GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davidson left Tuesday by auto for a trip of several days to Seattle and other places near there.

Mrs. Joe Comstock returned Wednesday to Hood River after spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Annie Hevel, and other relatives.

Friends of Mrs. George Leslie, Jr., will be glad to know that she was able to leave the hospital Tuesday after a very serious operation which necessitated her stay there three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie, of Gresham, visited with her in her home Tuesday.

Walter Metzger has disposed of his garage at Boring to W. Root, of Portland, and is making arrangements to move his family to Gresham. He has rented the Kessler house on East Powell street and expects to occupy it within a short time.

The house of Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie is being repainted and the roof also is receiving a fresh coat of paint.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Deardorff, of Los Angeles, spent the week-end with the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deardorff. They are visiting other relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Balsiger have vacated the J. E. Gaskill house on Lawrence avenue and have gone to White Salmon, Washington, to reside.

Ivan Lacey, of Estacada, was a business caller in Gresham Thursday forenoon. He is an old acquaintance of B. O. Boswell.

S. Seelye, an employe of the Portland Electric Power company at the Sellwood car barns, moved Tuesday to Portland from the Marston house on Lawrence avenue.

Mrs. Laura Barnes of Milwaukie, Oregon, a former resident of Gresham, visited with friends here one day this week.

Mrs. M. Roton, who left Gresham a year ago to make her home in Vernonia, was here on business last Tuesday. She has been in Portland visiting with her granddaughter, Maude Congdon.

Mrs. J. W. Hendricks returned home Saturday from California where she spent six months with friends and relatives. She still likes Oregon and is glad to be back. Her son Robert has gone to Salt Lake, where he is with the United States Mining company in exploration work.

Mrs. Thos. Wiles picked a number of ripe raspberries from her garden a few days ago, nearly two months before the usual time for the ripening of the berries.
