A very interesting personal letter was received by the Outlook this week from Miss Thelma Naylor who, with her parents, is at Netarts beach for the summer. Mr. Naylor, who was in poor health when leaving here, is now reported as much improved and Thelma appears to be in the best of condition, considering her severe attack of diphtheria and the complications following the anti-toxin treatment. She describes their camping place as a lovely one where the ocean and mountain meet. Thelma is much interested in fishing and is surely getting to be an expert as recently she caught four 6-pound bass. The digging of clams, and crab fishing also occupy much of their spare time, as well as the picking of wild huckleberries which abound in this region. Miss Inez Kniefel has also been at Netarts and shares Thelma's pleasures with her.

"Thanks for the Buggy Ride"

Ask Dad! He knows. In happy memory he still can hear his "best girl" saying, "Thanks for the buggy ride."

Ah, those were the days! If a fellow owned a $90 buggy and a $150 horse,—hot dog!—he was rich! What other luxuries could he wish, until time to buy the ring? Saving? a cinch! And money saved stayed saved. But now!—Write your own list. Countless spending demands. Scores of fine and costly things needed or desired. Hundred of reasons for saving. But only the same old two ways to save:

By earning more or spending less. It requires a lot of character. But the money saved and the ability to save mean more than ever.

Ask Dad what a Bank Account has or might have meant to him.
