

GRESHAM OUTLOOK

Published every Tuesday and Friday at Gresham, Oregon, by the Outlook Publishing Co., H. L. St. Clair, Editor and Manager.

One year, $1.50, six months, 85c, three months, 50c, trial subscription, 50c. Combination rates with all the Portland Dailies.

ADVERTISING Rates reasonable. Our representative will call.

Entered as second-class matter March 1, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

The reckless driver is not likely to be wreckless.

Oregon City is hoping to entertain the state grange in 1928.

Benefitting by his vacation, they say Coolidge is putting the fish in efficiency.

Judge J. U. Campbell, of Oregon City, is being put forward for the position of federal judge to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles E. Wolverton.

Canby is going to have a new $82,500 Union high school building. A recent vote of the districts almost unanimously favored the bonds.

The Canby Herald says the recent Canby fair "opened with a rush and closed with a bang." We remember that they advertised some fireworks.

MAKES A NEW HAT WORTH WHILE.

The Oregon Voter is as versatile as its chief editor, C. C. Chapman. We search many other sources of information regarding legislation, taxation, candidates and measures and then we read what The Voter says.

At election time especially The Voter is enlightening and indispensable. Its advice is, "Don't cast an uninformed vote—get the facts."

MODERN SOURCES OF POWER.

"With the one exception of printing it may be doubted if any single industry has brought so many and sweeping changes to the world as has the modern production and use of petroleum."

Try to think what modern life and industry would be without any one or all of these forces.

94 TRIPS TO MOON AND RETURN, RECORD

Since its start from San Francisco on October 15, 1899, the Overland Limited of the Southern Pacific line, running from the Bay City to Chicago, will this month have completed 45,000,000 miles of travel.

The most remarkable thing about this long distance record is that it has been covered without accident resulting in serious injury to a single passenger, according to the statement of the company.

A Trial of Nickerson Jellied Chicken means a return order. Give it a trial.—Adv.
