

ROCKWOOD

Much interest is being taken in the patriotic motion picture, "The Man Without a Country," to be shown at the church at Rockwood next Saturday evening, which will be supplemented by musical numbers and followed with refreshments. During the evening Miss Helen Lamb will give three piano solos, "The Bohemian Girl," "Ben Hur's Chariot Race" and "The Sweet Bye and Bye with Variations." Violin selections will be given by the Rev. H. R. Bowman. Besides the main picture, a reel of good comedy will be shown. There will be no intermissions after the picture starts, as two machines have been secured for the evening. The proceeds from the evening's entertainment will go toward the current expenses of the church.

PLEASANT HOME

G. W. Hale came near losing his barn on Monday of last week when it caught fire in two places. Mrs. Hale and her son managed to keep the flames in check until the arrival of aid. The origin of the fire is unknown, but indications are that it was the work of incendiarism. The harvest home festival held at the Pleasant Home Methodist church last Sunday was a decided success. Over 100 enjoyed the bountiful dinner which was followed by talks from several present. Mr. Bickford spoke on the future of Pleasant Home and Dr. C. L. Haynes on "Rural Church Problems." Mrs. Alta Gentry, who has been in charge of the junior church since its beginning, spoke in its behalf and Mrs. Fred Meyers gave a brief talk on the importance of community gatherings. Dr. C. W. Huett gave an inspiring address depicting the greatness of the United States along all lines of progress. C. E. Risher sang two selections and the Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Withnell and Mr. and Mrs. Oleman gave an instrumental number which was much appreciated.

FAIRVIEW

"Enjoying God" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church at Fairview. Sunday school will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. Each Sunday for the last three weeks has shown an increased attendance and it is hoped to reach high water mark by Rally day Sunday which will be observed October 10.

POWELL VALLEY

It is hoped there will be good attendance at the bazaar which will be given by the Home and Foreign Missionary society at the Saron Lutheran church Saturday evening, September 25, beginning at 8 o'clock. Friends are asked to contribute articles of apparel, towels or fancy work to the fair and it is requested that everything be in place by Saturday evening.

A. C. Arvidson returned Monday from three-weeks' trip to Lake Norden, South Dakota, the former home of the Arvidson family. He also visited in Duluth, Minnesota, and on his return, stopped off at Vancouver, B. C. with acquaintances. He returned over the Canadian National railway. Mr. Arvidson reports considerable snow in parts of Canada and much of the grain still uncut. The corn crop in South Dakota is fair this year, but the small grain light.

Sunday school will convene at 9:45 at the Saron Lutheran church, followed by divine worship at 11 in the English language. The theme of the Rev. E. Sandeen's sermon will be, "The True Observance of the Sabbath." The Sunday school is now well organized with the graded system and accompanying text books in use. Little reward system has been introduced. Attendance has increased to a very satisfying degree. Much new equipment has been purchased, including register, Bible charts for primary department, record chart, typewriter and rotospeed. The lecture in the evening will be a combination of that begun last Sunday evening. The subject of the lecture will be, "The Greatest Known Truth."

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The Parent-Teacher association of Corbett held its first meeting on September 14 in Columbia high school, with several of the new teachers present. It was decided not to serve hot lunches during the winter, as there are a number of places where they can be obtained. Mrs. Woodie resigned as president of the association as it was impossible for her to carry on the work and the election of a new president was laid on the table for the next meeting. A membership committee was appointed and refreshments were served.

Horace Evans, Mabel Harding and Leonard Carter gave a farewell party to their high schoolmates at Chanticleer inn on Friday evening before leaving for Oregon Agricultural college where they will register as freshmen. Dancing was the main feature of the evening, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Susan Harding gave a chicken dinner Sunday evening to a dozen friends. Mr. and Mrs. C. Bush, of Bridal Veil, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilcox and several teachers were among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the evening.

Miss Isabelle Pulliam, of Corbett, will leave for Monmouth next week where she will begin work at the state normal.

L. Arneson, of Corbett, met with an auto accident on the highway last week on his way back from Hood River. His car was badly wrecked, but Mr. Arneson was not hurt.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. White, in Portland, who is very ill. Annie Benfield has been helping in the care of the new twin babies at the Van Hee residence.

George Atkinson at the Springdale general store has purchased an Overland de luxe sedan from the Hessel Implement company of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Miles, of Sunnyside, have moved in as caretaker of the Ehrman place.

The new store of H. Richards at Corbett is now open and is a very neat addition to Corbett. A barber's chair and a bath are installed in the building for the benefit of tourists and the public in general. Mr. Miller, of Hurlburt, is the barber who is to be found there in the evenings.

Herbert Siverts has gone to Seattle to attend a missionary school and his wife and two children will follow later.

A large number of patrons and matrons of the city chapter of the order of the Eastern Star was entertained at the Troutdale chapter Saturday evening. Many prominent men and women of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges attended. A fine program was given and a delicious banquet served. George Washington, worthy patron of the Sellwood chapter, is a noted ventriloquist and entertained very enjoyably. Mrs. O. J. Brown and Mrs. Keller of the Parkrose chapter, sang a few numbers which were much enjoyed and the two small children of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Johnson, of Hurlburt, made a hit singing and playing.

Harold Chamberlain is at the home of his parents at Springdale for a few days from San Diego, California, where he is in training for admission to the United States navy service. He expects later to attend the naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland.
