BOOSTER PARADE ADVERTISES FAIR

There was a parade yesterday. It made some people in Gresham and a lot of people in Portland rub their eyes and take notice that fair time is very near.

With banners flying and sirens sounding, 30 or more autos headed for Portland to parade the principal business streets, led by motorcycle police.

The forenoon parade ended at the Benson hotel where near a hundred Gresham men and women, conspicuously decorated with fair announcements, lunched with the Progressive Business men's club.

The orator who had a place on the program, and told forcefully of the plans, purposes and needs of the county fair, was J. O. Wilson, the well known clerk of Multnomah camp, Woodmen of the World. He is an active member of the fair board.

Every reference to the fair was received with enthusiasm by the many hundred business and professional men present.

In addition to the fine dinner, the singing and speeches were enjoyed by the Gresham bunch. Especially entertaining and enlightening was the talk by a Fijian chief, son of a cannibal chief, who spoke through an interpreter, and told of the great change that had come over his people through the teaching of Christian missionaries. A club, spear, plate and fork that had done service in former cannibal feasts were exhibited. The Bible, in native language, was held up as the successor of the old death dealing club.

Following the interesting program the autos paraded on the east side and wended their way home.

Another Parade Planned.

Another and greater fair booster parade is planned for Monday, August 2, the day before the fair opens. At that time there will be a band, the queen and her court, Indians, and other suggestions of the attractions to be seen at the fair.

On that occasion lunch will be had with the chamber of commerce.

The queen will be introduced and make her proclamation and various funny stunts will feature the program.

The committee named to arrange for the parade of August 2 is as follows: M. M. Squire, B. L. Walrad, O. A. Eastman and T. R. Howitt.

Bible Standard Services.

Sunday school at the Bible Standard church will begin at 10 o'clock, followed by the preaching service at 11. The pastor will deliver an evangelistic message Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The regular mid week prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is welcome to all these services.

Banquet Friday Night

Take home a can of Nickerson's Jellied chicken and be among those present.

STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN.

Mr. Private Citizen, Home Owner and Renter! Stop long enough to look over your front yard and the street in front of your place. Look at it as a visitor or stranger might. How does it look to you? Take a hint. Fair time, with its thousands of visitors, is at your door. Wouldn't an evening's work slick up your premises and make everybody feel happier over the attractive appearance of your street and city?

Let's show a welcome to our visitors and extend them every courtesy possible, whether they come from the city or from the country. Let's do it.

CANNERY EMPLOYEES PICNIC AT DODGE PARK

A perfect day—a congenial crowd—an abundance of good eats—no bottom to the ice cream can—bathing, swimming, recreation, rest—Dodge Park, yes, that was the cannery picnic. On Thursday the third annual picnic of the cannery employees and office force of the Berry Growers Packing company was held at beautiful Dodge park and a most enjoyable gathering it proved to be. There were 135 present and that number sat down to one table as one huge family, all hungry as the proverbial bears. The ladies had thoughtfully provided everything that would go to make up a typical picnic dinner. There was no set program to the day, just a free and easy time of do-as-you please and a general relaxing of mind and muscles. Bathing was indulged in by those who enjoyed that sport, two games of ball were played, while many others spent the time roving through the park or along the water's edge. D. E. Towle was probably the only one connected with the cannery who was not present. He said he had to stay home and watch the stuff. The committee on arrangements for the picnic consisted of Mrs. C. E. Rusher, Mrs. A. F. Hoover, and Mrs. Gammel and her daughter, Helena, the two latter from The Dalles. Miss Gammel is a school teacher who each year spends a part of her vacation in the cannery. It is planned to make this picnic a yearly event from now on.

Gresham Woman Among Best Cooks.

