VOL. 16, NO. 21

GRESHAM, MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON, TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1926

$1.50 Per Year

SERMON TO GRADUATES WILL BE NEXT SUNDAY

The baccalaureate sermon for the class of 1926 of Gresham Union high school will be delivered next Sunday afternoon at 2:45 at the high school gymnasium by the Rev. Charles MacCaughy, of Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church, Portland, who will speak on the subject, "The Aristocracy of Tomorrow." The Rev. Mr. MacCaughy is said to be a very original and interesting speaker. The class for this year numbers 49 students, one more than that of last year.

The Rev. E. W. Withnell, pastor of the Methodist church at Pleasant Home, will deliver the invocation, Dr. C. W. Huett, pastor of the Gresham Methodist church, will read the scripture and the Rev. W. T. Klotzbach, pastor of the Free Methodist church, will pronounce the benediction. Hallie Jones, a member of the graduating class, will sing, "I Will Extol Thee," by Alfred Wooler.

GRESHAM BAND CONCERT HAS PLEASING NUMBERS

Preparations and rehearsals are going forward for the band concert which is to be held Thursday evening at the high school gymnasium, the proceeds of which will be used to defray the expense of purchasing uniforms for the members of the band. The program, which will begin at 8:30, will be as follows: "Them Basses," band; "Living Pictures," band; Portland Electric Power company double male quartet; "Cuban Libra waltzes," band; baritone solo, H. H. Ott; "Radiant overture," band; violin solo, W. D. Kinder; "Mountain Echoes," band; solo, Leslie Walrad; "Cabaletta March," band; P. E. P. double male quartet; "Indianola," band; "Trombone Smiles," band; cornet solo, Clifford Gibbs; "Imogene," band; "Our Director," band. The above program may be subject to a slight change. The numbers scheduled by the double quartet from the P. E. P. company promises to be of unusual interest. The men are trained singers and frequently are heard over the radio and at various important Portland functions.

THIEVES RAID SEVERAL MORE CHICKEN HOUSES

Chicken thieves still continue their depredations in and around Gresham, the coops of Ralph Davidson and Ralph Stanley being the latest to be molested. Sometime during Thursday night the wire on the west end of the Davidson lot was cut in much the same manner it was at the Stubbs place a short time ago, and nine big Rhode Island Red chickens, eight of them laying hens, were given a change of residence or, as is more likely, dressed for the week-end market in the city. A deputy sheriff was summoned and found tracks plainly discernible, but nothing definite that would lead to an arrest.

The chicken coops of Ralph Stanley were also raided the same night, 11 fine Plymouth Rock hens and two roosters falling into the hands of the marauders. The footprints around the premises at this place were measured and found to be identical with those at the Davidson home. The place was entered from the south side, through the berry field and garden. A truck was heard to stop in the vicinity, but as the wind and rain were making considerable noise at the time, the matter was forgotten until the next morning when the chickens were found missing. Six chickens were left in the Stanley coop, some of which had the feathers well pulled out, showing they made a determined effort to break away. The deputy expressed himself at the Stanley house as being in possession of information that might lead to arrest later.

Chickens owners and others as well are getting up in arms over the wholesale manner in which thieves are carrying on their work around here. It is without doubt the result of an organized gang of thieves who commercialize on dressing fowls for the market.

A suspicious looking character was loitering around the north end of Gresham last week and it is thought he may have been looking up the lay of the land. He tried a locked door at the Duncan residence, but was frightened away. The same man was seen loitering around the Davidson and Stubbs homes.

PLEASANT HOME CHURCH GIVES LARGE BANQUET

The banquet given by the Ladies Aid of the Pleasant Home Methodist church last Saturday night was one of the most outstanding events to take place in the community for many moons. The roomy basement hall, recently completed by the volunteer work of the people, was packed to capacity and a splendid banquet was enjoyed. The tables were decked with vases of rhododendron and baskets of flowers filled every available place. About 325 persons were present to enjoy the program, which was given as announced, with the addition of musical numbers by a group led by Mrs. J. E. Gates of Gresham.

The presence of Governor Pierce was an honor much appreciated by the people of the Ladies Aid and the community, and the pleasure was apparently reciprocated by the governor. His address, which avoided any plea for political support, had to do with principles of sound government, community cooperation and individual responsibility of the citizens in upholding high ideals, was greatly enjoyed by the audience. The governor was preceded by Milton A. Miller, who gave a brief and interesting talk on political economy, but who likewise held in the background his own candidacy for national committeeman.

Following the governor's speech Miss Lydia O'Bryon, candidate for the position of circuit judge, and Thomas H. Hurlburt, who is running for the nomination for county commissioner, were introduced and talked briefly of their candidacy.

LEGION TEAM WINS GAME SUNDAY, 5-3

The Gresham American Legion team put the skids under the S. P. Co. nine Sunday, by a 5-3 score. The Legion boys played first class baseball behind the pitching of Misener and by hitting when there were men on bases, led the visitors all the way.

Gresham opened hostilities in the first inning when successive singles by Girod, Kruger and H. Squire scored Girod and Kruger.

