GRESHAM LOCALS

Ed. Schenk left this morning for his summer's work as a forest ranger near Zigzag. Monday evening 20 friends gathered at his home for a farewell party in his honor. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing 500 and in listening in on the radio, after which refreshments were served.

Work will be commenced soon on the new residence of Burton Walrad which is to be erected on his lot in Kirkland addition on the corner of First street and Ava avenue. The house, a four-room modern bungalow, 34 x 36 feet in size, will face east and will be one story in height. There will be a full basement, with labor-saving devices. It will be heated by furnace and a fireplace will grace the living room, while in the up to date kitchen an electric range will take care of the cooking problem. M. Stokes, of Portland, is the architect and George Webster, of Gresham, will have charge of the carpenter work.

An important real estate deal is that of the sale of the old Gregerson place, consisting of house and 7½ acres east of Gresham on the Kane road, to eastern people, A. H. Byloff and family, of Plainfield, New Jersey, who will arrive soon to take possession of their property. Extensive alterations are to be made in the house. The sale was made through K. J. Hagberg, Powell Valley realtor.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Udey, Tuesday, April 13, a son weighing 8½ pounds, at the nursing home of Mrs. Harriet Timmerman. They reside near the mill of the Ridge Lumber company. Mrs. Udey, who is a granddaughter of Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, will be remembered as Miss Mary Davis, of Corbett.

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening, April 27, at the grange hall. The members of the Legion and the Auxiliary will enjoy a social hour together, followed by refreshments. The ladies are requested to bring their receipt cards to this meeting.

J. N. Clanahan has purchased within the past two weeks on Wallua avenue in Cascadeview Acres a lot 100 x 175 feet. Other recent sales to Gresham people in this tract have been to Burten and Leslie Walrad, K. C. Roberts and A. McManus. Negotiations are being made for other lots and it is expected that the entire plot of 14 acres will soon have changed hands. The purchases have been made from C. R. Miller of Portland through James Elkington.

The residence and garage of F. A. Miller at Melville farm are being painted this week, the color a Russian gray, which greatly improves the appearance of the premises. A son, Roy Miller, of Portland, is doing the painting, assisted by a friend, Frank Diehl, also from Portland, is engaged in helping with farm work at the Miller place.

Mrs. C. E. Walker, of Forest Grove, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. V. Adix, for two weeks during the absence of her husband on an eastern business trip to Washington, D. C., and other points.

Charles and Ralph Butterfield, who have just finished a revival campaign at Albany, will begin a series of services at the Bible Standard church Sunday evening which will continue indefinitely. The young men are occupying the three-room house on the premises of U. G. Saiki.

Theodore Van Donck returned Tuesday from a two-day business trip to Seattle.

Mrs. Edna Miller, daughter of Mrs. Anna Hamlin, spent last week with her mother and other Gresham relatives. Her husband, Jack Miller, of West Timber, Oregon, came for her Sunday and they returned to their home.

Frank C. Jones has bought a lot at Wemme on the Mt. Hood Loop highway and is preparing to build a carpenter shop and engage in building operations there. He will return to Gresham occasionally to care for work in this vicinity.

Arnold Rogers, who has been out of school on account of sickness for the past two weeks, is improving.

Arrangements have been made with the Radio Electric company to furnish facilities for a radio program in connection with the dinner to be given by the Methodist Ladies Aid on the evening of April 30. The regular meeting of the Aid will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the church.

Returned Missionary to Lecture. The Rev. Burton L. Beegle, late returned missionary from the Panama Canal zone, will give an address at the Free Methodist church Tuesday evening, April 27, at 7:30, illustrated by upward of 100 lantern slides. This lecture promises to be both interesting and highly instructive, as views will be shown of the construction of the Panama canal, the operation of the locks, scenes in and around Panama city as well as pictures of church and Sunday school work. The Rev. Mr. Beegle will enjoy meeting old friends and acquaintances at this time as he was formerly well known in Gresham and vicinity, and it is hoped many will avail themselves of this privilege as well as the pleasure of listening to an educational lecture. He will also preach at the Free Methodist church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. and Mrs. Beegle and three children, arrived Thursday evening from Los Angeles by auto and will visit relatives and friends in and around Gresham for the coming week. They have been engaged as missionaries in the Canal zone for nearly four years and only recently left there on account of impaired health.

Gresham Undenominational Services. Preaching services, preceded by a special song service, will be held at the Undenominational temple Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Sunday school will convene at 10 a. m. There will be preaching again Sunday evening, also prayer meeting will be held Tuesday evening and young people's meeting on Friday evening. Everyone welcome to all services.
