GOOD ADVICE.

President Coolidge a few days ago called upon American newspapers to refrain from publication of unfounded rumors concerning the country's relations with foreign powers which, he said, were most cordial.

Dissemination of reports not based on actual fact is dangerous, the president pointed out, particularly when every agency should strive constantly to cement friendship with foreign countries.

Mr. Coolidge doesn't include the country press when he advises editors to treat much of the foreign "news" with caution. His statements were directed at the metropolitan editor who delights in spreading before his readers uncomplimentary and unfriendly yarns which usually have no foundation.

Mr. Coolidge's suggestion that the Golden Rule be followed in publication of news tending to review our foreign relations, is a good one. Foreigners are just as sensitive as Americans.

WE MUST LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

(By Dr. Frank Crane.) The only practical plans under which human beings can expect to live together in peace is the Golden Rule.

We must love one another and do as we would be done by. This is not an ideal Sunday school precept, but it is a rule that has teeth and claws in it. Unless we obey it we shall suffer. And not one party, but all parties suffer.

War has been demonstrated to be about as disastrous to the victor as to the vanquished. The successful allies in the recent great World War, such as Great Britain, Italy and France, are now almost as bad off as the unsuccessful group, consisting of Germany, Austria and so forth.

War is not only cruel and ineffectual, but it does not pay. It pays human beings in the long run to co-operate and not to contend. As General Grant said, it is doubtful if any war was ever fought about an issue that could not have been better settled in some other way.

The great war makers are egotism, stubbornness, hate and fear. Jesus told us long ago that the only method of getting along together was by love and trust. We have not yet learned that His precept was based upon common sense and was not an impractical command.

Germany at this writing is reverting toward a reactionary government, as is Italy. England is in the throes of labor unrest. The ministry in France is maintaining itself with difficulty. Belgium is upset.

Wherever hate and fear and contention rule there is upheaval and disaster. These things cannot be permanently cured by an increase in force on any side, but only by an increase of charity and the spirit of compromise.

It takes a long while for human beings to learn how to get on with each other. It is much easier to revolt and stand for our rights than patiently to seek a status quo.

The main thing for a people to learn is that there can be no abiding peace that is not founded upon justice. The prophecy said in ancient times that righteousness and peace shall kiss each other. Until this is done there is no abiding harmony or progress.

THINK! Little editorials suggested by ARTHUR Brisbane and gathered from other sources to help you think on live issues of the day.

Rosamond Pinchot, daughter of Amos R. E. Pinchot, niece of the governor of Pennsylvania, retires from the stage. Her father, who has common sense, allowed her to act and she had great success in "The Miracle."

What would Bertha, of "The snows of yesteryear," amount to if she hadn't created Charlemagne? Who would know Nancy Hanks if she were not the mother of Abraham Lincoln, or poor Abrotonian if her Thracian blood, Celtic undoubtedly, had not produced Themistocles?

American tourists traveling "for to admire and for to see," also to visit dressmakers, milliners and get away from prohibition, spent in France last year $226,160,000—a great deal of money, and real money. It would be a pity if misunderstandings about debts that may never be paid should make Americans in France so uncomfortable as to cut off that yearly tribute to the French dressmaking Minotaur.

Young Krishnamurti from India has arrived and comes to free us from our "materialism." He will be as welcome as Hercules in the Augean stables.

This earnest, sincere youth is, among other things, an excellent horseman, a good sportsman, and was an infant prodigy. He was carried each night to a tent in his sleep. As he dreamt, so his friends say, "the Master" appeared and gave him instructions. At the age of 12, he wrote his book, "At the Feet of the Master."

That does not necessarily mean Divine inspiration. Consider little Christian Heinrich Heineken, who died in 1725, "before he was five years of age." He was able to converse plainly at 10 months. When one year old, he knew by heart the most important parts of the Pentateuch. At two years of age he had mastered sacred history, at three he was thoroughly acquainted with history and geography, ancient and modern, sacred and profane, and spoke French and Latin. He devoted himself to religious study in his fourth year, and to church history. And this is no "yarn" but historical facts. Crowds flocked to Lubeck to see him, and a year before he died he was taken to see the King of Denmark at Copenhagen.

His death before the age of five, should warn parents not to drive talented children. Whatever our defects may be in the United States we cannot be accused of dividing things up. When an American gets a big piece of anything, he keeps it and adds to it.

These law suits are most always settled to the satisfaction of both lawyers. Balloon Trousers. Jelly—"How do you like my new trousers?" Nelly—"Well, there's lots of room for improvement in them."

Bids Wanted. Bids will be received, up to Monday noon, September 27, for the construction of a septic tank for Orient School District, No. 6 Jt. Plans and specifications can be seen at W. A. Proctor's store opposite schoolhouse. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. W. A. Proctor, clerk.

RUPTURE EXPERT HERE F. H. Seeley, of Chicago and Philadelphia, the noted expert, will personally be at the Benson hotel, and will remain in Portland next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 27, 28, 29 and 30, from 10 a. m. till 5 p. m. daily. Mr. Seeley says,

"The Spermatic Shield will not only retain any case of rupture perfectly, but contracts the opening in 10 days on the average case. Being a vast advancement over all former methods—exemplifying instantaneous effects immediately appreciable and withstanding any strain or position no matter the size or location. Large or difficult cases, or incisional ruptures (following operations), specially solicited. This instrument received the only award in England and Spain, producing results without surgery, injections, medical treatment or prescriptions.

CAUTION—All cases should be cautioned against the use of any elastic or web truss with understraps, as same rest where the lump is and not where the opening is, producing complications necessitating surgical operations. Mr. Seeley has documents from the United States Government, Washington, D. C., for inspection. He will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired. Business demands prevent stopping at any other place in this section.

A Pushing Advertisement. A "pulling" advertisement is always to be desired. But the following story shows how an advertisement may unintentionally push one into undesirable publicity:

A reporter recently became the father of a bouncing boy. He was so proud of his offspring that he was prepared to spend a considerable amount in buying a carriage in which to wheel the baby; so he told his wife to meet him at the office in the afternoon, and they would make the purchase together. After the vehicle had been purchased, he placed the baby therein, and proudly pushed the carriage down the street. He noticed that people who approached him were smiling, but thought that it was on account of the youngster. Finally, some friends who met the couple, made such a demonstration, that he said to his wife, "You push, and I will go ahead and find out what's the matter." He did so, and looking at the carriage, nearly fell in a fit. On the carriage was a placard, which the salesman had forgotten to remove, which read, "Our Own Make."