Faulkner, toiling on the mound for S. P., held the Legion team scoreless until the sixth, when an error, a walk and a long single counted two more runs for Gresham. Again in the seventh inning Herroc singled, was sacrificed to third and stole home for the last Legion score. In the meantime the visitors had chalked up a run in the second, fourth and seventh innings.

Another game is scheduled for next Sunday on Stapleton Field, to be called promptly at 2:30.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE TO HOLD MEETING HERE

The sixteenth annual conference of the Washington Mission district of the Evangelical Synod of North America and the third annual convention of the District Young People's League will convene in Zion Evangelical church, Gresham, May 13 to 16. The first session of the conference will open at 8:30 a. m. Thursday, and the closing session will be held Saturday morning.

The young people's convention will meet for its first session at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon and for its closing session on Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Four preaching services will be held during the conference and convention, at 8 o'clock Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings and at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Other services will be Sunday school at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and the Junior League meeting at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. C. Hoffman of Portland will deliver the principal address Thursday evening; the Rev. E. Buemann of Spokane, Washington, will deliver the address on Friday evening; the Rev. A. H. Becker, D. D., of New Orleans, Louisiana, the denominational vice president, the sermon Sunday morning and the Rev. G. L. Zocher of Seattle, Washington, will be the principal speaker Sunday evening.

Friday evening is young people's night at the conference and the address for the evening will deal with young people's problems. A play, "The Victory of Mary Christopher," will be presented by a select cast. This presentation is very interesting and instructive and deserves a large audience.

At the conference services offerings will be received for New Eden, for the district league and for the Washington Mission district.

Pastors, delegates and other guests will begin to arrive today. All members and friends of the church and other interested parties are cordially invited to attend not only the services but the conference and convention sessions as well.

On Saturday afternoon the conference guests and delegates will be taken on a sight-seeing tour to Government Camp.

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS VISIT GRESHAM SCHOOL

Eighth graders, 160 strong, descended on the staid walls of Gresham Union high school Friday from 16 different schools of this locality, together with six of their principals, and to say they enjoyed themselves thoroughly would be putting it mildly. Promptly at 10:30 they assembled in the gymnasium where Principal Cannon talked to them on their choices of courses of study. The high school handy books, just off the press, were distributed and advice given as to their perusal. They received instruction as to registration, importance of getting to high school on opening day, outline of courses, in fact, everything needful for a high school freshman to know. Their questions were cheerfully answered in regard to minor details.

Later a program was put on for the benefit of the visitors. Musical numbers were contributed from the glee clubs, the orchestra and band, and a speech was made by the retiring president of the student body, Floyd McKinney, to which a response of welcome was made by the president-elect, Kenneth Horberg. The visiting grade school principals, Mrs. Anna Studley, of Rockwood, Mrs. Lloyd Tegart, of Fairview, R. D. Hewitt, of Troutdale, Mr. Oleman, of Orient, Miss Canning, of Lynch, and C. M. Quicksall, of Gresham, each made fitting remarks on the occasion. After doing justice to a dish of ice cream served by the high school at the conclusion of their lunch, the visitors enjoyed immensely a close game of baseball played between Hillsboro and Gresham, in which the latter won by the margin of 4 to 3.

The schools represented at the gathering on Friday were Deep Creek, Boring, Union, Hillsview, Lusted, Cedar, Victory, Troutdale, Fairview, Rockwood, Lynch, Powell Valley, Orient, Gilbert, Powellhurst and Gresham. For the most part the pupils came in busses, extra trips being provided for their conveyance to and from Gresham.

Mr. Cannon has received an inquiry about sending the high school baseball team to the Gladstone chautauqua which meets July 8-21. The plan is to have four high school teams from elsewhere play a series at the chautauqua rather than hire teams as they have in the past. Mr. Cannon has replied stating the local team is willing to play against any 100 per cent high school team in the state of Oregon.

The local baseball team is at Estacada today and the closing game of the season will be played Friday at Hillsboro.

Baccalaureate services will be held next Sunday afternoon at the high school gymnasium, class night exercises on Wednesday evening, May 19, and commencement exercises Friday evening, May 21. The Gresham high school orchestra will go to Fairview on the evening of Thursday, May 20, to play at the eighth grade commencement exercises of that school.

MANY CLUBS FORMED IN COUNTY WORK

Four garden clubs, a pig club and a potato club were organized during the past month, with a membership of 86 according to the report for the month of April submitted by W. D. Kinder, county club agent. Three garden clubs were organized at Parkrose with 52 members, Mr. Roth, H. J. Miller and Arthur Stevenson being appointed local leaders. A garden club was also organized at Gilbert with 21 members, with Ernest Liden, club leader. A pig club organized at Lusted with five members, William Newlands, leader, and a potato club at Hillsview with eight members under the leadership of E. R. Schedeen, completed the list of clubs organized during April.

