

Portland Man Weds Gresham Girl.
A quiet wedding ceremony was performed at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Dr. C. W. Huett officiating, when Miss Millie Pauline Massie, daughter of Mrs. John Fox, became the bride of George Lester, of Portland. Only the immediate relatives of the bride were present, in addition to Dr. and Mrs. Huett. The bride was prettily attired in pink georgette crepe with a picture hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The couple will reside in Portland where Mr. Lester is employed in a motion picture theater.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jackson have put in a stand on Main street on the property of the Dolan residence where Mr. Jackson will dispense confectionery wares during the next three months. He will handle ice cream, candies, pop and other articles of this line.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland gave a reception Monday evening to the members of the Gresham fire department and the Gresham band. During the evening ice cream, cake and punch were served and a general good time was enjoyed by all. The band boys contributed liberally with a choice selection of musical numbers.

The new bus making the Mt. Hood Loop highway trip passed through Gresham for the first time yesterday on its way around the loop. It has been making the run to Government Camp for about a month. The stage leaves Gresham via the bluff road and returns to Portland over the Columbia river highway.

The Kaser Filling station is receiving a fresh coat of paint. The red and yellow, the Shell gasoline colors, will be changed to the green and white of the General gasoline.

Mrs. McCauley Dale and baby are here from Hermiston, Oregon, to visit a week with her mother, Mrs. Mary Holgate.

The spaces designated for non-parking strips have been marked off and painted a bright yellow, so there cannot possibly be a mistake when parking a car. It is understood that the ordinance referring to the parking of vehicles is to be strictly enforced.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts and Mrs. Mary Welch, of Gresham, and Mrs. Eva Thompson, of Rockwood, attended the funeral Tuesday in Portland of Mrs. Hattie Hughes, an old acquaintance of all. The Rev. Mr. Pitts preached the funeral sermon.

A long line of Indians paraded through the main street of Gresham Wednesday much to the delight of the small boy and his sister. They were enroute to Oak Grove for Rattlesnake Pete's roundup, the three-day celebration for July 3-5. There were several auto loads of the Indians, but for the most part they traveled in light pony-drawn vehicles, while some rode on horse back. Many of the women and children were bareheaded, seemingly paying no attention to the scorching rays of the afternoon sun.

Robert Metzger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Metzger, was brought home Tuesday from Good Samaritan hospital where he underwent an operation for the removal of a ruptured appendix. He is now convalescing in a satisfactory manner.

W. A. Dalton, of Astoria, and Harold Blackwell, of Vernonia, took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan Wednesday.

A number of Gresham Methodists are planning to go on next Monday to historic Champoeg on the Willamette river to take part in a gathering in commemoration of one held there on July 5, 1843, at which the pioneer Methodist missionary, Gustavus Hines, presided, when a code of laws was adopted for the government of the infant colony. Mr. Hines had delivered a patriotic address on July 4 at Champoeg, probably the first of its kind in Oregon.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzger were Mr. and Mrs. E. Ackley and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morrison of Shasta City, California. The Ackleys, with Mrs. J. H. Metzger, Mrs. Walter Metzger and Ben Metzger, spent a few days at the Metzger cottage at Seaside.

Word has been received by relatives here of the birth of a daughter on June 19 to Dr. and Mrs. Merritt L. Kleaver of Dunsmuir, California. The baby has been named Janet Ann. Mrs. Kleaver will be remembered by Gresham friends as Miss Lenora Teevin.

Miss Helen Rogers left Saturday for San Francisco, where she is spending a short time with Miss Ethel Glover, who recently visited Miss Rogers here.

WHILE WE are erecting MONUMENTS to our GREAT national heroes, LET'S not forget the FELLOWS who invented ICE CREAM, because they GAVE to this hot old WORLD of ours a COOLING nectar that SIMPLY couldn't be REPLACED, so while YOU ARE plying the PALM leaf today and MOPPING perspiration, JUST remember that OUR fountain is here AT YOUR service with JUST about a thousand ANTIDOTES for that SWELTERING feeling and IF THE suggestion SOUNDS good to you JUST phone friend HUSBAND to stop here ON HIS way home this EVENING and bring along SOME of that Weatherley DELICIOUS ice cream in CHOCOLATE, strawberry, MAPLENUIT, French salad or VANILLA flavor. It'll make A HIT with the entire FAMILY. Try it.

We carry a stock of groceries for the convenience of the berry pickers who cannot get to town for supplies until evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson are entertaining Minnesota relatives, Dr. and Mrs. M. Sundt and two children, Donald and Ruth, of Minneapolis, and Andrew Johnson, of Litchfield. Mrs. Sundt is a sister of Mr. Johnson and Andrew Johnson is his father. The latter has visited in Gresham before and will remain for some time after the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Sundt. The party made the trip west through the Canadian Rockies to Vancouver, B. C., then by boat to Seattle and from there to Portland by train. Dr. Sundt reports wonderful scenery through the Rocky mountains. He also states the growth of Minneapolis during the past few years has been phenomenal.

The announcement has been received of the marriage in Seattle on June 27, of Lang M. Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Goodwin of Milton, Oregon, and Miss Eva Althea Coolidge of Seattle. The groom, who is employed on one of the large Seattle dailies, spent several years in Gresham schools while his father was principal of the high school.

Mrs. F. E. Palmquist is planning to go early next week to Chenoweth, Washington, to join her husband and son Harry, who are engaged there in getting out poles for telephone and other purposes.

The degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on the Rev. A. S. Hisey by Nebraska Wesleyan university, his alma mater, through Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette University, in connection with its recent commencement exercises. Dr. Hisey's many friends in this vicinity will be pleased to learn of this deserved honor.

July Fourth

On July 4th a mighty nation again celebrates its glorious Natal Day.
What does America mean to you?
The foundation and security of our country rests on our loyalty and yet is there not a close relationship between our patriotism and our prosperity?

It has been said that when an anarchist prospers financially he throws away his torch and bomb and joins the forces of law and order.
