

A Great Golfer

It took Bobby Jones 12 years to break into national title holding ranks, but now at 24 he is recognized as one of the greatest golfers in the world. He was battling for his third title last week in the U. S. Open at Columbus, O.—already holding the U. S. Amateur and the British open. Photo—as he arrived from England with his new title.

FRANK GREENMAN WEDS MISS MABRY CURRIN

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Currin, at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, when their daughter, Miss Mabry Currin, was married to Frank Greenman, of Fairview, the Rev. E. Horstmann performing the ceremony. The home was beautifully decorated in flowers and ferns and the wedding march was played by Miss Pearl Ruegg.

The bride was attired in peach colored georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of sweet peas of the same shade. The bridesmaid, Miss Virginia Currin wore rose georgette. The groom was attended by Melvin Brugger and Jo Ann Supple, the small niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. A wedding breakfast was served, and later the couple left for an auto tour of southern Oregon after which they will return to reside in Fairview where Mr. Greenman is associated with his father in the dairy business. The bride is a graduate of the Heppner high school and also Oregon Agricultural College.

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Outlook office will be closed all day tomorrow (Wednesday) for the annual Outlook picnic. This year a trip will be made to Longview, Washington, and a visit to the big mills.

A society meeting of the Free Methodist church will be held Saturday evening, July 17, at which time a delegate will be chosen to represent the circuit at the annual conference which will convene July 21 at the campground between Portland and Beaverton. Officers for the coming year will also be elected at the meeting Saturday evening.

Reuben Kaser and wife have moved from the Pullen place where they have resided for some time, to the Cowan house in Eastman addition. Mr. Kaser has gone to eastern Oregon for the season's work in harvesting.

Mrs. Marjorie Lyman South, of Salem, has been here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lyman, and other relatives. Mrs. South has recently graduated from the University of southern California. She completed her junior year at Willamette University.

Someone obligingly saved F. A. Miller the trouble of digging between 300 and 400 hills of his early potatoes at Melville farm some time during the past week. The work was attended to at night as the sun's rays were too hot during the day. The plunderers left vines and potatoes in a mass on top of the ground after taking such potatoes as they wished.

Miss Nettie Tong from near Los Angeles is visiting friends and relatives in Oregon during her summer vacation. She has relatives at Damascus where the Tong family formerly lived, also a sister in Portland. She visited the Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Klotzbach and Miss Minnie Robertson while in Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Palmquist and children spent three days at the Christian Missionary Alliance campmeeting at Belfontaine last week, returning to Gresham Saturday. They visited with relatives at Canby Tuesday night.

Harry Lusted and wife, of Lents, accompanied by the former's mother, Mrs. L. T. Lusted, and sister, Miss Inez, left Saturday afternoon for a week's stay at Manzanita and other beaches.

Miss Marjorie Jones, of Endicott, Washington, was the guest of Miss Mary Miller over the week-end. Miss Jones was a former student at Gresham Union high school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martin are enjoying sea breezes at Bandon-by-the-sea. They left Sunday and expect to spend about ten days at the beach.

Miss Ella Bittner of National City, California, was in Gresham on business matters Monday morning. She was accompanied by her parents, who reside on a ranch at Colton, near Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ackley, of Vancouver, Washington, have rented and moved into the Telford house on Hood avenue. Mr. Ackley is the uncle of Mrs. W. T. Shelley.

R. E. Cannon and family are camped at Tidewater near Waldport, Oregon. They expect to remain there during the month of July.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery accompanied their son-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buckle, to the mountains Monday where they will spend the greater part of the week.

Mrs. H. S. McMurry and three children, Mrs. C. S. McMurry and four children and Alta McMurry are spending two weeks at Pacific City. Miss Gladys McMurry is spending the summer at the home of a cousin, Mrs. Floyd Kerchem at Gladstone.

A surprise was given H. Whitehead at his home at Clackamas in honor of his 70th birthday. Those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Whitehead and son, Henry, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mattoon, of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mattoon and Mrs. Belle Ferguson and grandson, George Knieriem, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carothers, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood, Mrs. Alta Gentry and son, Russell, and Dr. A. Thompson, the last an old friend of the family.

W. A. Hessel and wife returned from Seattle Sunday evening after a four-day auto trip. They returned via Snoqualmie pass through Yakima valley, stopping at Lake Ketchikan. They reported the heat as terrific in the Yakima country, especially in what is known as Horseheaven, and unless conditions change in the mountains, that country will be out of water by August 15. They attended the Overland dealers' convention in Seattle and brought back with them a new Overland whipper which will be on display in their salesroom July 17. Messrs. Barr and Welty, who also attended the convention, returned by the way of Pacific highway.

Mrs. K. A. Miller and daughter, Virginia, and son, Alden, have returned from Seaview, Washington, where they spent a week. Mr. Miller made two trips to the beach while they were there.

Miss Ina Smith is home for a three-week vacation from her duties at Good Samaritan hospital where she is in training for a nurses' course.
