Legislation against liquor rests on precisely the same foundation as legislation against slavery, against the abuse of seamen, against imprisonment for debt, against child labor, against the traffic and use of habit-forming drugs. They are all the result of the experience of the American people that such evils vitally affect the public welfare and never will or can be abated by public opinion or individual action.—Albert Bushnell Hart.

Insurance for Farmers. The Farmers' Mutual Fire Relief Assn. of Portland is in its twenty-second year, with a total membership of 15,000, the largest Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Assn. on the Pacific Coast. All fire losses promptly paid. No lower rate on farm insurance can be found west of the Rocky mountains. If you want anything along co-operative lines for Farmers or need insurance, call on President H. W. Snashall at the Fair grounds, Gresham, Oregon. Phone 2101.—Adv.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Honors have been coming to the riding horse of Miss Jean Adix, Tom Poole, at the Southwest Washington fair held at Chehalis last week. The pacer figured in a pile-up of five horses on the race track but got up and won the next race. The driver was reported to be seriously injured but this report is now said to be erroneous. One of T. R. Howitt's racers also went down but was not injured.

Mrs. Louise Stapleton, Miss Georgie Stapleton, Mrs. E. E. Atwood, a sister of the former, also Mrs. Joseph Haley and children drove to Seaside Friday for a brief stay in the Stapleton cottage. Mrs. Haley returned the first of the week but the Stapletons will remain until next week.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison on Friday evening were the Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles. The dinner was planned in honor of Mrs. J. Montcalm Brown and daughter, Mabel, who were expected to arrive from Los Angeles in time, but who were delayed. The Browns have spent several days visiting with the Harrisons and Wiles and other Gresham friends, and left this morning for their home. They are making the trip by automobile. Miss Brown is a teacher in the Los Angeles schools.

Dr. H. V. Adix and family have returned from a short vacation spent at Seaside. During his absence, Dr. T. J. McCain, an interne from Good Samaritan hospital, took care of his practice.

Gracia Carter, the small niece of Mrs. George Duncan, who spent last week at Newport, accompanied her aunt home Monday for a week's visit.

J. M. Stanley left last night by train for Suisun, California, called by the illness of his wife, who went south about three weeks ago and was staying with her son, Jack. Mrs. Stanley had her left wrist badly gashed and an artery severed in a peculiar accident. She was alighting from a light truck and took hold of the edge of the windshield to steady herself, when her foot slipped and her weight broke the glass and cut her wrist. She was in a hospital for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Smith and the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary Campbell, left Saturday for Yakima, Washington, on a trip combining business and pleasure. It is likely that they will remain there for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bangs are located in their new home in Oakland, California, which is headquarters for Mr. Bangs' work, according to a note to the Outlook from Mrs. Bangs. They have recently enjoyed a trip combining business and pleasure to Los Angeles and Catalina island.

Adolph Zamsky, who purchased the Hardy photographic studio about three weeks ago, has returned to Gresham from Chisholm, Minnesota, with his family and for the present they are occupying quarters in the rooms adjacent to the studio. Mr. Zamsky has rented the house which was recently vacated by Mrs. E. R. Wright and expects to move his family there soon. Mr. Zamsky is an experienced photographer and hopes to enjoy the continued patronage which has been accorded the studio in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Leming left Sunday for Klamath Falls where they will make their home during the next year. Mrs. Leming has secured a position as instructor in the high school at Klamath Falls. She has been working for the past six months as saleslady in the grocery department of the Walrad Mercantile company. It is expected that the change of climate will be beneficial to Mr. Leming's health.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Twitchell two days of last week were Dr. and Mrs. J. Clyde MacDonald, their son, Carl, and a daughter, Mrs. K. C. MacLeod, all of Edmonton, Alberta. The party was on its way to Los Angeles where Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald have two sons residing. Mrs. MacLeod was a college chum of Mrs. Twitchell and the two ladies had not met for eight years. Her husband is the superintendent of the Neglected Children's home for the province of Alberta.
