SECOND & MAIN GRESHAM

GRESHAM LOCALS

It is hoped there will be a general rally to the W. C. T. U. institute which will be held at the Methodist church Thursday, May 20, under the direction of the county president, Mrs. C. O. Horning. The program will begin at 10 o'clock and the time will be full of interesting and profitable events from then until 4 o'clock when the political candidates present will be introduced to the audience. Lunch will be served in the basement of the church at noon.

Mrs. E. G. Judd went to Milton, Oregon, last week to attend the commencement exercises Thursday evening of McLaughlin Union high school of Milton-Freewater, where her son, Leslie Judd, was a member of the graduating class. Mrs. Judd and her son returned to Gresham Monday.

Louis Calkins expects to leave for Los Angeles tomorrow where he will engage in the grocery business with his brother-in-law, L. W. Shanley, at Compton, California, a suburb nine miles from Los Angeles. Mr. Shanley has two grocery stores at Compton and Mr. Calkins will have charge of one of them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Heyne are receiving congratulations over the arrival of an 8-pound son who arrived May 14. Mrs. Emma Heyne has come from Lebanon to assist in the care of her daughter-in-law.

The Rev. B. C. Dewey, who has been with his niece, Mrs. G. A. Cox and family for several days, will accompany his son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Dawson, to Mt. Vernon, Washington, where he expects to remain for some time.

Birdine Nye, a granddaughter of Mrs. C. Merrill, came out from Portland for a week-end visit with her relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anicker are spending the week at Yakima, Washington, and in their absence Mrs. Amanda Clark is taking care of the home.

A party of young folks gave Guy Rusher a surprise farewell party Saturday evening at his home, on the eve of his departure for Alaska to work in a salmon cannery during the coming season. Other lads to make the trip are Philip Wright, Hervey Ide and Evald Norby. Floyd McKinney took all the boys, with the exception of Norby up to Seattle Sunday morning, from which point they expected to take the boat for Alaska this morning. Norby made the trip to Seattle by train.

Mrs. J. A. Bushong, and her niece, Mrs. Clara Herald, of Oak Grove, and the latter's children are spending several days in Seattle visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Larsen accompanied the latter's Sunday school class, composed of nine little Japanese children, to Laurelhurst park Sunday where a most enjoyable time was spent. The study of the Sunday school lesson was taken up under the green trees and amid the singing of the birds, followed by lunch and ice cream.

Dr. C. W. Huett was unable to fill his pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday on account of an attack of what appeared to be ptomaine poisoning. He was taken ill on Thursday but is improving gradually. Dr. John Parsons, of Portland, preached at the morning service Sunday and in the evening the Rev. E. W. Withnell, of Pleasant Home, delivered the sermon.

What makes jelly jell?

Fruits contain, in varying amounts, both sugar and a certain jelling substance, but no fruit contains enough of either to jellify all of its juice.

That is why you used to have to "boil your fruit down," or concentrate it, until it had lost a large amount of its juice—and unfortunately much of its fine fresh flavor and beautiful color as well.

But now you can add jelling substance as readily as you add sugar to your fruit. For Certo is the jelling element of fruit—refined and bottled for your convenient use. With Certo only one or two minutes' boiling is enough to give a perfect, tender jelly. You cannot have a failure, and your jelly retains the delicate, luscious flavor of the fresh fruit and its bright, natural color.

A book of simple, tested recipes comes with each bottle of Certo. Your grocer carries Certo, or you can send 10c (for postage) and get a trial half-size bottle which will make from 6 to 10 glasses of jam or jelly, depending upon the recipe used. Address Douglas-Pectin Corporation, 600 Granite Building, Rochester, N. Y.

Cecil and Stanley Wilkins, brothers of Mrs. George Duncan, came up from Newport Saturday evening, the older boy returning the following afternoon, but Stanley will remain in Gresham for several weeks.

Mrs. A. E. Malo went to Seattle Wednesday with a niece, Miss Edmer Ellis, to attend the commencement exercises of Providence hospital from which a friend of Miss Ellis was graduated. Mrs. Malo returned to Gresham Saturday and reports a most enjoyable trip with a visit to all the points of interest in and around Seattle.

Ed. Holgate of Bend, Oregon, is in Gresham for a few days on matters of business, also is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Mary Holgate at the Wellington restaurant.

W. T. Hartley returned Sunday evening from Walla Walla, Washington, where he has been for more than a year with his daughter, Mrs. Stella Stockdale. He makes his home with a daughter in Gresham, Mrs. S. S. Thompson.

John Brown was taken to Good Samaritan hospital Friday where he is undergoing treatment preparatory for an operation which is expected to be performed the coming Thursday. A second operation will probably follow in about a week. Mr. Brown's condition is regarded as fair at the present time. His son Frank Brown and family arrived Saturday evening from Seattle and he expects to take charge of the business affairs of his father for several weeks, after which they will be taken care of by other members of the family.

The Epworth League will hold its annual banquet Wednesday evening, May 26, and will be open to all members and friends of the church. The number, however, will be limited and only ticket holders will get to eat. Joyce Kidder, as chairman of the program committee, is planning something unique. Amy Cooper has charge of those arranging for the dinner. A further announcement will be made about the program. Newly elected officers for the league are: Lyle Mason, president; Hally Jones, 1st vice president; Guy Rusher, 2d vice president; Joyce Kidder, 3d vice president; James McAllister, 4th vice president; George McAllister, secretary, and Amy Cooper, treasurer.

Chicken thieves raided the premises of William Peterson, living near the Powell Valley Lutheran church, on Saturday night, making off with every fowl in the chicken house, 40 in number, all fine Brown Leghorns and Rhode Island Reds. They knocked the pickets off the fence at the rear of the coop and also the pickets off the chicken corral to gain access to the chickens. The matter was reported at once to the sheriff and two detectives are now working on the case. Mr. Peterson regards his loss at not less than $50, or possibly more.

The So and Sew circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. C. G. Schneider Wednesday afternoon, May 19. All members are expected to be present.

Mrs. Nellie Wilmet of Seattle, a sister of Mrs. Carrie Hansen, is a guest at the Hansen home this week.

Seven members of the grade school orchestra, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. George Page, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Quicksall and Dr. and Mrs. Thornton, were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Blair in Portland. Mrs. Blair is the efficient director and teacher of violin of the grade school orchestra. Her husband gave a pleasing recital Sunday afternoon, both of voice and violin numbers and refreshments were served to the guests.

Jack Cannon was taken to the Portland sanitarium Sunday where he is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. The child had been ill several days but his trouble was attributed to a severe cold, until complications began to develop. As yet the trouble seems to be confined to but one lung and while his condition is not regarded as serious, it is very grave. Mrs. Cannon remains in Portland with her son.

About 175 were present Friday evening at the junior-senior banquet of Gresham Union high school, an annual affair preceding commencement. In addition to the members of the junior and senior classes, the faculty, the school board, Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Adix and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher and others were present to enjoy the festivities of the evening and the splendid menu. The banquet was planned piratical style, the place cards being in the shape of a scimitar and the favors treasure bags. The Adix silver loving cup, which will be given annually to the junior attaining the highest honors, was awarded this year to Miss Helen Althaus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown entertained the Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Judd and family at dinner Monday evening in honor of the two wedding anniversaries of the two couples which fall on nearly the same date. Mr. and Mrs. Judd's 27th anniversary occurred yesterday and on the coming Wednesday, May 19, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will have been married 19 years.

On account of the exercises at the grade school Thursday evening, prayer-meeting at the Free Methodist church will be cancelled for that evening.
