically human woman, who will be missed not only by her family but by a circle of friends in the neighborhood. She left a number of letters behind her to be opened at her death, and in these she had made many bequests of small personal effects to favored ones. Mr. and Mrs. Kern have spent 48 years of wedded life together which have been years of harmony and happiness, unmarred by a cloud of any kind.

High mass was celebrated at the funeral services this morning by Father Nokter of Mount Angel. The pallbearers were Arthur Grant, Joseph Pateneaud, Joseph Chiodo, Patrick Collins, N. J. Anthon and Joseph Burns. All members of the family were present for the funeral, which was conducted by the Gates Funeral home, with the exception of the son in San Francisco, H. A. Kern. He has been here for two weeks, but felt obliged to return to his work in California on last Friday, not realizing that the end was so near.

member the cardinal virtues of honesty and square dealing both in the production of quality products, proper harvesting, and delivery, and if you are selling direct under a sales permit, the prompt and accurate report of all sales made, also the proper care of crates and hallecks that are our common property, always keeping in mind that good rule of life to do as you would have your neighbor do unto you;

Therefore the management wishes to thank the members for the splendid growth of this spirit among our members.

We also wish to express to the Outlook Publishing Co. our thanks for the amount of space allotted us during the years past, and as an expression of our appreciation, will promise to meet all of our bills promptly and think that if the St. Clairs were berry growers, they would make good co-operators.

We also wish to express to the commercial canners our appreciation of the friendly relations and friendships formed with their representatives whom we have dealt with, and hope that our future business relations will be mutually profitable and happy.

We also wish to express to the telephone girls our thanks for the highly efficient service given us during the harvest season from early morning far

FORMER TROUTDALE GIRL VICTIM OF BOTULINUS

The sad intelligence has been received by relatives near Gresham of the sudden death of Mrs. Marie D. Storm, wife of Peter Storm, and daughter of Frank Frommelt of Troutdale, which took place at her home in Gardena, California, April 3. Death was caused by botulinus poisoning, the result of eating canned string beans. She was sick but 48 hours and apparently was stricken with the fatal poison soon after partaking of the canned vegetable. Her husband was absent in San Jose, California, at the time and she was alone with a small nephew at her home. The child did not care to eat the beans, which probably accounts for his being alive at the present.

The deceased was born in Illinois in 1882 and came with her parents to Troutdale when but a small child, residing there during young womanhood.
