

GRESHAM LOCALS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Peterson on May 11, a daughter.
The Misses Mamie and Helen Hoss have moved from the Thomas residence on Main street to the Shultz apartments on West First.
Miss Blanche McKinney, who has been attending Gresham Union high school for the past year, has returned to her home at Blalock, Washington. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wash. McKinney, came from eastern Oregon last week and returned home with their daughter after commencement.

Frank Kinyon is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from his duties as rural mail carrier and, with his wife, will spend a week at Centralia where Mrs. Kinyon's mother resides. J. R. Horr is supplying the rural route during the absence of the regular carrier.

Word has been received from Mrs. Alfred Blom, who with her mother, Mrs. Ahlquist, left Gresham several weeks ago for Kansas to visit a brother who was considered seriously ill, that this brother recovered but that a brother, Ed Ahlquist, residing in Montana, a few days ago became sick from the effects of blood poisoning and passed away in a Lewiston, Montana, hospital May 22.

J. E. Bennett, one of the defeated candidates in the primaries, was in Gresham Monday expressing his appreciation to the voters of this place for the generous support accorded him for state senator. He received more votes in the three Gresham precincts than all of his opponents put together.

At the last meeting of the Southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid, which was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Winters last week, the resignation of Mrs. Olive Williams as president of the circle was accepted and Mrs. Winters, the former president, was elected in her place.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Orin Stanley Monday, May 24, a son weighing 7 pounds, who has been named Harold Emmett. Mrs. Stanley, before her marriage four years ago was Miss Erma Eder.
Miss Christine Johns and Miss Ida Nordine, teachers at the Gresham grade school for the past year, left Saturday for Rockaway beach where they expect to spend a week or ten days at the Johns cottage.

A paper drive is to be put on by the Gresham Ladies Aid next week and it is requested that all those having old papers or magazines will tie them separately in bundles convenient for handling. These are to be placed in suitable places for the collectors to pick up. As far as possible the bundles of a neighborhood are to be collected in one place. Wednesday, June 2, has been designated as the date on which these bundles of papers are to be gathered. It is asked that all bundles be ready so that no delay may be occasioned when the collectors call. Dr. Huett and others have announced their willingness to assist in the collecting.

Ross Brown arrived from Los Angeles Tuesday, making the trip through by auto. He expects to remain and look after his father's business.

Mrs. Harry Donley and granddaughter, Barbara Jean Ashworth, of Spokane, arrived Tuesday for a visit of a week or more with Mrs. Donley's mother, Mrs. Hannah Shaw and her sister, Mrs. L. T. St. Clair.

Marjorie Stone was somewhat injured about the legs one day last week while at play at the grade school when one of the swings fell. Aside from being badly bruised, the child was uninjured, although she is still lame from the accident.

Charley Wheeler has returned to his work at the Bailey barber shop after a vacation of several weeks spent in Idaho and eastern Washington. He made the trip by automobile.

Mrs. J. E. Gates presented 15 of her piano and guitar pupils in a recital at her home on South Roberts avenue on Tuesday evening, May 25, assisted by her sister, Mrs. E. E. Moorehead, of Portland, who gave a number of vocal selections. Those present were Marjorie Aylsworth, George Frederick and Gertrude Lee, Fred Powell Jr., Alice Suhr, Crystal and Harlen Hayden, Alice Vedder, May and Ruth Rivers, of Barton, Evelyn and Wesley Dixon, of Portland, Miss Nettie Nelson, and Margaret and Irma Gates. Many friends and relatives of the students were present and all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Bible school will begin promptly at 10 a. m. and will be followed by morning worship and sermon beginning at 11 a. m. There will be special music at this service and the subject for the morning sermon will be "The Providential Nation."

Epworth League begins at 7 o'clock. Young people are cordially invited and others welcomed. The evening service begins promptly at 8 o'clock with a gospel song service led by H. W. Strong. The pastor will preach taking as a subject "The Power of Superstition." This subject will be found full of real interest and sufficiently alive today to possess interest for all.

Tuesday morning beginning at 10:30 the Portland Methodist Preachers' meeting will hold their weekly meeting in the Gresham Methodist Episcopal church. The reason for this change is that the preachers may be present and honor the celebration of the 6th wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. John H. Wood on that day. There will be a pot luck luncheon, special other refreshments and friends of this couple are invited to unite in this service. They will bring lunch but coffee and ice cream will be provided. Rev. John H. Wood became pastor of the Gresham Methodist Episcopal church first when it was known as the Powell Valley circuit in 1882 and has been known and loved by the people of this community ever since.

Free Methodist Services.

The Bible school of the Free Methodist church will begin at 10 a. m. Sunday, followed by preaching services at 11 by the pastor, the Rev. W. T. Klotzbach, from the topic, "The Beggar at Our Gate." Young people's meeting will be held at 7, followed by preaching. All visitors are welcome to these services.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. B. W. Emery Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30.

Cedar Door and Window Screens. Good screens 2-8 x 6-8 1/2, $1.95. We have several styles and sizes—all galvanized screen, mortised and tenoned joints. Window screens and special sized doors made to order. Gresham Woodworking Shop, phone 50x1.

Memorial Day...

As the years roll swiftly on, the feeble, tottering line of Civil War veterans grows smaller. Soon the last of the Old Guard will have gone to their reward.

But while they answer the last call—and pass on—the glorious Union which they fought to preserve remains in ever growing power and magnificence.

The observation of Memorial Day is the fitting tribute of a mighty nation to those who faced the shock of battle that this nation might live.
