

GRESHAM LOCALS

The Ladies Guild of the Baptist church will hold an all-day meeting at the parsonage on Tuesday, October 12. A pot luck lunch will be served at noon. Annual reports will be given at this meeting and officers elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. Eva J. French, of Monterey, California, is visiting at the home of her brother, B. W. Emery, and wife. She arrived Monday on her way home from Des Moines, Iowa, where she attended the national convention of the G. A. R. Mrs. French is past national president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. and has been actively identified with that organization for many years. She is a niece of Mrs. Charles Merrill, of Gresham, and will visit with her as well as at the Emery home.

E. R. Greener, of Pine Valley, Oregon, near Baker, spent Monday night and Tuesday at the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. C. A. Carothers. He brought a carload of cattle to Portland on Monday.

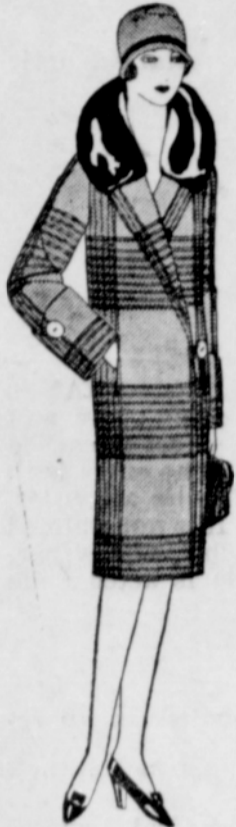

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bentley have moved from the Ross house on Third street to the James Babcock house east of Mrs. C. Merrill's which they will occupy temporarily. This house was formerly owned by the late Mrs. Maggie Ulm. Mr. Bentley has purchased a 16-acre fruit ranch near Grant's Pass and is planning to move there as soon as he can dispose of his tire shop in Gresham.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman, state president of the Women's Auxiliary to the American Legion and national committeewoman of the organization, was one of a party which left Portland Tuesday morning to attend the national American Legion convention in Philadelphia October 11 to 15. The delegation will be joined in Montana by delegates from the southern part of the state. On October 9 the party will have an audience with President and Mrs. Coolidge and the department commander accompanying the party east will present the president with a box of fruit. Mrs. Coolidge will also be presented with a bouquet of Oregon roses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker entertained Friday evening in honor of the birthday of Miss Marguerite Bailey. Covers were laid for 12.

The appearance of the interior of the Radio Electric shop is being much improved by a fine, big cabinet which covers almost the entire north side of the room. This is a receptacle for electric and radio fixtures, the samples of which are

The Areme club will meet Monday afternoon, October 11, at the home of Mrs. George Honey. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. K. A. Miller, Mrs. C. C. Yager and Mrs. J. S. Carlson.

Senator George W. Joseph of Portland has been scheduled to speak at the regular meeting of the Gresham Grange on next Saturday, October 9, during the lecture hour, which begins at 2 o'clock. He will speak in favor of the housewives' lighting bill, after which A. A. Smith of Baker, Oregon, will give his views in opposition to the bill. Interesting musical numbers are promised. The public is invited to this program. The routine business of the grange will be conducted in the forenoon, and initiation in the first and second degrees. The usual pot luck dinner will be enjoyed at noon by the members.

Mrs. Mary C. Kinder, of Idlerest, on the Sandy river, was a business visitor in Gresham today. Mrs. Kinder has just returned from a four-months' trip in which she visited a sister in Los Angeles and other relatives in southern California, friends in Chicago and a son in Baraboo, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McManus returned Tuesday from a two weeks' stay at Seaside where they have a cottage. The weather was beautiful while they were there and they had a most enjoyable rest.

D. E. Towle returned Monday evening from a two weeks' trip to the middle west, including many points in Minnesota and North Dakota. He visited his brother, Geo. Towle, and family in Minneapolis. Like the true Oregonian he is, Mr. Towle says he is glad to get back to the best country in the world. He states that a dry summer, a wet harvest and premature frosts have resulted in anything but favorable conditions in the regions he visited.

