BUTTONS, BUTTONS.

The editor last night found it necessary to have a button sewed onto his trousers—or sew it on. He refrains from saying which way the refrains was met. It might start an argument. A feminine member of the family asked why men have so many buttons anyway. We refrain from stating the answer given. It might sound immodest. However, it was mentioned that men's clothes were made that way. One feminine member of the family remarked she had only one or two buttons on all the clothing she had on and she was fully dressed. Another remarked she hadn't a single button except on a jacket and that had only one.

This set the writer to thinking. We counted the buttons on coat, vest, trousers, shirt and underwear, and including the one just sewed on, the count ran up to 33, and we are not sure but one or two were missing at that—some we never use.

We wonder why this discrimination. It has not ever been thus. We remember when we had to assist in fastening a long row of small buttons closely set down the back of a garment. Now women have freed themselves from such annoyances and it is a part of their new freedom, for which we are thankful. Perhaps the credit is due the men, however, for men fashion the styles for women, don't they?

But why should men, who need freedom of action and ease and comfort of covering be still bound down by such inconveniences as the ordinary man's clothing imposes? Most men workers are heavily dressed. Thirty-three buttons!

DO YOU KNOW THIS FELLOW?

There is a fellow operating in and about Gresham who ought to be apprehended and killed or banished. Our officers are partly at fault but so are also most of the individual citizens. It's time we acknowledged our laxness and resolved to do our duty as individuals and as a community.

This fellow has so many aliases and changes his character so often it is hard to catch him in his dangerous work but the results always indicate his subtle part in the play. He always tries to injure someone or wreck something. He doesn't always succeed but he seldom fails.

The character we refer to is absolutely heartless. In fact he seems to have a particular spite against children. It's time, I say, we went after him and drove him out of town and then watched the roads to see that he doesn't get back.

He was seen on Powell street Sunday morning near the intersection of Main. Later he was observed hanging onto the back of an auto going north on Main street. He has a way of hanging around the back yards of some of our most prominent but unsuspecting citizens. He gained access to a store the other night walking in the front door which the owner accidentally failed to lock.

Gresham is not the only place where this character has operated and everywhere he has a most unsavory record, leaving behind him a trail of suffering and death. Detectives are ever on his track but about the time they think they have him cornered he bobs up somewhere else.

He is guilty of the following crimes: Incendiarism, mahem, destruction of property, train wrecking, manslaughter, and many others. In fact he is the arch-enemy of human safety and happiness.

In some communities vigilantes and committees have been organized to warn and guard people against his destructive influence. This means has never been entirely successful. Individual effort is most effective.

He has many given names, several aliases and generally, when brought into court and charged with one or more of his many crimes, he succeeds in proving an alibi. His last name is Carelessness!

Pomona Grange to Meet at Orient.

The September meeting of Multnomah Pomona Grange will be held with Multnomah Grange at Orient on Wednesday, September 15, and will be attended by members of all the subordinate granges of the county, as well as visitors from other counties. Important business matters will come up for discussion at the morning session. Multnomah Grange will furnish a fine dinner at noon and a supper at about 6 o'clock. The open lecture hour will begin at 1:30, when there will be discussion of tax measures and other issues to be voted upon in November. The sixth degree will be conferred on a number of candidates at the evening session, after which a literary and musical program will be given. Jas. G. Kelly of Portland is master of Pomona Grange.

LYNCH

A reception is being planned for the teachers for Friday evening, September 17, which all patrons of the district are urged to attend. New residents in the district are especially urged to be present as the affair is in their honor as well as for the teachers. Speakers who are expected to take part are W. C. Lawrence, chairman of the board of Gresham Union high school; H. W. Lynch, chairman of the local school district; W. O. Shaver, president of the Parent-Teacher association and Miss Elizabeth Canning, principal of the school, and Wm. Hornecker, who will speak for the patrons of the school. Music by the local orchestra and other musical numbers will be on the program. Monday's registration of pupils was 79 and more are expected. The teachers are Miss Canning, principal; Miss Beatrice Swanson, intermediate; and Miss Lekander, primary.

Lynch Parent-Teacher association held the first meeting of the season Friday evening, September 3, with a good attendance. The work of the year is getting under way with splendid interest in evidence.

Laurel Sunday school, which meets every Sunday morning at Lynch school, reports very good attendance, considering the holiday season. Last Sunday the school was visited by Mr. Allen, missionary, and Mr. Martin, secretary, American Sunday School Union. Mr. Martin gave great encouragement to the efforts of the Sunday school workers.

POWELL VALLEY

The Powell Valley school opened Monday morning with an enrollment of 46, 27 of these being in the higher grades with Miss Sue Hicks, of Portland as teacher and the remainder, 19, in the lower grades of which Miss Elsie Luoto, of Knappa, Oregon, is the teacher. It is certain that this enrollment will be considerably increased later. Miss Hicks and Miss Luoto are boarding with Mrs. Axel Johnston.

The first meeting of the Parent-Teacher association for the school year will be held at the schoolhouse Friday evening at 8 o'clock with all are invited. There will be a business meeting with a short program. The dues for the coming year will also be paid at this meeting and refreshments will be served.

The Powell Valley Canning club will give a social and wienie roast Saturday evening, September 18, at the Powell Valley schoolhouse beginning at 8 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will be served. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview school opened yesterday with an attendance of 86 pupils. The teachers for the following year are Mrs. Lloyd Tegart, principal and 7th and 8th grades; Miss Beryl King, 5th and 6th grades; Mrs. Helen Camp, 3d and 4th grades; Miss Leah Burgess, 1st and 2d grades.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stone returned home Sunday after a week's outing. The first part of the week was spent near Mt. Adams where they visited the lava cave, also the ice cave and took other interesting side trips. The remainder of the week was spent at Netarts.

S. B. Hall is adding a new machinery shed to his barn.

UNION

A special meeting of the Union Parent-Teacher association was held Friday afternoon, August 27, for the purpose of electing new officers. The officers elected were Mrs. Mondell Kelley, president; Mrs. Kate Moffatt, vice president; Mrs. Leah Bartlett, secretary, and Mrs. Alfred Wellman, treasurer.

The Parent-Teacher association will hold its first regular meeting of the school year on Friday afternoon, September 17, at 2:30. A full attendance is very desirable at this time as a regular lineup of the year's work will be made.

The compromise. A young married couple argued for months what kind of a vehicle they would buy with their savings. Wife wanted a sedan. Dearie wanted a roadster. So they compromised and bought a baby carriage.