Mrs. T. H. Gill, of Gresham, was recently adjudged a prize winner in a national recipe contest of an eastern firm, prizes to the amount of $1250 being distributed by the company. The fact of being included among the prize winners in this contest implied being one of the best cooks in America, as 19,400 recipes were submitted from all parts of the continent. The recipes were judged by the department of home economic at Syracuse university in New York. All of the better recipes underwent actual cooking tests.

Entertainment Extraordinary Will Feature 1926 County Fair

Tuesday, Opening Day, Will Witness Dedication of New Exhibits Building; Greatest Feature Program in Evening.

GET READY!

Get ready for the opening day of the county fair, Tuesday, Aug. 3.

Make plans to attend the dedicatory exercises the afternoon of the first day and the great entertainment that evening.

If you can only attend one afternoon and evening make it the opening day by all means.

The fair will start Tuesday, not Wednesday, and the program for Tuesday evening will be the greatest ever presented on the Multnomah county fair grounds, or any other western fair, we are warranted in saying.

Read and resolve accordingly.

If you have not secured your five-year season ticket, good every day of the fair, for 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929 and 1930, at only $2.50, get one for each member of the family now and be prepared to attend Tuesday and any or all other days.

Plans for the fair are maturing very fast. The week and a few days that remain before the opening will disclose the unprecedented variety and elaborateness of the attractions that are intended to instruct, entertain and amuse the multitudes who will attend. The fair this year will be double that of any previous fair in size, cost and number of attractions. In fact, it will be one of the most elaborate undertakings of its kind ever staged in the northwest. Its cost will be enormous. The attendance will have to be double or three times that of former years in order to make the fair a success financially.

The racing program will begin on Wednesday and continue five days. This is as usual under the North Pacific Fair association. There will be two harness events each afternoon, a trot and a pace. There will be two or three running races each day. There are already over 60 horses, from all over the coast states and Canada entered for the harness events, and 25 for the running races. These horses are all fresh and ready for this fair which is the opening one of the North Pacific circuit. That insures extra good races.

In addition to the races each afternoon there will be thrilling events by Jory's Wild West show, greatly enlarged this year, with broncos, cattle, cowboys and cowgirls; Van Cleve's horse show, with 25 horses, stunts by the Portland Hunt club, show teams, etc., with two bands, quartets, and other entertaining stunts.

Many Evening Attractions.

The program for each evening's entertainment before the grandstand will be lengthy and highly interesting.

Beginning Tuesday evening there will be five big entertainments. The program planned for Tuesday evening, the opening day promises to eclipse all others. Among the features will be—

Jory's wild west show. Greater than ever.

Costello's dog show. Performing dogs.

Elephant Show. Several trained elephants.

Japanese acrobats. Very thrilling. High wire performance. "Slide for your life." Man slides on wire, balancing on his head.

Chief Minthorn and a hundred of his braves, many gaily dressed in their war paint and feathers. They are said to be the most gorgeously dressed tribe in the United States. Many of their costumes cost $1000 and more. They will ride, dance and parade.

Greatest of all features for this opening night will be a wild west pageant entitled, "The Wild and Woolly West of 75 Years Ago." Scene on the old Oregon trail. There will be camp wagons, stage coach, old ox teams, drivers, women and children, Indians, stampeding the immigrants, stealing their cattle and belongings, rescue by cowboys, etc.

This will be one of the most thrilling events of the fair. It will reveal some of the hardships and dangers of the pioneers as they passed through the wild country to settle in Oregon. No one should miss this great spectacle.

This will be followed by one of the finest displays of fireworks ever presented here.

LOCAL BASEBALL TEAM WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

The Gresham baseball team acquitted itself with credit in the recent series of games played at the Gladstone chautauqua, winning four out of the five games played. To prove that a poor beginning does not necessarily mean a bad ending, Gresham lost the first game to Hillsboro with the score 13 to 8. On July 12 the local boys met West Linn and won out 15 to 10. Again three days later they played Milwaukie and defeated them with a score of 18 to 3. The last game of the chautauqua schedule for Gresham was played against Oregon City, and again they won 12 to 4, but the supremacy had not been decided until they played West Linn on Wednesday, defeating them 9 to 7. This accorded Gresham the championship for the season in the chautauqua listings.

