COUNCIL GRANTS BLOCK FOR STAGE TERMINAL

The matter of the terminal for the new Portland-Gresham-Sandy stage line in Gresham was taken up at the regular meeting of the city council last Wednesday evening and thoroughly discussed.

Approval was given the plan to move the fire hydrant near the cannery, which is now in the driveway of the new extension to the receiving shed to a point to the east of the building.

The city hall is soon to be renovated and refurbished. The outside will receive a coat of water proof paint and the interior will be redecorated.

Permission was granted the Portland firm of Crane & Company to park an exhibition truck on the streets of Gresham for a day in the near future.

Section Line to Be Straightened.

The county is preparing the way for the improvement of the Section Line road. If the bond issue to be voted on May 21 carries, as there is every reason to believe it will, the county will proceed at once with the hard surfacing of this main artery of travel.

County Engineer G. W. Buck stated a few days ago that proceedings would be started at once to secure the right of way necessary to straighten the Section Line where it makes a double curve near the Beaver State Motor works. The property chiefly affected belongs to Mrs. Nancy Sales.

Gresham Market Thanks Patrons.

A. J. W. Brown, proprietor of the Gresham Meat Market, wishes to thank his friends for their continued patronage during the trying period of reconstruction and much regrets the delay caused by trivial technicalities which had to be attended to, but he is pleased to announce that the building operations are again in full force and will go on to completion.

LEGION BALL TEAM WINS GAME IN NINTH

Six to five for Gresham was the score in Sunday's game, played on Stapleton Field, with the Marcell club of Portland and not until the last man was out in the ninth inning was the outcome of the game at all certain.

The game was marked by frequent errors by both teams but in the main the Legion boys appear to be in first class shape and have assembled a team which will finish above the 500 mark.

Cash customers to the games have been pretty scarce and the class of baseball being played here by local boys should draw far better than the three preceding games have.

A summary of Sunday's game is as follows:

Table with columns for GRESHAM and MARCELL, and rows for runs, hits, errors.

Batteries: Gresham—Middleton and Wood. Marcell: Forky and Chuck.

Another fast Portland team, the Southern Pacific Co., is scheduled to try and bump the Legion team Sunday, May 9, on Stapleton Field.

The game will be called at 2:30.

False Fire Alarm Rouses Sleepers.

Gresham citizens were in a more or less state of ragged indignation Thursday morning as the result of being peremptorily hustled out of their beds about 3 o'clock by the ringing of the fire bell at the city hall.

BERRY GROWERS SIGN UP CONTRACTS

The contractors of 1921 met at the cannery office, one hundred and twenty-five strong, on Wednesday evening to consider the question of renewing their six-year contracts that expire at the close of this year.

The lunch consisted of Gresham doughnuts, Gresham strawberry ice cream—the strawberries used were from this year's crop and the quality of the product was attested to by the second orders placed—coffee was also served.

The banqueters were called to order by President W. D. Fraley, who introduced as toastmaster, the handy man, County Agent S. B. Hall, who caught the spirit of "Union Forever" that filled the air and was at his best in introducing the speakers of the evening who responded as follows to the various topics:

C. M. La Follet responded to question and said that in his experience and observation the Gresham berry growers' association was the most successful and best organized cooperative organization in the state.

C. T. Ryan's response was that the six-year long time contract was the foundation and main pillars to be used in building a successful cooperative association.

Lester Schedeen gave four dialect readings that were very much enjoyed.

J. J. Fisher gave as the key to cooperative success the desire on the part of every individual member to boost and not knock, every woman and man doing their very best in whatever line of the work they were engaged.

N. P. Nelson in a forceful speech told the reason why he was a member of the association, which, boiled down to a sentence, is, "To help myself and my neighbor" which is a true expression of the object and aims, in the writer's opinion.

