

Temperance Women Open State Meeting

The 43d annual convention of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union met this morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church, about 50 of the 150 or 200 delegates expected being present at the opening hour. Ideal weather prevails today with just enough breeze stirring to set into motion the numerous flags and banners which are fluttering in honor of the important gathering which has chosen Gresham as its 1926 meeting place.

An official board meeting and an executive meeting occupied the early hours of the forenoon and the convention proper was called to order this afternoon at 1:30 by Mrs. Mary L. Mallet, of Portland, president of the state organization. Mrs. Mallet is the mother of a local chiropractic physician, Dr. Geo. Mallet, well known to many in Gresham.

The executive session of the union proved of much interest to those present, and important business was transacted. Each morning of the convention will be devoted to a routine of necessary business in connection with the work of the W. C. T. U. Fifteen county presidents of the state were present this forenoon and 14 other members of the executive board, including directors of departments. They met in the basement of the church, while in the auditorium reception committees were busy receiving newcomers and attending to important details.

The church decoration committee has certainly done its work in a creditable manner. A mammoth American flag is draped across the entire front, sweeping the platform, while 14 countries of the world are represented by their respective flags arranged in an artistic manner on the two sides. A picture of Frances Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U., occupies a prominent position in front, with a white ribbon bow of tulle over the likeness. Maple foliage, dahlias and ferns have transformed the audience room into a pleasing bower. A large motto, the theme of the convention, "To serve the present age" greets the eye over the platform.

A rest room is very conveniently located in one of the stores of the new Brown building and is comfortably furnished with chairs for any who wish to make that a stopping place between sessions. A postoffice and a lost and found department are maintained at the church.

A highway trip has been arranged for the delegates on Thursday afternoon by the business men of Gresham. On account of the full program for the day it has been decided to go only as far as Multnomah falls on the Columbia River highway. The machines will gather at the church at 3 o'clock and any who have cars and a driver to contribute to the afternoon's pleasure, are asked to confer with either L. L. Kidder or B. L. Walrad. It is understood that a few more autos are needed.

More tickets are yet available for the banquet to be held tomorrow evening at the Masonic hall. Extensive plans have been made to have this affair a creditable one as well as an enjoyable occasion, and any wishing tickets may obtain

Of Portland, state president of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union, who will preside at the sittings of the state convention which convenes in Gresham today. Mrs. Mallet will address the convention at different times throughout the week.

Pomona Grange Here Event of Next Week

An all-day session of Multnomah Pomona Grange will be held with the Gresham Grange on Wednesday, October 27, at the grange hall, the meeting to be in charge of Pomona Master J. G. Kelly. Ordinarily the Pomona grange would have met later in the year, but on account of the discussion of a number of political measures which was thought advisable before the coming election, it was decided to hold the session before November 2. There will be an evening meeting in addition to the ones in forenoon and afternoon.

The afternoon lecture hour from 2 to 3 will be open to the public. Miss Elsie Maguire, field secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will talk on farm life in Ireland. She has just returned from that country and will have some interesting things to tell.

Mr. Smith will speak in opposition to the Housewives' Council Light and Power Bonding measure. Governor Walter M. Pierce is also expected to be present and speak in behalf of his candidacy and of the Grange Income tax measure.

The election of officers will occur following the open hour in the afternoon.

In the evening at 7:30 the fifth degree will be exemplified. This will be followed at 9 by a musical and literary entertainment, open to the public.

These sessions will be of great benefit to grangers and it is hoped the public will take advantage of the open sessions.

them at the Gresham Drug company, Taber's Pharmacy or the Outlook office. Judge Walter H. Evans will speak on "Accomplishments and Needs of the Farm Home" and a Gresham quartet consisting of Mrs. Ed Aylsworth, Miss Gertrude Alexander, Leslie Walrad and C. E. Russer, accompanied by Mrs. James Sterling, will sing.

A splendid program has been arranged for each day consisting of readings, addresses and musical numbers. Judge Mary Jane Spurlin will give an address this evening on "The Woman Citizen."

WELCOME TO WHITE RIBBONERS

You are with us from every city and hamlet of our fair state.

You represent the highest ideals of personal purity and temperance and civic righteousness.

You have been during the past 50 years one of the most potent factors in bringing freedom from the curse of the saloon.

You represent the broad spirit of the Master in your condemnation of sin with charity for the sinner.

You are the mothers and sisters of men, ever appealing to the better convictions within us, teaching the children, guarding the youth and urging men and women to higher ideals of manhood and womanhood.

You are a band of crusaders, an army, a host, a mighty force, lifting the nation and the world to a higher plane of living.

God bless you, one and all, and prosper the cause you represent.