A local club leaders' meeting will be held at Gresham Union high school May 27, at which time the county fair situation will be discussed. Group meetings will be held for each project for the purpose of solving project problems. During the month several important meetings have been held pertaining to the welfare of club work in general. Miss Case, nutrition specialist, spent two days in the county working with the individual leaders of the health clubs. R. S. Besse spent an evening with the farm account boys, closing up the books. The demonstration team was selected and the boys are now putting forth an effort in the way of a public demonstration. L. J. Allen, livestock leader of the state, gave members of the county some good work in livestock management, feeding and record keeping.

SCENIC CANNERY CO. HAS NEW BUILDING

The plant of the Scenic Cannery company, located at Scenic station, was recently wired for electric lights, Vern Lucas of Springdale, in charge of the work of wiring the building. A crew from the Portland Electric Power company in Portland connected up the wiring on the poles with the cannery plant and the juice is now running the motor for the machinery, the water pumping plant and the electric lighting for the building, together with the lighting of nearly a dozen private residences in the neighborhood which were unsupplied with electric current. An estimate was taken several weeks ago of the equipment needed to supply all who wished electricity, but not enough provision was made for all the residents to obtain lighting until a second estimate was made.

The Scenic cannery has passed the experimental stage. Two years ago and again last season the work was carried on as more or less of a trial business proposition, but the workings of the two previous years have been so successful it is now a permanent fixture not only in the community but in the local commercial world as well. The plant is in charge of Mr. Henningsen, a Portland man associated with a Portland packing company, but the superintendent of the work is a Scenic rancher and berry grower H. M. Tucker who is managing the affairs of the Portland company in such a way they have proved profitable to the owners. Tucker was formerly in Alaska in a salmon cannery and is thoroughly experienced in his line. A ready market is found in Alaska and in China for the canned berries and cherries which are put out by the cannery plant at Scenic. It is expected that 50 persons will be employed at the cannery this season.

A new frame building 45 x 110 feet in size was completed this spring which, with the former building 28 x 36, will give ample room for the handling and distribution of the fruit. Building construction is now going on for about a half dozen small frame cottages which will help to house the workers who wish to work at the cannery and who do not reside in the vicinity. The water from a spring on the D. D. Jack ranch will be piped into a tank and from that distributed to boiler room and cooker.

ORVILLE ZIMMERMAN TAKES PORTLAND BRIDE

A wedding which will be of interest to many of the young people in Gresham is that of Orville Zimmerman, who resided here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman for ten years before moving to Portland. He was united in wedlock on Wednesday last at Corvallis to Miss Helen Sweet, a Portland girl. The ceremony was witnessed by an aunt of the bride, who is head of the department of domestic science at Oregon Agricultural College, and a sister of the groom, Miss Doris Zimmerman, a student at O. A. C. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elnathan Sweet, of Portland, and was a graduate last June of the nurses' training course at Good Samaritan hospital. The groom was a graduate of Gresham Union high school, later attending the University of Washington. He is a member of the national fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon. The couple will reside in Portland where Mr. Zimmerman is associated with his father in the garage business at Hawthorne avenue and 50th street.

Long Distance Lines Completed.

The project which has been under way for the past two months of adding three circuits to the long distance service between Gresham and Portland is now completed and the extra circuits placed in service. As a result of the improved facilities there is now an aggregate of five miles of cable and 28 miles of copper wire which was used in the construction work, involving an investment of approximately $7500. The company now has nine circuits working between Portland and Gresham.

Prize Contest Announced.

John R. Townsley, who is manager of a large pigeon ranch near Milwaukie, Oregon, is putting on a contest which is open to all. The Oregon Pigeon Lofts will give a pair of pigeons free to the person writing the best article on the care and raising of pigeons. All letters are to be addressed to John R. Townsley, manager, Milwaukie, Oregon.

FOR Joint Senator

Clackamas, Columbia and Multnomah Counties

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

JOE E. DUNNE

"An Experienced Executive and Business Man"

Platform

I believe in the Direct Primary and am opposed to any oligarchy endeavoring to pick out and force candidate upon the members of the Republican party.

I favor strict law enforcement in prohibition, am personally and publicly dry, but oppose the employment of criminals and stool pigeons to obtain evidence.

I favor the consolidation of State Departments, to prevent the overlapping of department endeavor, thus at the same time reducing taxes and making the payment of increased wage, that all state, county, or city employees may live in accordance with the standards of the day without outside employment.

I believe the program of good roads should be continued, and economics could be brought about through the consolidation of state departments that would make the reduction of license possible.

I am against any further increase in gas tax without a corresponding reduction in license fees.

Will aid in preparation of auto laws that are needed for the protection of the motorist, and will vote in the repeal of all freak automobile laws.

I favor the immediate repeal of tolls on the Interstate Bridge.

I believe the fish and game commission should be removed from politics and that the game fund should be preserved in its entirety for the game commission.

I am opposed to child labor.

Will use all my power to make stringent laws with big sentences for all violators of narcotic laws.

As President of the Oregon Dairy Council for many years and an operating Dairyman my record is so well known to the farmers that they need no further guarantee from me as to my stand with them.

I favor the repeal of the so-called peddler's law. I believe that no salesman should be obliged to pay for the privilege of working.

I have no political scores to pay and owe no political obligations. Just a plain business man willing to serve the public.
