After spending a week looking over the plant of the company and at the main office in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Stafford will return by train, reaching here the latter part of June.

THE AMERICAN FLAG

"I live a changing life of moods and passions, of heart breaks and tired muscles.
"Sometimes I am strong with pride; sometimes I droop; sometimes I am loud and garish.
"I am song and fear; struggle and panic and ennobling life. I am the constitution and the courts; statutes and statute-makers; soldiers and dreadnaughts; draymen and street-sweepers; cook, counselor and clerk.
"I am the clutch of an idea, the seasoned purpose of resolution. I am what you make me—nothing more."
—Franklin K. Lane.
