GRESHAM LOCALS

Thomas M. Crawford and Mrs. Olive Williams were married in Portland on June 12 at the parsonage of Hope Presbyterian church by the pastor, the Rev. Charles Hurd. They are residing at the residence of the bride southeast of Gresham. Mrs. Crawford was tendered a surprise Wednesday afternoon at the gathering of the southeast circle of the Methodist Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. J. V. Cogswell. As a token of appreciation she was presented with a handsome preserve dish.

Mrs. Minnie Keiter and daughter Ruth, the former an aunt of Mrs. C. E. Rusher, arrived last week from Parsons, Kansas, and will spend the summer and possibly longer with the Rusher family.

Ed. Johnson is erecting an English bungalow, one and a half story, south of Gresham just outside of the city limits.

S. J. Bliss of Rockwood is destined to make himself popular around the Outlook office if he repeats his visit of Wednesday afternoon when he brought in a fine branch loaded with Royal Anns. In size and flavor they were certainly unsurpassed. Mr. Bliss states he has gathered close to 1000 pounds off two trees.

A new Hudson car, containing a man and a woman and driven by the latter, went wild Monday morning on the Base Line road near the residence of E. W. Aylsworth and skidded across their lawn, striking the concrete steps and knocking off a piece of the concrete. The driver evidently applied the brakes too suddenly with the result the car left the highway and sped perhaps a distance of 90 feet sideways across the lawn. In its flight boards and graveled driveway were torn up. It is a mystery to those around the place how the machine ever kept itself right side up.

Robert Metzger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metzger, was operated on Tuesday evening at Good Samaritan hospital for appendicitis. He suffered an acute attack of the trouble about a week before and a prompt diagnosis revealed the need of an immediate operation. The patient is reported to be doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Palmquist and children drove to Canby Tuesday and spent the day with relatives, the occasion being a double birthday celebration. On this day the mother of Mrs. Palmquist, Mrs. Johanna Magnusson, was 77 years old and her daughter, Mrs. Anna Peterson, was 43. The time was passed with social diversions and luncheon was served.

Mrs. D. M. Cathey has been bedfast for more than a week with bronchitis and ailments attending a cold.

Lester Miller left for San Francisco Saturday for a ten-day vacation. He is employed in Portland as a book-keeper for the Hackett Digger company.

Mrs. Albert Adkins and two children returned to their home at Heppner Sunday after spending two weeks at the home of her mother, Mrs. Minnie Brown. Mrs. Brown and son, Ross took them by auto as far as The Dalles where they were met by Mr. Adkins. George Brown, a brother of the late John Brown, was a visitor recently at the Brown home. He is a miner and was employed back in the hills about 30 miles from Vancouver, B. C., and did not get word of the death of his brother until after the funeral.

Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Gossard of Portland and the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Gossard, of Wayne, Nebraska, were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Taylor.

L. L. Kidder has purchased a new Chevrolet sedan of the landeau type through W. W. Metzger. Dr. Hughes has also been indulging in a new machine, a Ford coupe, which he purchased through Raker & Son.

James Naylor was taken to Portland sanatorium Sunday evening where he will remain for a week or longer taking electric and other forms of treatment for arthritis, a chronic rheumatic ailment. A week ago he returned from St. Martins hot springs at Carson, Washington, where he was under treatment for three weeks. He was accompanied to the springs by his daughter Thelma, who was seriously ill during the past year but is now well recovered and expects to be able to enter high school in the fall.

Mrs. Mabel Robson of Pla Pot, Saskatchewan, is visiting with her father, W. H. Gibson and family.

Miss Florence Honey, assisted by members of her Sunday school class, was hostess Tuesday evening at a party in honor of the birthday of Mrs. H. L. St. Clair, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The gathering was held in the grove at the W. F. Honey home, the grove being illuminated by electric lights and a huge bonfire. The attractive grounds claimed the attention of the guests while daylight lasted, after which the time was spent around the bonfire and in the grove. The young ladies served ice cream and wafers. The guests were teachers and officers of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, of which Mrs. St. Clair is superintendent, and members of their families.

Miss Eva Tacheron was one of the graduates this week from Willamette University, and one of the ten honor students in the class numbering 84. She was elected by the faculty as a member of the honorary scholastic society of Alpha Kappa Nu. Relatives who went from Gresham and vicinity to attend commencement at Salem were, Mr. and Mrs. George Tacheron, Mr. and Mrs. O. Boring and
