

Winters Holds Wolves to Four Hits in First Game.

Glenn Winters, Aggie pitcher, playing his first game of varsity baseball hurled a great game, holding the Timber League champions to four hits. He had plenty of stuff on the ball, making it impossible for the visitors to get any safe ones. He stayed in the box the entire game without walking a man. This game with the Kelso Timber Wolves was played last Friday at O. A. C.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson of Walla Walla, Washington, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch. The visitors were former residents of Gresham.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Palmquist Sunday, April 11, at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Bushong, a daughter weighing 7 1/4 pounds.

Miss Alice Roberts and Mrs. Viva Anderson drove over from Camas, Washington Wednesday and visited at the Roberts home for a few hours.

Columbian high school's basketball nine met defeat, 24 to 4, at the hands of the Gresham Union high school boys Friday afternoon on Stapleton field. The second team went to West Linn Tuesday and was beaten 9 to 5. The Gresham grade school boys were victorious Friday afternoon when they met the Orient nine on the Gillis diamond. The score stood 25 to 10.

Miss Grace Welch attended a large skating party in Portland Wednesday evening given by the Portland Electric Power company to its employees.

The residences of Peter Lenard, Carl Dahl and Harold Buzick are being wired this week for the installation of the electric ranges which they recently purchased from the Portland Electric Power company. Special heavy wiring is required for the transmission of juice into these modern "cook stoves" and the local electrical shop, formerly run by the late F. L. Mack, is getting around to the work of connecting up the ranges as rapidly as possible. The electric company will also connect up a Hughes hot point range for Paul Vedder which he recently secured at an auction sale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Horning are being congratulated on the arrival of their first grandchild, a bonnie lassie Maryann, born on April 10 to their daughter, Mrs. D. R. George of Portland. The baby is not only the first grandchild of the Hornings, but the first child of Mr. and Mrs. George and the first great grandchild of Mrs. Horning's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rand of Portland, and in addition she was born on the latter's birthday.

William Stanley has been transferred from the bureau of public roads to the forest service at Camp Creek camp grounds.

The fire department made a hasty run Tuesday evening for nothing in response to an alarm which someone turned in from the vicinity of the John Fox residence. The blaze proved to be nothing but a box which had caught fire in an old barn where some smelt were being smoked. The flames did not even destroy the fish which were curing and were promptly extinguished.

A spring sale of fancy work and aprons will be held in connection with the dinner to be served by the Methodist Ladies Aid on Friday evening, April 30.

Miss Gertrude Southard returned home Tuesday morning from Los Angeles where she has been visiting relatives for the past three months.

Mrs. Ida Theberge and Mrs. J. B. Ventura, of Portland, the mother and sister of Mrs. Ivan Swift, spent Wednesday at the Swift home. Another guest at the same residence is "Grandma" Amanda Clark, well known to many Gresham residents, as she formerly lived here. She will also visit with Mrs. C. A. Carothers and others before returning to her home in Portland.

The windows of the Bank of Gresham are being newly lettered this week with the business name of the firm.

Mrs. Robert Hardy brought into the Outlook office Thursday the first sweet peas of the season, a beautiful mixed variety, which were grown at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. R. Goger, of Pleasant Home. Miss Elizabeth Johnson has at the postoffice a gorgeous bouquet of California poppies, which she designated as just "some backyard weeds," which have been growing all winter. She says they have been blossoming for the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markwart visited Sunday with relatives of the latter residing at Dallas and Salem. They were accompanied by Julius Markwart who went to Dallas to work at carpenter work for the next two weeks.

The Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will hold its third anniversary and election of officers on Wednesday, April 21, at the home of Mrs. O. A. Eastman. All members and friends of the circle are urgently requested to attend.

The last auction sale in the vicinity of Gresham was that of Oscar Hartke who sold 16 grade cows, averaging $102.62 each. It is said that these prices are representative of the demand for good dairy cows at this time.

Sophomore day at the high school was observed Thursday afternoon by a program put on by the class, consisting of comedies, stunts and musical numbers. Miss Augusta Hahn, class adviser, coached the pupils in their program.

Mrs. Louis Nelson, of McMinnville, has been visiting for the past week with her mother, Mrs. M. B. Findley, who resides at Third and Roberts.

The Dorcas circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Horr.

Gresham chapter No. 117 O. E. S. is looking forward to a very pleasant meeting.

POOR INVESTMENTS

In every community large amounts are lost every year in foolish investments. Too many people try to "get something for nothing."

In spite of the old slogan "as safe as a bond" people continue to buy stock that is "hawked" about the streets with alluring promises of "big returns."

These are not investments—they are gambles. As those who have "taken a chance."

In seeking legitimate investments we will be glad to give you the benefit of our experience.

Don't buy—
"Blue Sky."
