

America's Greatest Horse Show

Miss Clementine Lewis and "Highland Lassie"

The Horse Show programs of the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, Oregon, will begin this year on Saturday night, Oct. 30th. They will be continued each evening of the following week, starting Monday, with matinees Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The Exposition, housed in its ten-acre building, is the largest of its kind in the world and the ribbons tied there are considered equal or superior to honors achieved elsewhere.

$100,000.00 in prize money is distributed during the week, of which the Horse Show alone offers $32,500.00, the largest amount ever placed in any premium book. The Olympic Hotel of Seattle $4,000.00 stake for five-railed horses also sets a new high mark for distribution in a single class.

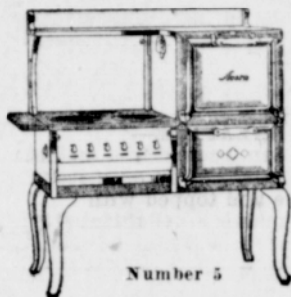

No such aggregation of hunting and jumping events has ever been scheduled in the West and the entries are better than at any previous Horse Show.

In all probability there is no single institution that has been instrumental in adding so materially to the development of the Northwest as the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. Many millions of dollars in value have been added to the livestock industry by its organized effort to improve breeds and breeding methods.

All railroads are making a round trip rate of a fair and one-third for the Exposition. Visitors should not fail to ask local agents for particulars.

Lightens Kitchen Work

But perhaps best of all, electric cooking lightens kitchen labor. "Cooking by wire" is a joy in itself because it is so simple and easy. And with less sweeping and cleaning to do in the kitchen, with no scouring of blackened pots and kettles, and no carrying of wood, coal or ashes, you can begin to see how electric cooking allows you more time to yourself for other work or outside interests.

Floyd Stafford, third high point boy, made a total score of 558 out of a possible 600. On Monday, the opening day of the fair, Multnomah county clubs won ten scholarships on dairy stock and judging.

VAUDEVILLE SHOWS STAGED BY WOODMEN

Multnomah Camp, Woodmen of the World, of Portland, with its 7000 members and beautiful lodge home at East Sixth and Alder streets, is known as one of the most progressive lodges of the Pacific coast. It is always doing things and doing them on a magnificent scale. It is not satisfied with anything ordinary but goes after the extraordinary. It is not enough that 500 or more members attend its regular meetings at its magnificent hall and club rooms but in various ways it seeks to extend its influence.

Just now this camp is making an effort to reach more directly its members scattered by the hundreds throughout the eastern part of this county and in every "neck of the woods" in Clackamas county. It is planning meetings with entertaining features in central locations.

There will be three grand free Woodmen rallies this coming week as follows:

Tuesday evening, October 5, at the Grange hall, Pleasant Valley.

Wednesday evening, October 6, at the city hall, Troutdale.

Thursday evening, October 7, at the high school auditorium, Sandy.

These meetings will be free and will begin at 8 o'clock.

The announcement that this great camp will bring to these places some of its talented members and put on a free vaudeville show is all that needs to be said to insure a crowded house. The entertainments will be high class.

These entertainments are planned for the benefit of the members, their neighbors and men friends. It is regretted by those having the matter in charge that the invitation cannot include the entire family but the limited capacity of the halls will not permit.

It is assured there will be no political speeches and very little talking by anyone.

In addition to some of Multnomah Camp's best musical and vaudeville talent there will be an exhibition by Captain T. Jones Jr., one of the foremost magicians on the American stage.

Men, and especially members of the Woodmen of the World, are being invited to these entertainments in the various locations named and members especially are urged to bring their men friends.

PLEASANT HOME

Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock at the Pleasant Home Methodist church, followed by preaching at 11 from the topic, "Pictures of the Word Made Flesh." A combined service will be held for the juniors and the adults. Next Sunday will be promotion Sunday and it is hoped all will be present.

Next Sunday night has been declared church night at the Methodist church by the Epworth League. All are invited to come and join in the meeting to be held at 7:30 under the leadership of Herman Walters, assisted by others.

Samuel Bacon, aged 79, who suffered a paralytic stroke September 22 while returning from an outing to Yachats in company with his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bacon, of Sandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cathey and Virgil Howell and daughters, of Gresham, is now resting easily at his home near Pleasant Home. His lower limbs, however, are still paralyzed. Mr. Bacon has not been well during the entire summer and it was thought the trip to the beach would improve his general health. The party had proceeded about 20 miles from Yachats when the man was stricken. A physician was consulted at Albany but he could do nothing for the man and advised reaching home as soon as possible.

The Ladies Aid of the Pleasant Home Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Bartsch. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Martin Lennartz spent the week-end at Salem with her daughter, Miss Anna Lennartz, who is attending Willamette University.

GILLIS

Gillis won from Lipman & Wolfe by a score of 15 to 3 last Sunday. Next Sunday Gillis will play a Portland team, either East Portland or Cloverland creamery. Game will be played on the Gillis grounds.

The Sunday school of the Haley Baptist church will begin at 10 a. m. Sunday, followed by the morning service in Swedish at 11. The evening service will begin at 8 o'clock. The Rev. John S. Nordell is the pastor of the church and invites all to be present who desire.

LIVESTOCK RAISING---A Business

If one plays at livestock raising, he pays. If he makes a business of it, he prospers. And it is a business that requires hard work and deep study. Starting the herd, building it up and cashing in on it cannot succeed under guesswork.

Yet, livestock raising will go a long way in this community toward solving the farmer's economic problem. Furthermore, the Bank of Gresham is only too glad to lend a helping hand along business-like lines.

It is fortunate that the farmers in this vicinity have the opportunity to visit and profit from the Pacific International Livestock Exposition in Portland. This year, October 30-November 6, it is said the exhibits will outrival any previous livestock show in all America.

Prohibition Helps Insurance.

"Each year prohibition has broken life insurance records, both for number and value of policies and for the decrease in mortality costs," declares H. E. Rompel, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. He also says: "The three hundred companies in the nation issued approximately thirteen billion dollars in paid-for policies in 1924, an increase of eight per cent over the preceding year. Lapses and surrenders have decreased."

Something in a Name.

Down south a Negro was brought before a judge because of some missing chickens. The judge asked him if he had any children. "Yes, sah," said the negro, "I see got a boy." "What's his name?" inquired the magistrate. "His name am Weathahstrip, Judge." "Weatherstrip? How did he ever get a name like that?" "Well, Judge, you see it was dis way: Dat boy was bo'n jes' fo' de wah, an' he done kept me out o' de draft."

Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War—"The soldier who sleeps on outpost duty and thereby endangers the lives of his fellows and the cause of his country is shot. Yet the private citizen, the voter, can sleep on outpost duty and thereby bring even greater danger to his country. He not only goes unpunished but feels himself entitled to become cynical when corruption becomes evident. Only by a closer watch on the men who represent you in public life, and a greater trust in them, can you hope to achieve the kind of government for which presumably you stand."—Public Affairs.

Guarantee Was Good.

Jones answered an advertisement, and sent a dollar for four pairs of socks. When they arrived, he looked them over, and then wrote the advertiser: "Socks received. The patterns are vile. I wouldn't be seen on the streets with them on."

Back came the answer: "What are you objecting to? Didn't we guarantee you wouldn't wear them out?"