S. A. Roberts gave a reading that reflected human ingenuity in painting a subject very black or white.

F. J. Keller spoke feelingly of the benefits of association work in the southwest or Carver part of our territory, and quoted Abraham Lincoln's expression—"United we stand, divided we fall."

Wm. Kniefel responded to the subject "How to meet conditions and save some money in times like these" and provided that it could be done by spending less than you earn.

It was discovered that Karl J. Hagberg was the pioneer berry barterer in Multnomah county who barreled 538 barrels of logans and raspberries in 1919 in the old Metzger store, for the association during its first season.

Mrs. Fred Lehman responded to the toast, "The development of the berry industry."

Dr. Wright responded to the topic, "Stocks, bonds and other things" and among other things told a story that made the point very clear and plain that we were organized for self defense, and the six-year long time growers' contract was the best weapon to use.

"Damasus Hopes" were expressed by Mrs. M. G. Kelley for the success of the association.

Pleasant Home prosperity was attributed by Martin Lennartz, to the berry association.

"Should we restrict membership," was discussed by E. P. Schedeen who claimed that distance was the only limit, and the best solution of the problem was the organization in a separate unit the territory south of the Clackamas river, centering at Oregon City, or preferably Estacada.

C. A. Baker was introduced as the man who produced $1100 worth of strawberries in 1925 on one and one-eighth acres of land.

Ed. Spah as the man who always backed the association with cash—and money talks loudest.

John Ickler as the man who suggested buying the cannery.

Elmer Williams as the man who is as true as steel.

Franz Mattson as the man we all like.

George Moulton as the man who is always ready to defend the association.

E. E. Lounsbury who takes a pride in growing and packing quality berries.

W. B. Parsons as the man who expresses his appreciation freely.

The program was well received and the sentiments generously applauded, and while it was in progress the office force waited on those whose contracts were expiring, for their renewals, and the renewals were made 100 per cent, for six years, or including the year 1932.

This expression of faith in them-

FAIR BOARD BUSY ON PLANS FOR FAIR

The minutes of Secretary A. W. Metzger of the fair association read at last night's regular meeting showed that during April the entire board held several meetings and the executive board of five directors other meetings relating to buildings, arrangements of grounds and formulation of plans for the coming county fair which will open on August 3.

The board passed a resolution of appreciation to all who had assisted in the exercise of, cornerstone laying, and mentioned in particular the children of the grade school and principal and the Gresham band.

The premium list is well under way and will be ready for distribution in about two weeks.

The board is receiving the encouragement of influential Portland people as never before. Frequent conferences are held and big plans are being formulated for the future.

Joe Dunne, candidate for the state senate, joint district, and J. O. Wilson, clerk of the Multnomah Camp, Woodmen of the World, regular board members, were present last night and are very active and helpful in their work for the good of the fair.

PLEASANT HOME

Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock at the Pleasant Home Methodist church, followed by preaching at 11:15. This will be a special Mothers' Day service and the subject, "Mary, the Mother of Jesus" will be used. There will also be special music by the choir. Miss Amy Sloop will be the leader of the Epworth League which will convene at 7:30 in the evening.

Governor Pierce is to be present at the banquet which is to be sponsored by the Methodist Ladies Aid at Pleasant Home and which will be held in the newly-completed basement of the church on Saturday evening, May 8. An interesting program has been prepared consisting of readings and music. The Pleasant Home orchestra will play Nellie and Pattie Greenwood, of Bull Run, will give piano numbers, Miss Martha Hagberg will sing and Mrs. Jessie Miller, of Fairview, will give readings. Selections will also be given by a quartet. The banquet will begin at 8 o'clock. The basement of the church, 28 x 70 in size, has recently been finished in cement and white plaster and is very light and dry. The work has all been donated by the people of the church and community. Improvements will begin soon on the upper part of the church building.

