GRESHAM LOCALS

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. George Honey Wednesday afternoon, June 9. Mrs. L. L. Kidder will have charge of the lesson. The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting and a good attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning, accompanied by their granddaughter, Miss Louise Howard and two of her classmates from Monmouth state normal, Miss Nina Cheney and Miss Charlotte White, returned to Gresham Friday evening after a two-weeks' trip to southern Oregon. They went as far south as Central Point, spending a week at Grants Pass with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howard, also visiting other relatives and friends there. Mr. Manning spent two days at Salem where he was a delegate to the grand lodge of the Odd Fellows, also they visited at Cottage Grove, Oakland, Yoncalla, Drain and Albany. They drove to Monmouth for their granddaughter and her friends, then came home. The three girls returned to their studies at the normal Monday evening.

Frank Gibbs is re-painting the exterior of his residence this week.

The Areme club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clyde Ruegg Monday afternoon, June 7. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. E. L. Shelton, Mrs. William Stanley and Mrs. Arnold Ruegg. An invitation is extended to all O. E. S. ladies to be present.

John Homan, a rancher and berry grower in the Lusted district, gladdened the hearts of the Outlook force recently by the presentation of a sample of his luscious New Oregon strawberries. Fourteen of these splendid berries weighed nearly 1 1/4 pounds and for a delicious flavor, could not be surpassed in the opinion of those who had the pleasure of tasting them.

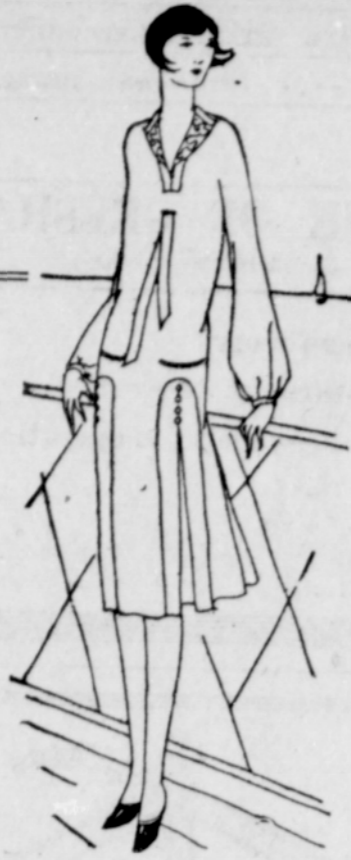

G. R. Schlauch, professor of history in Linfield college, spoke at the Baptist church Wednesday evening to an interested audience on the history and present outlook of Linfield college at McMinnville. His lecture was illustrated and gave in detail the development of the college up to the present time and of the excellent work done by Dr. Riley in securing the endowment funds of the institution. A drive is now under way in Washington, Oregon and Idaho to raise a half million dollars which will be expended on buildings and equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen, returned Wednesday from an extended tour of California and are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts for a few days. They expect to reside in Portland where Mr. Hansen will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beegle and daughter, Miss Addie Pullen, and Fred Karlan, made a trip of 12 miles east of The Dalles on Sunday, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pullen. This was the occasion of the trying-out of the new landau sedan which Mr. Beegle recently purchased. The party went up the Columbia River highway, but returned by way of The Dalles-California highway, McKenzie and Pacific highways.
