PLEASANT HOME

Mrs. B. C. Altman gave her Sunday school class of girls a treat Tuesday when she formed a party and climbed Larch mountain. Besides the 12 girls there were Mrs. Altman, Mrs. H. C. Nelson and the Rev. William Fairweather and his sister, Miss Euphemia Fairweather who recently returned with him from the east. They began the ascent of the slope Tuesday evening, reaching the summit about 1 o'clock in the morning. After sleeping and resting about two hours they started downward and reached their camp about 10 o'clock that forenoon. Mr. Fairweather acquired a stiff neck and shoulder on the trip from carrying too much in the shape of luggage, but he felt somewhat repaid for this discomfort when he got some of the women folks well frightened over the appearance of a big white bear which later proved nothing more than a landmark.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ratson, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Herrick and Dr. Bugbee, from Kalispell, Montana, were the guests for several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weeks.

Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church followed by the preaching service at 11:15. The subject of the discourse will be "Christian Satisfaction." There will be special music at this service. The junior church is held at the same time as the adult service and is under the supervision of Mrs. Alta Gentry. This departure of the church is progressing rapidly and last Sunday equalled in attendance the meeting of the older ones. The Epworth League will meet at 8 o'clock in the evening under the leadership of Lester Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quay are being congratulated over the arrival of a 7½-pound baby girl which arrived Friday, July 16. The lassie has been named Doris. Mrs. Quay is in Good Samaritan hospital and mother and baby are doing nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Quay celebrated the 15th anniversary of their marriage the day before the birth of the baby, which was their first child.

B. C. Altman and family are enjoying the comforts of a new Rickenbacker auto which he recently purchased.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED BY UNIQUE SHOWER

Miss Bernice Beers was the recipient Friday evening of a delightful surprise which was tendered her at the home of Mrs. Glen Davidson, with Miss Alice Peterson as the instigator of the affair. This was a shower in honor of her approaching marriage to Adolph Zenger. Eleven guests were present. The living room was beautifully decorated in pink, with the dining room arranged in yellow.

The dining table was unique with a center piece of a miniature wedding cleverly set. Dolls, standing under an arch, represented the bride and groom and rose petals scattered about, marked the path of the bride. In a candy heart hunt Miss Beers won first honors and Mrs. Henry Zenger the booby. In a game, "a kitchen pie," Miss Mildred McGregor was first with Mrs. Nora Withrow claiming the booby honors.

The bride-elect was presented with a handsome 23-piece china set in black and gold. Those present were Mesdames Nora Withrow, Valetta Cooper, Lucy Davidson and Lucile Zenger and the Misses Bernice Beers, Alice and Esther Peterson, Florence Beers, Celia Wood, of Portland, Mildred McGregor and Helen Maxwell.

CAMP MEETING PLANNED FOR PALMQUIST GROVE

An interdenominational campmeeting, beginning August 13, will be held in the Palmquist grove four blocks east of the library. The Rev. S. F. Pitts, assisted by Dr. Betts, evangelist, and Dr. Newberry, dean of the Simpson Bible Institute of Seattle, and other ministers of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, will have charge. Indications are this campmeeting will be a great gathering and everything points to a most wonderful time. Already word has been received from many families in Oregon and Washington who will bring their camping outfits to the ground.

The Sunday school of the undenominational temple will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday with preaching by the pastor in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, preceded by the song service and special music. There will also be preaching at 7:30 Sunday evening. Prayer service is held each Tuesday evening at 7:30 and the children's hour in charge of the young people will be held Friday evening at 7, followed by the young people's Bible study. All are cordially invited.