VICTORY

Mrs. G. W. Alder will entertain at an all-day quilting party, to be held at her home Wednesday, May 12. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon, and in the afternoon ice cream will be served by the Victory Busy Bees sewing club, of which Mrs. Alder is leader. Two quilts will be quilted, one for the Pleasant Home Methodist Ladies Aid and one for the Victory circle of the Evangelical Women's Union. This is to finish raising money to send one of the sewing club girls to the O. A. C. summer school. Ladies of both circles are cordially invited, also neighbors and friends.

selves, their association and management is probably without a precedent in the history of cooperative associations in the state of Oregon or the United States; after following the flag for six years to enlist for another six indicates the quality of material the members are built of as it is an expression of having a grasp and knowledge of the basic principles that underlie success and is the chief asset.

Manager Towle feelingly thanked the members on behalf of the management for the splendid expression of confidence, and pledged the management to a greater effort for the success of the business in the future.

CHERRY GROWERS ATTENTION!

There will be a cherry grower's meeting at the cannery at 3 p. m. sharp on Wednesday, May 12, and we want every man or woman in Multnomah or northern Clackamas counties who has one or more cherry trees to attend this meeting to learn how to kill the cherry fly maggot, and to form a cherry marketing pool, especially for the black cherries. Come prepared to join with your neighbors in putting this good work across. Please size up your crop closely and give us your estimates as to varieties and tonnage.

Please remember the date and be on hand. We should have 1000 growers at this meeting. Please be one of them, as this is very important to the cherry industry. Come!

Strawberry ice cream will be served. Gooseberry Growers Attention! We wish you would harvest the gooseberries on the 11th or 12th of May and bring them in for canning. THE BERRY GROWERS PACKING CO. Adv.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mothers' Day will receive appropriate notice in the morning services at the Methodist Episcopal church. In connection with the Bible school, which begins at 10 o'clock, special notice will be paid to the day in several of the departments. In the service following the Bible school Dr. Chas. W. Huett, the pastor, will speak on the subject, "The Ideal Wife and Mother." There will be special music appropriate to the day.

The evening services will begin half an hour later than in the winter and spring months. The Epworth League will begin at 6:45 instead of 6:15, and the evening preaching service at 8 instead of 7:30. Miss Margaret St. Clair will be the leader of the Epworth League. The topic for discussion will be "The Summer's Best Week." The evening service will begin with a song service led by H. W. Strong. The subject for the pastor's sermon will be "Scripture Difficulties."

The monthly meeting of the official board will be held on Tuesday evening beginning at 7:45, in the pastor's study. A complete attendance is desired as matters of importance will come up for discussion.

The mid-week prayer service will be held at 7:45, to which all are invited.

Bible Standard Community Services. The young men evangelists who are conducting a revival campaign in the Bible Standard community church report great victory at the outset of their second week's effort. Appreciative audiences listened attentively to a live musical program and a strong message from the visiting revivalists on both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The arrival of Charles C. Butterfield, brother of the evangelist, has added much to the strength of the party. The Butterfield brothers have just completed a successful campaign at Albany and predict a stirring campaign in Gresham. These young men preach the old time religion and believe in getting back to the Bible. Much singing and special music were given over to the evening program. A solo entitled, "The Lord Followed Me," a catchy testimony in song, was rendered by Hamlin Wilson. "Ham" was formerly a member of the "Young Men Musical Evangelists, with C. O. Benham director, which held revival campaigns throughout Washington and Oregon. He leads the singing with an artist model Buescher saxophone, with Miss Floella Jacobs, of Gresham, assisting at the piano.

Services will continue every evening this week and the following week except Monday, at 8 o'clock. The meetings are interdenominational in spirit and are for everybody.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The play entitled, "Adam and Eva," which was given at the Columbian high school Thursday, was a splendid success and netted about $100. The assembly room was packed and those who took part did so very satisfactorily. The cast was as follows: Lawrence Anderson, Adeline Evans, Harry Palmer, Isabel Pulliam, Hella Reed, Lillian Post, Fred Etling, Roy Pulliam, Horace Evans and Halbert Babbitt. Much credit is due Mrs. Geo. Perry, who so willingly gave her time coaching the characters. C. Bramhall also deserves much praise for his assistance.

