

GRESHAM LOCALS

W. J. Cooper has purchased the A. M. Wilkenson house in Regner addition and is planning to occupy the place the coming Saturday. It is understood that Mr. Wilkenson will build later on lots he owns directly across the street. Mr. Cooper and family have lived in the house belonging to William Thom and Charles Taber since coming to Gresham several years ago, but the place has recently been leased to a Wisconsin family, the brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Ella Olliphant, who will soon come to Gresham to reside. The real estate transfer of the Wilkenson property was handled by B. W. Thorne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Eder, Harold Eder and Mrs. Goldie Anderson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Stanley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanley and family all enjoyed a picnic on the Columbia river north of Blue Lake last Sunday.

The McCarter house on Kenney street was recently sold to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coe.

Florence and Irene Risher are the guests for several days of their aunt, Mrs. Robert Lansdowne at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eder of McMinnville are rejoicing over the birth of a little daughter born August 9. Mrs. Eder will be remembered as Miss Vada Quay, who for several years was telephone operator on the local board. Ernest Zenger, who drives a delivery truck for A. W. Metzger & Co., is taking his two weeks' vacation. Harry Stanley is driving the truck during his absence.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Wood during the latter part of last week and over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Turner, Dr. and Mrs. A. Miller, and Mrs. Lydia McCollough, all of Portland, George Throckmorton of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Phillips of Milwaukie, Miss Blanche Billmeyer of Chicago, Miss Delphia Wiesendanger of Berkeley and Miss Florence Randall of Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. Ella Grebskov of Junction City, Oregon. The three latter were special friends of Miss Mabel Wood, who made a brief visit with her on the eve of her departure for Stockton, California, to resume her work at the head of home economics work in the county. Miss Wood left on Tuesday and planned to visit Crater Lake en route.

Mrs. Alta Gentry entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. Cross and two daughters of Lents on Wednesday evening.

The Outlook force was regaled with a basket of luscious Early Crawford peaches a few days ago, the gift of Mrs. Frank Heiney, who says that the hundred peach trees on the Heiney farm are loaded with fruit this year. She expects to can a double amount this year against a probable shortage next year.

The Baptist Missionary society of the Bethel Baptist church will meet with Mrs. John Denison at the Multnomah County Farm next Tuesday afternoon, August 17, at 2 o'clock. All ladies are cordially invited.

Mrs. Frank Rau who, with her infant son, Wm. Franklin, has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Michel, has returned to her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Russell of Salem, Missouri, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Gill living southeast of Gresham. Mrs. Russell is a sister of Mr. Gill.

Dr. Thomas Darling spent last week in a trip to the beaches from Seaside to Tillamook, driving his new Chevrolet coupe.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Michel were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene White of Portland, who have just returned from a trip to Sacramento, California.

Mrs. George Lane has returned from the Portland sanitarium where she was under treatment for a week.

Theodore C. Stafford, from Evanston, Illinois, is spending the summer vacation with his father, J. L. Stafford and Mrs. Stafford. The young man is a student at Northwestern University and will return to his studies the latter part of September.

Mrs. Will Williams and her son, Jay, are here from Amity, Oregon, for a week's visit with the mother of Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Fietta Hibbert.

R. B. Jackson and wife left Tuesday to follow up the line of autumn fairs throughout the northwest with their newly-acquired show of the adventures of Floyd Collins who was trapped in a Kentucky cave. J. R. Fredericks of Portland has purchased his stock of confectionery, and his wife and son will run the stand until the expiration of the lease. Mr. Fredericks will follow the fairs with a show.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Raker and son, Bobby, left Tuesday for a week's outing through eastern Oregon. They expect to visit at Bend and other places.

The Rev. J. Truedson has disposed of his lots and acreage located in Gresham on Powell street in the Shoemaker addition to Bert Olson, an acre and a half altogether. Mr. Olson plans to put the ground into raspberries. Mrs. Truedson, who has been living in Portland for some weeks past, is planning on moving to Seattle soon to the old people's home where her husband is chaplain.