Ella A. Boole
President of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By R. E. Cannon)

Gresham Union high school was very pleased to receive the loving cup won by them in the editing of last year's "Munhinotu". The entire school contributed to this splendid annual but the staff did the major part of the work, and Elbert Boice as editor-in-chief and Arnold Rogers as artist did the most of it. The loving cup will remain in the possession of the high school for at least a year and should it be won by us for three successive years it will remain in the possession of Gresham Union high school. The cup was won by Grants Pass high school last year and Silverton high school the year previous. It is furnished by the Sigma Delta Chi fraternity of the Oregon Agricultural College and is given for the best annual in the second division of school. The second division comprises high schools of an enrollment of less than 500 students.

A camera club is being talked at the high school. This is promoted as a healthful, clean recreation. In order to become a member fees will be charged to provide funds for chemicals, trays, etc., for developing and printing pictures. Other schools have camera clubs that assist in putting out their annuals and why not G. U. H. S.?

Students cannot leave the school grounds at noon unless given special permission. Often the request is made for the purpose of getting some sweets to eat. A goodly number of schools conduct their own little store which sell rooters' caps, special pencils, candy bars, etc. Action has been taken whereby Gresham Union high school will attempt an associated studentbody store. Any profit derived through the medium of this store will be placed in the Associated Student body fund and be used to defray the usual expenses of the school, which include, in addition to athletics, the sending of officers to University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, special students to the Older Boys' Conference, glee clubs to Pacific University, paying of membership in the Oregon High School Athletic association, doctor bills, etc.

Boys and girls of Gresham Union high school appreciate the voting of the budget last Thursday evening. It is their wish that those supporting us know that at least 95 per cent of the students appreciate the splendid school we have and are endeavoring to make it better each succeeding day.

Special Combination Rates Offered. Until November 1, 1926, special combination prices are offered for the Gresham Outlook and The Portland News. The regular subscription price for the News is $5 and for the Outlook $1.50. Until that date the two in combination will be $3.98. Special price on the News alone is $2.98.—Adv.

GROWTH OF TEMPERANCE.

Gresham is honored in being the seat of the 43d annual convention of the Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the opening session of which was held this forenoon. This is the first time in the history of the community that a state convention of any kind has made this its meeting place, and the honor is appreciated, not only by those directly interested in the organization, but by the business men and the citizens in general.

The movement of which the Women's Christian Temperance Union is an outgrowth was the Woman's Crusade which sprang up in Ohio in 1873 when, suddenly, as if moved by a common impulse, the women rose in a concerted movement to purify the home and the national life and to oppose the saloon evil. This was the first time women united in a general effort of any consequence against intemperance, and within a year the Women's Christian Temperance Union was organized in many cities and towns. Miss Frances E. Willard, a young teacher near Chicago, was called to the presidency of the Chicago union, which she organized so effectively that in 1879 she became the president of the national organization. In 1883 this gifted woman was called to the presidency of the World's Christian Temperance Union.

This organization, however, which was strictly woman's movement, had been preceded half a century before by six famous sermons by the great Lyman Beecher in which he called for the abolition of the liquor traffic. In 1861 14 states had adopted prohibition laws, but the call for revenue during and following the Civil War brought into being the license system, from which it took the American people nearly 60 years to free themselves. The prohibition states were reduced to three, Kansas, Maine and North Dakota, but, through the local option movement and the earnest efforts of the temperance loving people, between 1893 and 1913 the three dry states were increased to seven and in 30 other states the local option territory rapidly increased.

During all these years the Woman's Christian Temperance Union had been working toward a definite goal, the national prohibition of the liquor traffic, and had been assisting every temperance movement, but without the ballot, for which they had been pleading. When this was granted by constitutional amendment in 1914, the fight against the liquor traffic was greatly strengthened.

This great organization of women has a varied program, working along many lines for the betterment of the homes and the uplifting of humanity.

Machines Collide; Three Persons Hurt

Two machines collided Sunday about noon at the point where the Palmquist road crosses the Mount Hood Loop highway near Gustavus station, resulting in minor injuries to three persons and considerable damage to the two machines involved. Clarence and Sherman Everett of the Dover locality and their aunt, Mrs. Laura Corbin, who was visiting them from San Jose, California, were on their way to Portland and a Portland machine containing a Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were proceeding eastward on the Palmquist road when the collision occurred. Mrs. Vaughn possibly sustained the worst injuries, according to the Gresham physician who was called to attend the trio. She had a half dozen cuts about the head and face and it was necessary to take 12 stitches in neck wounds which barely missed the external jugular vein. Mrs. Corbin suffered a contusion on the face, severe bruises and injury to one of her hands, while Clarence Everett escaped with a scalp wound which is not considered serious.

This is the second accident within about a month at this point, which is considered extremely dangerous on account of an obstructed view where the Palmquist road crosses the railroad and the Mt. Hood Loop highway.