Jack Meier, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier, sustained a broken bone in his ankle last Sunday when he fell off his horse while riding. He broke his leg in the same way two years ago, but is no "piker" and enjoys the life out on the ranch.

F. Bell is driving a fine new seven-passenger Jewett and Lewis Benfield has purchased an Overland coach.

Mrs. McKay entertained the needle club of Springdale last week, about 16 ladies being present. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The cantata given by the Corbett grade school pupils under the supervision of Miss Murray, was a pretty affair and all of the pupils did well. Miss Murray has spent much time and patience drilling the children. The affair cleared about $14.

Mrs. Viroqua Farrin is planning a recital to be given by her piano pupils some time this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, of Portland, spent Sunday at their beautiful country home here on the highway.

The Corbett baseball team played its first game of the season Sunday afternoon, losing to the Bridal Veil team 14 to 5. Perry Settlemeir is the manager of the Corbett team.

R. P. Rasmussen, of The Dalles, spent Sunday at Columbia View farm. Mrs. Jasper Crane had as her guests Saturday for dinner Mr. and Mrs. I. Plummer and Miss Laing, of Portland, who all attended. He exercises at the fair ground at Gresham in the afternoon.

FAIRVIEW

"Godly Mothers" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church by the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Holtensted. Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock. A Mother's Day concert will be held in the evening at 7:45 sponsored and conducted by the Women's society. All are cordially invited to be present.

GRESHAM GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF CAMAS MAN

Miss Alice Roberts and John Hansen, of Camas, Washington, were united in marriage at noon Wednesday, May 5, at a quiet home wedding at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts on Second street. The Rev. John Parsons, uncle of the bride, officiated at the simple ceremony, which was witnessed by a few close friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mrs. Wilson Eastman played the wedding march and the couple was attended by the brother-in-law and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. S. Avid Salmonsens, of Camas. The bride was attired in powder blue georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and rosebuds. After a luncheon served at the conclusion of the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen left by auto for Los Angeles where they will remain several weeks, after which they expect to return to Portland to reside. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Salmonsens and two children, Walter and Elva, of Camas.

THE RIGHT PLATFORM.

F. R. Peterson, an experienced pharmacist connected with a string of three drug stores in Portland, was in Gresham on Wednesday promoting his candidacy for representative to the state legislature from Multnomah county. His slogan sounds good: "More business in government; less government in business." Mr. Peterson expressed himself as opposed to the modification of the Volstead act to allow light wines and beer, and the making of drug stores the distributing centers for the liquor. He declared that this is the consensus of opinion of druggists throughout the country. He also stated that as a class druggists are law-abiding and that the organization of Oregon pharmacists would not countenance in its membership any who had been convicted of bootlegging.

Undenominational Services.

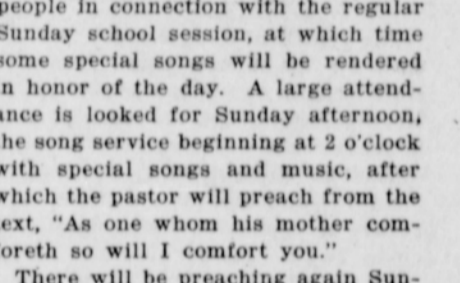

There will be a brief Mothers' Day program Sunday at the Undenominational temple in charge of the young people in connection with the regular Sunday school session, at which time some special songs will be rendered in honor of the day. A large attendance is looked for Sunday afternoon, the song service beginning at 2 o'clock with special songs and music, after which the pastor will preach from the text, "As one whom his mother comforteth so will I comfort you."

There will be preaching again Sunday evening at 7:30. Prayer service is held each Tuesday evening and Bible study Friday evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