The Gresham nine has been putting up some good stiff playing all summer and showed their stuff by getting into the chautauqua line at all.

Free Methodist Services.

Owing to the annual conference and campmeeting which is now in session, the regular Sunday school and preaching services will be discontinued at the Free Methodist church over the next two Sundays.

The new campground of the denomination is in a beautiful grove located between Portland and Beaverton on the Canyon road, four miles west of the city hall. Bishop Walter A. Selley of Jamestown, New York, and Evangelist Ralph Milton of Spokane, Washington, will be the principal speakers. Missionaries and other workers from abroad will be present to assist in the daily services. All camping facilities are on the grounds and the attendance promises to be large. The meetings which began Wednesday evening will continue over the evening of August 1.

ROOMS WANTED.

Already rooms, furnished rooms, rooms and board, are being sought by concessionaires, horsemen and helpers at the fair.

Next week, and the week following the demand will be greater.

Who has accommodations to offer?

W. J. Todd, the barber, offers rooms to a few transients but says he is at present filled up. He naturally receives lots of enquiries and offers to refer such to those who have accommodations if they will let him know. Phone 201.

Many enquiries come to the Outlook office also. The Outlook will be glad to cooperate in this matter if it can be of service.

A response to these suggestions will help to locate many in Gresham during the fair time who would otherwise have to go to Portland.

GRESHAM PEOPLE MAKE INTERESTING JOURNEY

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning returned Sunday evening from a ten-day trip, the principal point of interest of which was their attendance at the 18th annual state encampment of the United Spanish war veterans and the auxiliary which convened at Baker, Oregon. They made a number of interesting side trips from Baker, traveling in all 766 miles and going through 13 different counties. They went via The Dalles over The Dalles-California highway and returned by way of the John Day and Ochoco highway.

During the four days Mr. and Mrs. Manning were at the convention they were most wonderfully entertained. Something seemed to fill every moment of the time. Fine open-air services were held in Pollman park Sunday evening and on Tuesday evening they were taken on a sight-seeing tour of the city. A banquet was tendered the 300 delegates and friends in the park on Wednesday evening, followed by a brilliant ball in the Elks temple.

Mrs. Manning is recognized as the official "mother" of the veterans and is addressed as such by them and the auxiliary. Mrs. Manning says that, although the weather was intensely hot while there, she kept right up with the young folks and attempted everything they did and was considered a good sport by all of them.

A most interesting side event was a visit to the Mother Lode copper mine 35 miles distant. Here they were served a miners' banquet—coffee out of tin cups, sandwiches and doughnuts.

Pioneers Will Hold Picnic Sunday.

The recently organized Pioneers and Early Settlers society of the Sandy section will hold its second meeting next Sunday, July 25, in an all-day picnic at the Robert Jonsrud grove on the Bluff road. A delegation from Willamette Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Portland will be present. All who are interested are invited to attend, and to bring basket lunch with necessary dishes excepting cups, which will be furnished. Coffee will be provided free.

PARTY PLANNED FOR HONEY GROVE JULY 28

Much interest is aroused in the party to be held at the W. F. Honey grove on the evening of July 28, next Wednesday, in the interest of the Portland Settlement center. At this time a brief program of music and readings will be given, and the account of Americanization and relief work among the foreign families of the industrial center of Portland will be given by Mrs. A. B. Manley, president of the board and Miss Olla Grace Davis, superintendent of the institution. Following the program refreshments will be served, for which there will be a small charge. The musical numbers will consist of a steel guitar trio by Mrs. J. E. Gates, Miss Nettie Nelson and Miss Margaret Gates; vocal solo by Mrs. Bayard Miller; euphonium solo by Dr. H. H. Ott; and vocal solo by Leslie Walrad.

