POWELL VALLEY

"How about the preaching?" will be the topic of the sermon Sunday morning at the Mission church at 11 o'clock. Sunday school will begin at the usual hour of 9:50. In the evening at 8 o'clock the Rev. O. J. Wilner will preach his farewell sermon as he has been called to the pastorate of a church at Hoquiam, Washington, and expects to leave the first part of September for the new charge. He has been at Powell Valley for nearly three years past. The topic for the sermon on Sunday evening will be, "Warm or cold?"

A successor has not yet been chosen for the pulpit of the Mission church, but it is thought in a short time it will be known who will be selected to fill the place of the Rev. Mr. Wilner.

Lloyd Arvidson and Walter Thilstrom expect to leave tomorrow morning for Kennewick, Wash., where they will work during the apple harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Olson and Mrs. Emma Johnson are spending a week at Seaside.
