Reports to Secretary of State Sam A. Koser, from the 32 points in Oregon officially designated by him for the registration of motor vehicles brought into Oregon from other states and countries, show that during the month of June, 1926, the influx of tourists and homeseekers over highways was exceptionally large, no less than 13, 818 motor vehicles of this classification being listed. This figure not only puts June of this year in the lead over corresponding months since 1923, when the law requiring registration of non-resident vehicles went into effect, but it also gives 1926 a wide lead over previous years.

The registration of non-resident motor cars for June gives 8,171 from California. Washington is next with 2,422.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The low water of the Columbia river is the cause of much disappointment to the followers of the fishing industry this year. Those who have been in the business at Corbett for the past 25 years claim this is the poorest year in that length of time. The salmon do not get into the Columbia when the water is so low, hence nothing doing in the canneries either. There are about 30 boats at Corbett which make regular drifts every night, but only a few salmon and occasionally a sturgeon is the result.

Mrs. Maude Reed, Mrs. Blackhall, Miss Bella Blackhall, Miss Bella Reed, Donald Reed and Baby Wallace Reed, of Corbett, motored to Winlock, Washington, on Sunday where a family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cattermole, an aunt of Mrs. Maude Reed, who entertained with a big dinner for all. The Reeds report a delightful time and returned home the same evening. Miss Bella Reed spent the last couple of weeks at Astoria with relatives.

George Perry celebrated his birthday on Saturday at Menucha and gave a dinner to a few relatives from Portland, including his mother, Mrs. G. Perry.

Roy J. Anderson, of Portland, enjoyed Sunday dinner at home at Columbia View farm.

Mrs. Grace Arneson, of Corbett, has returned after spending a week with relatives and friends at The Dalles.

Miss Anna Hansen is home for a week's vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hansen at Ehrmanor.

Lloyd Bramhall is driving a new Dodge coupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rickert have signed a contract for a new building to be erected on their property at Corbett adjoining the garage which has just been remodeled. The Rickerts will use the new building for groceries and confectioneries.

POWELL VALLEY

The Deborah Ladies Aid of the Swedish Mission church will meet Thursday afternoon for its regular monthly meeting in the church with Mrs. Axel Johnson as hostess for the occasion. The meeting is being held a week earlier than usual on account of the county fair being held next week. All ladies of the community are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Lundquist spent several days last week at Seaside and later at Tillamook beaches. They were accompanied home by the latter's sister, Mrs. James Kodad, and children, Dale and Edith, of Tillamook, who will visit several days in Powell Valley and Portland. Mrs. Lundquist entertained a group of the ladies of the community on Saturday afternoon in honor of her sister. A pleasant time was spent and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sjøstedt, of Portland, the latter a sister of Mrs. L. Berg, accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. M. McCreary, of Dayton, Ohio, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Berg. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCreary, of Bull Run, the latter also a sister of Mrs. Berg, were present at the same time.

The canning demonstration team of the club work composed of Trelia Howell and Frances Ekstrom, gave a public exhibition of the canning of fruits and vegetables at the Powell Valley schoolhouse Friday evening. There was a good crowd and an excellent program rendered, followed by refreshments served by the club girls. The pressure cooker is used in the canning of vegetables and for fruit the hot water method is employed. This excellent demonstration is to be repeated at the coming county fair as a feature of club work. Mrs. L. Berg is the leader of this class in home canning.

There will be no Lutheran services at the church on the coming Sunday as the members expect to visit the Lutheran chautauqua which is to be held at Gladstone park this week, closing on Sunday evening. A special encampment is being held this week for the boys and girls and all who are interested are welcome to camp there. Lectures and other educational features will occupy the forenoons and evenings and in the afternoons there will be various forms of entertainment. On Saturday evening a bonfire will be lighted and among other musical numbers the male chorus from Powell Valley will sing.

The three-acre tract of J. J. Lindquist has been sold to G. Bergstrom, of Los Angeles, who has purchased it for an investment. The sale of the property was made through K. J. Hagberg.

A birthday dinner was given Wednesday evening as a surprise to Albert Palmblad in honor of his birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olson, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spencer and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Sture and children, Miss Hilda Staffenson and Mr. and Mrs. Palmblad and children.

HILLSVIEW

Guests at the E. P. Schedeen home last week from Minneapolis were Clifford Rykken, brother of Mrs. Schedeen, Reynold Westerberg, Carl Nelson and Wallace Olson. They drove through and have returned to Butte, Montana, where they expect to work during the summer.

Urban Peier and family from Eureka stopped for a short visit on their way home from British Columbia at the homes of Al. Peier, L. Yunker and E. P. Schedeen.

TROUTDALE

A special meeting of the Troutdale Floral club will be held on Thursday afternoon at the public library in Troutdale beginning at 2:30. Mrs. A. D. Kendall, the president of the club, desires the presence of all members, as arrangements are to be made at this meeting for the floral display at the coming county fair.

Health Reminders

Ten Don'ts for Bathers. Don't go in where there is no life-guard. Don't get beyond your depth; the best swimmers get cramps. Don't go bathing less than two hours after eating. Don't go in alone. Don't yell "Help!" unless you need it. Don't drink liquor and then go bathing. Don't swim with waterwings or inner tubes for they are treacherous. Don't forget you are endowed with common sense. Use it. These are rules that have been adopted by bathing beaches for the protection of the public. Last year 101 deaths from accidental drowning occurred in this state. More people died from drowning than from railroad and street car accidents combined. The number is exceeded among accidental deaths only by those from automobiles and from falls. Tragic occurrences seem to repeat themselves on about the same line. Perhaps the largest number of drownings are of young children that do not know how to swim, and venture beyond their depth. Then, we have the deaths of the strong swimmers who go into dangerous waters and are swept away or become exhausted or are forced under by the waves and from the undertow. It is often the strong, confident swimmer, who plunges into the water and does not come up. These deaths are lightly attributed to shock, some form of heart disease, or muscular cramps due to disturbed blood circulation. A number of deaths, also, occur from accidents in the water, such as becoming entangled in water grasses, weeds, or injuries by diving into shallow water. Knowing how to swim may at some time prove of very practical use to you, not only in protecting yourself, but in saving others. Swimming is also one of the very best forms of exercise and it is essential that this sport may be made as safe as possible.
