GRESHAM LOCALS

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Peterson and son, Paul, and Mr. and Mrs. Griswold, all of Portland.

Dr. W. J. Ott and Dr. J. G. Sture attended the big five-day session of the Pacific Coast Dental conference in Portland last week. About 1500 delegates were present from five of the Pacific coast states and British Columbia.

Mrs. Alfred Blom and her mother, Mrs. Catherine Ahlquist returned home Sunday morning after spending about two months in the east. They visited relatives in Kansas, Nebraska, Montana and Washington. The two ladies spent most of their time in Montana where a brother of Mrs. Blom died and a little one born to the mother after the death of its father. They left Spokane Saturday and surprised Mr. Blom and Marie the following morning.

Frank Jones was down from Wemme on Saturday chatting with friends. He spent some time with his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Mack, who is still at the Thomas sanitarium. Mrs. Mack's condition is reported as very favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley entertained at Sunday dinner the brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Zimmerman and family, of Portland, her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. R. Clinfelter, and two daughters, Vivian and Sibyl, of Oswego, and Mr. Shipley's nephew, Milton Shipley with his wife and children, also from Oswego. The reunion was in honor of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stanley, who plan to leave for their home in California the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Schenk, of Cherryville, is resting at the Thomas sanitarium and undergoing medical treatment.

Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks, of Eugene, came down Tuesday for a week or so. He attended the dental convention in Portland and Mrs. Brooks spent the time with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Peak. Dr. Brooks returned to his home Sunday and his wife is staying over for a week.

R. E. Cannon returned Sunday from Portland sanitarium and is well on the way to complete recovery from his recent operation. Claude Welch has also left St. Vincents hospital where he underwent an operation for the removal of the appendix. He expects to be able to return to work in about 10 days.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. Horstmann departed early Monday morning by auto for Pinehurst, Washington, where they will spend a two-weeks' vacation with the parents of Mrs. Horstmann. They expect to return to Gresham July 9th. There will be no Sunday school or preaching service at Zion Evangelical church Sunday, July 4, on account of the pastor's absence on vacation. The regular services will be held again at the usual hour on Sunday, July 11.

Mrs. M. S. Owens left Saturday for Seattle where she will visit for a week or more with relatives.

A. B. Witter, the aged father of Arthur and Charles Witter on south Roberts avenue, is in Good Samaritan hospital for treatment. He has been cared for by his daughter, Mrs. R. Clinton.

An audience of several hundred evidently appreciated the excellent open air concert which was rendered Saturday evening at Arboleda by the Gresham band. The program was given under the auspices of the Arboleda Community club. It is understood the band made a decided hit with the Arboleda people and they were given an invitation to return.

George Webster, assisted by H. W. Cooley, is building a summer home at Zigzag for a Portland man.

A. E. Malo sustained a badly bruised eye while at work last week in a basement in a Portland home. He came in contact with the handle of a woodlifter in such a manner that the sight of his eye was threatened.

The quarterly meeting of the Evangelical Women's Union will be held early in August instead of on the first Thursday in July, as it is thought a better attendance may be expected in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Knight and son, Michel, are here from Escondido, California, for a fortnight's visit at the home of Mrs. Knight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michel.

Mrs. K. C. Roberts visited over the week-end with her parents and sister at Hood River.

Marjorie Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stone, was taken to a specialist in Portland last week for an X-ray examination of her ankle which was injured when she was hurt by a swing at the grade school just before the close of the school year. The ankle has troubled her since that time and the parents feared a splintered bone. The X-ray picture, however, did not reveal anything of a serious nature.

Claude Stockton is improving his residence by a screened-in porch on the east.

A woman worker at the Ickler berry ranch was taken to Portland Friday suffering from internal hemorrhages. She had fainted in the field and was found by passing berry pickers.