Civil War Veteran Answers Last Call

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon for the late Thomas Ginder, formerly a resident of Gresham, who died in Hillsboro Thursday, October 14, at the age of 86 years, 9 months and 29 days. He was married in 1858 to Miss Nancy Shelburn who preceded him in death in November of 1910. The remains of the two are now lying side by side in the Gresham cemetery. The most of their married life was spent in the state of Iowa, but they later came to Oregon and lived in and around Gresham. For the past four years Mr. Ginder had lived at Hillsboro with a son. He was a member of the M. A. Ross G. A. R. post at Gresham and was given a military funeral. Six members of the American Legion, Ted Johnson, Elton Eastman, A. W. Metzger, W. S. Everett, C. C. Yager and L. T. St. Clair officiated as pallbearers at the funeral. The ladies of the Women's Relief corps also assisted with the floral pieces and marched in a body from the church to the cemetery. Mr. Ginder had been baptized into the Baptist faith in early days.

The deceased is survived by three children, Charles V., of Port Orford, Oregon; J. W. Ginder, of Hillsboro and Mrs. Ina Harms, of Los Angeles, all of whom were with him in his last illness. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Ann Fantress, of Newberg. The Rev. E. G. Judd preached the funeral sermon and Miss Elsa Sharp and Miss Marie Blom sang, accompanied by Mrs. H. S. Clow.

COUPLE SURPRISED ON ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John Jonas, of Fairview, were honored on October 5, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary. The members of Troutdale chapter of O. E. S. surprised them on that evening on their return from Portland. About 45 friends were present, in a few well-chosen words, Mrs. G. P. Lumsden presented the couple with a beautiful silver tray and spoke of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Jonas are held. The Fairview grange, of which Mrs. Jonas is the worthy master, gave her a fine reading lamp, Clyde Stone presenting the gift as a token of appreciation from the grange members. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas also presented them with several silver gifts and Mr. Jonas gave his bride of 25 years ago a silver coffee service with salt and pepper shakers to match. A most enjoyable evening was spent, followed by refreshments.

MORSE FAVORS ELECTION REFORMS

Branch registration booths should be established in several of the larger communities throughout the county for the benefit of voters, according to Clay S. Morse, candidate for county commissioner.

"It would be a great convenience to voters to have branch registration booths installed in populous communities throughout the county," said Mr. Morse, in discussing the matter. "It is a hardship on many to be required to go long distances to the courthouse to register. Often when they reach the courthouse they have to stand in line for long periods waiting for deputy county clerks to register them."

"It would be far better to establish branch registration booths in such districts as Gresham, Lents, Troutdale and St. Johns for a limited time during the registration period, giving voters opportunity to register in their own communities. It would save the voters much time and inconvenience and it would eliminate the congestion in the registration quarters in the courthouse."

"If it should be my good fortune to be elected county commissioner, I will endeavor to have branch registration booths installed."

COMING EVENTS.

Republican rally on Friday night at both Troutdale and Gresham. In the city hall, Troutdale, and the high school gym at Gresham, 8 o'clock. Hear the leading candidates.

The meeting will be held in the high school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock, and music will be furnished for the occasion by the high school orchestra.

On the same evening the same speakers will take part in a rally at the Troutdale city hall, the men alternating between the two places.

Men and women of all parties are invited to attend.

Gresham Downs Milwaukee 26-0. Throughout a steady downpour of rain, the Gresham high school football team last Friday defeated Milwaukee high school 26 to 0. After the first quarter there was little doubt as to the outcome of the game. Gresham easily outplayed Milwaukee in every department of the game.

The yardage gained was about evenly divided between Gresham's four horsemen. While the boys resorted mostly to straight football, they also passed occasionally, one of these, Smith to Chalker, resulting in a touchdown. It was Captain Chalker who carried the ball over the goal line for each touchdown. It seems as though he always has the necessary punch to put it over. Okuda featured in running back punts, each one being returned for about 30 yards.

Gresham made seven scores in the first quarter, six in the second and 13 in the fourth.

Greeting Cards. There is no nicer form of Christmas remembrance for distant relatives and friends than a neatly engraved personal greeting card.

Republican Meetings Will Be Friday Night

A republican rally, which promises to be of unusual interest and importance, is scheduled for Gresham on Friday evening of this week, when candidates for high offices in state and nation will be the speakers, and enunciate the principals for which they stand.

Among those who are to be on the program are, Hon. I. L. Patterson, gubernatorial candidate; Congressman M. E. Crumpacker, who is a candidate to succeed himself; Judge W. A. Ekwall, candidate for the circuit court, department No. 8, and Martin W. Hawkins, present district judge, who is running for the office of circuit judge, department No. 4.

The meeting will be held in the high school gymnasium, beginning at 8 o'clock, and music will be furnished for the occasion by the high school orchestra.

On the same evening the same speakers will take part in a rally at the Troutdale city hall, the men alternating between the two places.
