GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Simonsen returned Saturday from a three-weeks' motor tour of California points, their trip extending as far south as Tijuana, Mexico. They went by way of the inland trail, stopping at Sacramento, continuing south they visited at Oakland and San Diego. On their return stops were made at Los Angeles, San Francisco and Crater Lake. The trip was made in the new Dodge sedan which they recently purchased through the local firm of Hamlin & Hoss. Mr. Simonsen is employed as an area salesman with the Standard Oil company.

The Rebekah Welfare club will meet with Mrs. R. L. Davidson on Monday afternoon, October 4. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. Etta Hoover and Mrs. Anna Allhouse. All members are requested to be present.

At the last general meeting of the Evangelical Women's union it was decided to hold the annual bazaar and chicken dinner on November 11 at the grange hall.

Miss Hope MacKenzie, who was a member of last year's high school faculty, left Sunday for Palo Alto, California, where she will attend Leland Stanford University. She expects to obtain her master's degree in psychology.

Mrs. A. C. Althaus was the assistant hostess recently at the first meeting of the year of the Portland alumnae chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta, a national sorority. Miss Eve Hutchison, a member of the Oregon chapter, was also present. Miss Hutchison, a former member of Gresham high school faculty, is this year an instructor in English at Grant high school in Portland. The afternoon college affair was held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Thomas, in Portland.

The house belonging to T. R. Howitt and occupied by P. E. Stone and family is undergoing a number of renovations. The roof has been reshingled, a new foundation has been laid and painting and papering are yet to be completed.

Mrs. L. Radford and daughter, Ethelyn, were two of a party which returned last Monday from a tour of northern and central California, their trip taking them as far south as Sacramento. The others who went were Mrs. Radford's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and four children, and her son, Elmer and wife, all of Newport. They visited a daughter, Mrs. Elmer Dukes, at Middletown, California, and a son near Santa Rosa. They spent some time at Salt Lake point on the beach where they enjoyed the unusual sport of abalone fishing. On the return trip they left the Pacific highway at Eugene and came home by way of the McKenzie pass, The Dalles-California and the Columbia river highways.

Mrs. Jas. Naylor of Netarts, has been for the past two weeks at her former home on the Base Line road caring for Mrs. Walter Andersen and her little son, Donald Dean. She expects to return in a day or two to her home. The baby was born on the 15th. Mrs. Naylor reports her husband and daughter Thelma improving in health.

Miss Blanche Trimble was given a surprise miscellaneous shower Saturday evening by the Misses Floella Jacobs and Ella Baker at the home of Miss Trimble's sister, Mrs. H. S. McMurry, in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Trimble and Harry Clifford, a Portland man, the wedding to be an event of the latter part of October. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride-elect. A plate luncheon was served with which Mrs. McMurry and Mrs. P. E. Stone assisted the hostesses. Miss Trimble was a former telephone operator at Sandy, going from there to Bellingham, Washington, later to Portland where she is now employed. Several out of town guests included Mrs. Marjorie King and Mrs. Carrie Noble, of Portland, and Mrs. Alice Judd, of Sandy.

S. B. Mason, of Lynden, Washington, spent a few hours with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mason Wednesday. Mr. Mason is a fox fancier in Washington and made the trip here for business reasons connected with his industry.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Baker have disposed of their house and three acres located in east Gresham to a Portland man, R. J. King and family, who formerly resided near here. In exchange they are accepting a house and lot located in east Portland. The Baker family has planned to occupy the Ross house on West Third street which will be utilized as a rooming and boarding house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kenney returned Wednesday from a motor trip which they took to Vancouver, B. C., in company with their brother-in-law, W. J. Miller, of Linnton, and the latter's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. F. Miller. They were gone about a week and report a splendid trip, although the tem-
