GRESHAM LOCALS

Charles Hansen has resigned his position as mail messenger between the postoffice and the depot and bids have been asked by the postal department for a messenger to fill the vacancy in this branch of the service. He has been carrying the mail for six months past but considers the work too heavy for him and has decided to give it up.

Mrs. C. W. Huett was taken down this morning with the mumps. She returned from a trip yesterday to eastern Oregon and complained of not feeling well, her throat and face being in a swollen condition and after consulting a physician, it was pronounced a well-developed case of mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby who have been at the Withrow restaurant for several months past, are leaving for their fruit ranch which is located near Eugene and will remain there to take care of the fruit. They are undecided as to just when they will return to Gresham.

The American Legion baseball team will play the General Petroleum company team of Portland on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 on Stapleton field in Gresham.

County Agricultural Agent S. B. Hall will broadcast a talk over KGW this evening from 7:45 to 8 o'clock on the subject, "A county agent's day's work." This talk will be presented under the auspices of the United States Department of Agriculture club. Acquaintances of J. L. Bowman, owner of the large Jersey farm in Powell Valley known as the Halcyon farm, will be pained to learn that the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, Miss Alice Bowman, aged 25, died Thursday at St. Vincent's hospital from the effects of an operation.

Mrs. W. F. Honey entertained the Troutdale Flower club Wednesday at her home on Honey hill. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the affair was in the nature of a house party rather than of the outdoors as had been planned, although all report a most enjoyable time.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Huett, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison and William Thom left Tuesday for Bend, Oregon, where they attended the regular session of the eastern district Oregon conference. The party arrived in Gresham Thursday after a most enjoyable motor trip of 548 1/2 miles, going by way of The Dalles and returning through Eugene and the McKenzie
