GRESHAM LOCALS

Monday being Labor Day and a legal holiday, business generally will be closed. The postoffice will be open for the accommodation of patrons between 9 and 10 in the forenoon, though this is not required by postoffice rules, and there will be no rural delivery of mails. The Outlook office will be closed all day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Russell left yesterday for their home in Portland after residing in Gresham for the past two months where Mr. Russell was identified with the interests of the Rose Maid creamery. E. R. Kidder and family, who recently moved here from Illinois, will occupy the house on Third street which is being vacated by Mr. Russell, until they decide on the location for a permanent home.

Mrs. E. H. Kelly and three children expect to return home tomorrow from Welches where they have been spending the past few weeks in their cottage.

Miss Eliza Bechill will leave tomorrow morning for Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, Oregon, where she will teach her first year of school. She graduated from the class of 1925 at Gresham Union high and last year attended the Oregon state normal at Monmouth.

H. W. Aylsworth, father of E. W. Aylsworth, of Gresham, also the latter's brother, Benjamin, both from near Cambridge, Nebraska, arrived unexpectedly last Sunday for a visit of a week or so. They drove through and made a stop at Salt Lake City, also other places. They are now on their way to Los Angeles for a leisurely tour of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mason and son have taken up living quarters at apartments in the A. J. W. Brown residence on West Powell street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley returned Monday evening from a trip to Tacoma in company with friends living between here and Portland. They were gone a week.

Mrs. Hyde, who lives near Welch's spur, was attended by a Gresham surgeon one day last week when she cut her hand badly while canning fruit. In screwing on the jar cover the top of the jar was broken off in such a manner that the jagged glass cut into the fleshy part of the hand, inflicting an injury that required eight stitches in the dressing.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davidson and children returned Wednesday from a short vacation trip to eastern Oregon and at various beach resorts. Much of the time was spent in fishing.

Mrs. Vida Stubbs and her son, Edward, went to Eugene Tuesday to make arrangements for the beginning of Mr. Stubbs' college course at the University of Oregon at the opening of the fall semester.

Wendall Cleveland, of Heppner, and Charles Cleveland, of Stanfield, Oregon, with their families, have just returned to their homes from a visit with their parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland. They also spent some time at Seaside before leaving for eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Scofield, of Jamestown, New York, arrived Tuesday for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire. They are on their way to Los Angeles where they expect to reside. Mr. Scofield is employed as a salesman for a metallic door company which is establishing a branch office at Los Angeles.

A farewell surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gray on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Tetrick as they are leaving for Hood River to reside where Mr. Gray has employment. About 40 were present and the time was spent socially and in playing games, followed by refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Gray were presented with a beautiful pair of wool blankets during the evening. They have been prominent workers in the Baptist church since their residence in Gresham.

Mrs. Irma Ansley, librarian of the Gresham branch of the Portland public library, has returned from her summer's vacation. She enjoyed a

Saving on a Salary

If you are working on a salary, do not delude yourself with the belief that a raise is necessary before you can save. If you cannot save money now, it is probable that you would not do so later even if your salary were increased. Your wants would be apt to grow just as fast as, maybe faster than, your income. In effect you can raise your salary by curbing desires and curtailing expenditures, so as to save as much as you can of your present pay.

A birthday surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert on Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of Mr. Lambert. Ralph Christensen of Troutdale, and Mrs. Ruth Calkins won prizes for being the prettiest man and lady present. Games were played, followed by refreshments. He received several gifts and everyone had a good time.

Elder Frank Burch, of Medford, Oregon, accompanied by two Bible workers, a secretary of the southern Oregon conference and a teacher in the Medford high school, spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Calkins. They are on their way to Walla Walla where they will attend a teachers' convention.