Joe Exley has bought the Robinson house on South Roberts avenue and is planning on moving his family there soon.

Miss Violet Coe is at the Portland sanitarium where she will soon undergo an operation for the removal of a toxic goiter.

W. G. Kohnen, of Shelby, Montana, a brother of Mrs. W. F. Honey, is a guest at the Honey home.

Mrs. Mina McKinney entertained Mrs. Lou Bohler of Walla Walla, Washington, two days during last week. The ladies were former neighbors in Montana.

L. L. Kidder and family are spending a week in the mountains near Brightwood.

Mrs. Russel Akin and three children, Russell, Elizabeth and Franklin, are spending a month at the beach at Neskowin, Oregon. Next week they expect to be joined by Dr. and Mrs. Clarence True Wilson and daughter, Mary Elizabeth, who will be their guests for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts left Tuesday morning for a two-weeks' trip to Crater lake, Bend and other eastern Oregon points of interest. At Bend they were the guests of Sheriff S. E. Roberts, a nephew of D. M. Roberts.

Mrs. Jack Miller of West Timber, Oregon, spent fair week with her mother, Mrs. Anna Hamlin. Her husband came for the week-end and they returned to their home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erwin, of Bandon, the former the superintendent of the Standard Oil plant at that place and formerly holding a position with the same company here, were in Gresham on Saturday of fair week. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Fred Todd and two children, Laura and Dick, who will remain for a two weeks' visit.

Lester Spencer has sold his residence property opposite the high school athletic field to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner of Pendleton, who have taken possession. Mr. Turner owns a wheat ranch between Pendleton and Walla Walla. B. W. Thorne made the sale. Mr. Spencer has not fully made his plans for the future. He expects to go soon to eastern Washington where he will remain for several weeks looking after business interests.

Guests at the B. L. Walrad home on three days of last week were the Misses Pearl and Carrie LeHuquet, of Sandpoint, Idaho, old acquaintances. Previous to that they entertained Mrs. Margaret Dobbs, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, also an old friend. She left about the first of August after spending a week with the Walrads. This was her first trip to the coast and she enjoyed it greatly. Mr. and Mrs. Walrad took her around the Mt. Hood Highway Loop, also for a trip over the Columbia river highway and to Oregon City. She left Gresham for a visit to Tacoma before returning east.

Jack Strong Reported Lost.

Jack Strong, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Strong of Gresham, is reported lost in the mountains near Brightwood. The child, who is about 8 years old, has been missing since yesterday morning. A large crew of rangers and woodsmen is searching for him.

LOCAL MEN GET ROAD GRAVELING CONTRACT

Walrad & Wright have landed an important graveling contract in southern Oregon and northern California, and Burten Walrad left last evening for the south to oversee the beginning of operations on the road within the next few days. The work is that of graveling a section of the Roosevelt highway between Brookings, Oregon, and Crescent City, California, a distance of 29 miles. Seven miles of this will be on the Oregon side and the remaining 22 miles is over the line in California.

Mr. Walrad left Friday evening for Brookings, accompanied by his wife. They expect to return in a few days. A truck left this morning for the works and the second one will follow this evening. Mr. Walrad plans to meet the first truck at Grants Pass Saturday morning where the work will be outlined. Reuben Peterson has been placed in charge of the trucks. They expect to move 25,000 yards of rock and the work will probably require from six weeks to two months for completion, possibly longer. A strip 18 feet in width is to be graveled the entire length of 29 miles.

Services Announced for Bible Standard Church.

Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock next Sunday at the Gresham community church, Bible Standard.

and will be followed by preaching by the pastor, the Rev. Ralph Butterfield. He will deliver an evangelistic sermon in the evening at 8 o'clock. The regular mid-week prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The public is welcome to all these services.
