EVERYBODY DECORATE.

Firecrackers, cannon crackers and bombs are taboo within the city limits. Perhaps 'tis well, although the small boys of today miss the fun that used to be so much enjoyed by their dads a few decades ago.

It wasn't counted much of a celebration unless Tom or Willie got his fingers burned from holding exploding firecrackers, or somebody's team ran away, scared by the noise, or fire got into the box and shot off part of the fireworks prematurely. Of course, noise and annoyance went hand in hand; sometimes fire and fireworks. Now all this is cut out and, paradoxical as it may seem, most of the noise comes from the cut-outs.

But one of the best and most effective ways to celebrate July Fourth is still left. It is patriotic decoration. This all can and should participate in.

Any home or business place failing to display an American flag on July Fourth (or Monday, the legal holiday this year,) should be listed as a thoughtless and unpatriotic citizen if not disloyal and unworthy.

With a celebration being held here it is doubly obligatory and desirable that all places and homes display the national colors.

Let everybody decorate.

What's become of the Fourth of July orator? That used to be the apex of the celebration when Senator, or Judge, or Colonel So-and-So, silver-tongued orator, poured forth an hour's flow of patriotic fervor and eloquence which produced a profound impression and made the day one to be long remembered. The Fourth of July orator seems to have passed, crowded out of the program by the sports.

HOGAN

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Shattuck and little son Jimmie, of Ridgefield, Washington, took dinner Sunday evening with the latter's aunt, Mrs. A. J. Stout, of Hogan.

Anton Johnson, of Estacada, is picking raspberries at the W. H. Gibson ranch and making his home for the present with M. Doryland.

Visitors at the Mark Doryland home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Miller of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meggert and Mrs. S. Mueller of Montavilla, and Mrs. Ida Crawford and Carl Long of Gresham.

W. H. Black has been absent from his work at the brickyard for several days on account of an injury to his back.

Mack Stout accompanied his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stout to Mt. Hood Saturday, remaining over Sunday to try out the splendid fishing outfit presented to him by his brother. He returned Monday proudly displaying eight "beauties."

ROCKWOOD

Max Ruehle, a well known resident of Rockwood for the past 30 years, was much surprised Saturday evening by a party of 20 which arrived to do honor to his 60th birthday. The party lasted until the early hours of the morning. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winters, Fred Winters, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Houck, Miss Bonita Houck, Mr. and Mrs Joe Shenz, Grandma Rethlefsen, Eddie Rethlefsen, Miss Lena Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Merrill, Miss Erma Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Van Dorren, Mr. and Mrs. W. Winters, Jr., and Mrs. Ed. Simpson, all of Portland. Five hundred was played during the evening and Miss Lena Turner and Fred Winters, Jr. were winners of first honors, Miss Bonita Houck and George Houck, second honors and Mrs. Dora Winters and Leslie Merrill, booby awards. The departing guests wished Mr. Ruehle another 60 years.

FAIRVIEW

A patriotic service will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church. The pastor, Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, will preach, the theme of sermon being "The Meaning and Blessing of Liberty." Sunday school meets as usual, 10 o'clock.

Mrs. M. L. Morrison and son Billie returned Friday from a business trip to central Oregon, returning home by way of Crater Lake and Klamath Falls. Mrs. Sam Price of Portland accompanied them as far as Bend. Mollie Boehnert accompanied them on the return trip to Eugene taking the stage to her home at Bend.

PLEASANT HOME

Bible school in the Baptist church will convent at 10 o'clock. There will be an election of B. Y. P. U. officers in the evening at 7:30 followed by an address from M. B. Arounhaian, who represents the Near East Relief.

EASTERN TRIP ENJOYED BY REV. J. TRUEDSON

The Rev. J. Truedson, former pastor of the Saron Lutheran church of Powell Valley, was a recent visitor in Gresham on his return from Philadelphia, where he went to attend the Augustana Synod convention of North America early in June. The Rev. Mr. Truedson, who now holds the position of a traveling missionary and is in charge of the old people's home in Seattle maintained by his church, was one of the four delegates to the synod convention from the Columbia River conference. The others were the Rev. A. Bloomquist of Tacoma, the Rev. Luther Cornay of Bellingham and the Rev. K. G. Andeen of Spokane.

The trip to eastern historical places was described as exceedingly interesting. In Washington the capitol building, the White House, the government printing office and other places of national interest were visited and a short itme was spent observing the senate, which was in session. A side trip to Mt. Vernon was taken. A point of special interest to the delegates was at Wilmington, Deleware, where the first party of Swedish immigrants landed in 1638. Here they built a church which is still standing, and which is said to be the oldest protestant church in America. The church now belongs to the Episcopalians.

On the return trip the Rev. Mr. Truedson visited with friends in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Hokan Truedson, son of the Seattle minister, is now in California where he is working for the southern California Telephone company.

POWELLHURST

Lavona Kelly and Caroline Hessemer will put on a bread demonstration and also a table setting demonstration at the Gladstone chautauqua on the afternoon of Saturday, July 10, under the leadership of Mrs. A. A. Hessemer.