A reception has been planned for this evening to the newly-appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. Halford V. Wilhelm, and family. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

O. A. Eastman, Mrs. Elton Eastman, Mrs. Cora Walker and her daughter, Miss Alice Walker, left Tuesday morning by auto for a pleasure trip to Los Angeles, also Glendale, California. They will visit relatives and friends and expect to be gone about a month.

Alvin Vedder, aged 13, who recently left Gresham with his father, Paul Vedder, when they moved to their new home at Creswell, had the misfortune to fall on the school ground the first day of his attendance there, sustaining a broken and dislocated wrist.

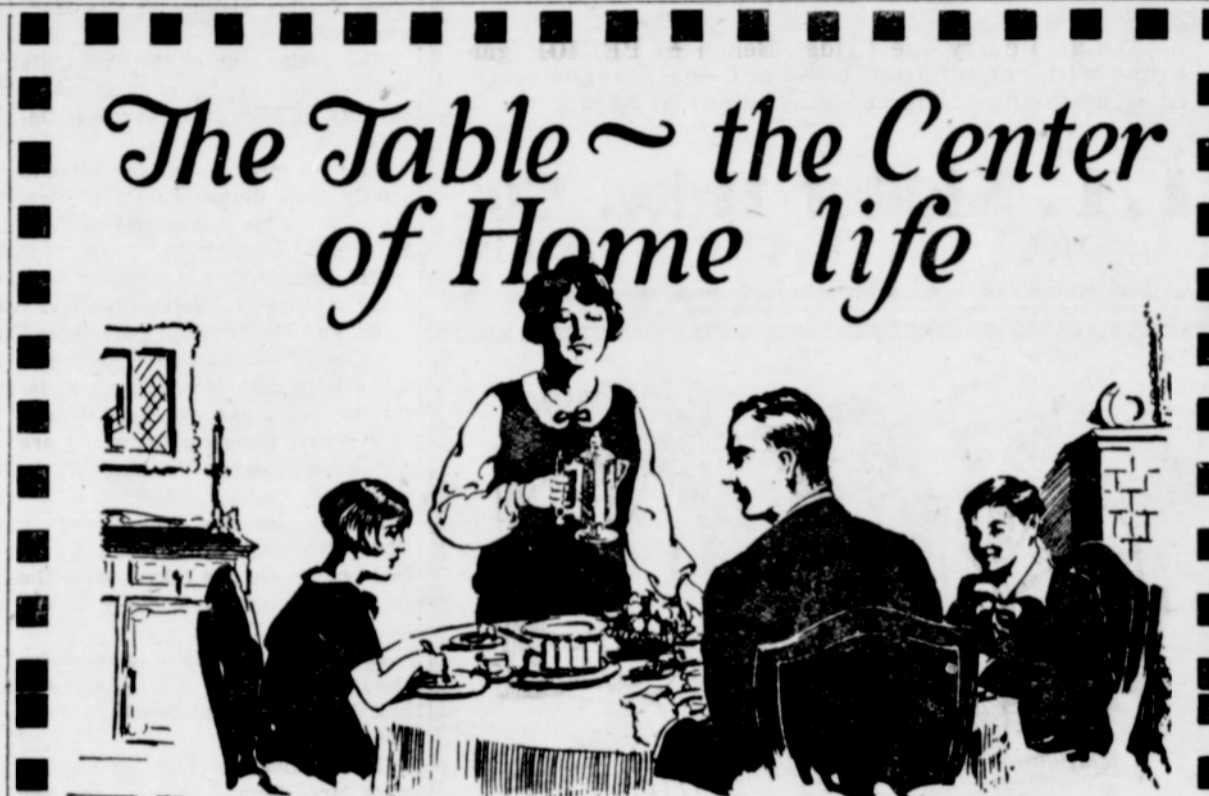

The Rev. H. R. Bowman and family, who formerly lived at Rockwood where Mr. Bowman was in charge of the Methodist church, have moved to Gresham and are occupying the William Caldo house on Cedar avenue. He is employed by the Poole Electric company in Portland as a salesman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnes have moved into the Holiday house on East Powell Valley road directly east of the Bible Standard community church.
