WHAT ABOUT IT?

Cooler weather is approaching. This fact reminds one of the house heating problem. Shall you buy a new heater or have the old one put in repair for the coming winter?

YOU KNOW WHAT'S BEST

BUT

We present the Beauty Heater, which is a fine looking, cast lined, steel jacket heater with large swinging top and mica front. A heater that will last for years and give you good service. We also have the all-cast fireplace heaters and various other styles of heaters and furnaces to meet your every need. See them on our floor.

The American Legion and the Woman's auxiliary will hold their regular meetings on Tuesday evening, September 28, at the grange hall. Reports of delegates to the state convention will be given by E. J. Brugger and Ted Johnson, representing the Legion, and Mrs. Helen Camp and Mrs. W. S. Everett, delegates from the auxiliary and Mrs. O. A. Eastman who attended in her capacity as state president. Preceding the meeting a pot luck supper will be served, beginning at 7 o'clock. Each is requested to bring a covered dish, a plate and own silverware. All members of the families are invited to the supper.

Mrs. Joe Exley has been bedfast for the past three weeks with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. It was thought her condition was slightly improved during the past day or so. As soon as she is able, it is expected she will undergo a tonsil operation. Mrs. Lucile Gaither is taking care of her and Mrs. Clementine Metzger is assisting in the care of the children.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair Tuesday evening were the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hand, of Marengo, Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogers, of Portland. Others who joined the party for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Chase E. St. Clair and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie T. St. Clair.

Mrs. Buena Stone, one of the teachers in the Gresham grade school, was thrown to the pavement by an auto while in Portland last Saturday afternoon and badly shaken up and bruised. She was struck by a machine which had been bumped into by another. After treatment for minor injuries at a physician's office, she was able to drive home and on Monday was back in her classroom as usual.

E. F. Palmquist and family have returned from Chenoweth, Washington, where they went three months ago to be near Mr. Palmquist's work, where he has been engaged in cutting telephone and telegraph poles and piling.

Arnold Rogers and R. S. Acers left Wednesday for the head waters of the Santiam river in the Cascade mountains, where they will spend a week or ten days deer hunting.

Ross Brown has been appointed to register prospective voters in this part of the county for the November election. The books are already open but will close on October 2. Brown's office on Powell street will be open during the daytime and on Saturday evenings. Those who should register are persons who are of age, who are new residents in the county, those who have changed their residence from one precinct to another and those who have failed to vote for two years.

Mrs. Vera Tucker won some attractive prizes at the Vancouver Dahlia show last week carrying off first in basket, first and third of pompon and first and third on show dahlias.

The main room of the library, also the small office at the rear are being re-tinted today by a corps of workmen from Portland.

Miss Florence Rosen was honored Thursday evening by a surprise miscellaneous shower given for her at the home of Mrs. B. W. Thorne by Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. George Sleret and Mrs. Arnold Ruegg. About 25 were present, all ladies of the immediate neighborhood, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Miss Rosen received a number of pleasing gifts. It is said that her marriage to Maurice Botkin will be an event of early October.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles have moved from their former property on Wallula avenue to their new home on Kenney street, the former J. H. Hoss property.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Quinby have taken up their residence in an apartment in the Howitt building, having moved here from Portland about a week ago. Mr. Quinby is the junior member of the Quinby Motor company.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hough, of Modesto, California, left this morning after a week's visit with Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Todd. They stopped on their way home from a tour extending as far east as Idaho. They had not been in this vicinity for 18 years and note many changes in the country. Mr. and Mrs. Hough admire greatly the scenery in and around Gresham and Portland.

A son weighing 7 1/4 pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Brandt Thursday, September 23. The new arrival has been named George Jr. Mrs. Brandt's mother, Mrs. Orland Zeek, is here from Lebanon to remain with her daughter for a while.

HOGAN

Harold Weisenfuh was called to eastern Oregon one day last week to attend the funeral of his sister, who died after a long illness.

Mark Doryland returned Saturday from near Estacada where he had spent a week hunting. He was accompanied by two other men and they report the capture of one deer between them.