Gresham people have been generous in their support to the settlement center and will be pleased to hear about the work and the plans for the future. The affair has been arranged for the evening so that the men of the community may be present as well as the women, and all are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Robertson and son, George, left Thursday morning for Helena, Montana, after visiting with the parents and brother of Mrs. Robertson, the families of J. T. and Richard Horr.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO HOLD GROUP MEETING

A group meeting of Sunday schools has been announced for next Sunday at the grove opposite Powellhurst school on Buckley avenue south of the Section Line road, in which several rural Sunday schools will take part, representing the districts east of Portland city limits and west of Gresham. Many of the schools will meet in the morning at 10 o'clock, hold their regular sessions in the grove and join in the basket lunch during the noon hour. Laurel school will provide coffee to supplement the lunches brought by those attending.

The morning session will be opened by a song service led by L. A. Janin, superintendent of Powellhurst Sunday school, and words of welcome will be spoken by W. O. Shaver, superintendent of the Laurel school. The object of the gathering will be given in an address by the Rev. F. P. Allen, missionary of the American Sunday School union. Mrs. Young and Mr. Shaver will sing a duet before the lesson study session and Miss Hessimer of Powellhurst will sing at the close of the session. The gist of the lesson will be given by Mr. Calloway.

The afternoon session will begin with a short song service at 1:30, which will be followed by a roll call of schools, in which each will be expected to add some feature to the program. Gresham Methodist Sunday school will have a demonstration of primary work under the direction of Mrs. Annabelle Kirkwood, and Mrs. Lena C. St. Clair, superintendent of the school, will give a talk on "Worship in the Sunday School." Dr. C. L. Haynes, superintendent of the Rockwood school, will give an address and the Rockwood orchestra will furnish music. Gilbert, Russellville, Glenhaven, Brewster, Laurel and Powellhurst schools will be represented on the program, though their numbers have not been announced.

Two other short addresses and special music will be interspersed in the afternoon program, and there will possibly be a question box.

All interested in Sunday school work are invited to attend.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY MADE ALONG SANDY

A party of surveyors, headed by E. S. Rickard, geological topographer, is located in Gresham for a month making topographical surveys of the waterways of the Sandy river for use of the United States government in determining future possible locations for the construction of dam sites. Mr. Rickard, assisted by a recorder and two rod men, is working on the Sandy river taking stock of the amount of water power. They must show every 5-foot fall in the river and every 20-foot difference in elevation on each side of the river above the water's surface.

This interesting work is carried on by the topographical branch of the federal government and is for the use of the conservation branch of the survey whenever the need arises for locations of power sites. Mr. Rickard, who evidently is an expert in this line judging from the fine plan and profile maps which were shown of his work, has just completed a survey of the Willamette. The work is carried on along any prominent waterway where appropriations can be obtained to work on. The survey at present will extend as far as Marmot.

Services Announced for Methodist Church.

At the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday morning the Bible school will meet promptly at 10 o'clock in departmental assemblies, with classes for all ages. This service will be followed at 11 o'clock by preaching by Dr. John Parsons of Portland, who will fill the pulpit in the absence of the pastor.

Epworth League will meet at 7 o'clock, and at 8 a meeting will be held under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., when Mrs. Ella B. Sanford, field worker of the national W. C. T. U. will speak.

Baptist Church Services.

Bible school at the Baptist church will begin at 9:45 Sunday morning and will be followed by preaching by the pastor, the Rev. E. G. Judd. The evening service will begin at 7:30 and will be the young people's and the preaching services combined.

The Rev. Mr. Judd, who is on the faculty of the B. Y. P. U. summer assembly at McMinnville, will come home for the Sunday services. He is teaching Old Testament history in the young people's assembly, which will continue until July 30.

Insurance funds for farm loans. No commission or brokerage. Very easy terms. B. W. Thorne.—Adv.
