TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

GRESHAM OUTLOOK

TWICE A WEEK

VOL. 16, NO. 68 GRESHAM, MULTNOMAH COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1926 $1.50 Per Year

High School P. T.-A. Will Hold Reception

The newly-organized Parent-Teacher association of Gresham high school has arranged for a reception to be tendered the high school faculty on Tuesday evening, October 26, at the high school to which the public is invited. An interesting program has been arranged which will be followed by a social half hour when refreshments will be served by a committee consisting of Mrs. R. E. Cannon, Mrs. M. R. Beehler, Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mrs. Pearl Fortner and Mrs. W. C. Lawrence.

The high school orchestra will play and the glee club will sing a group of school songs. W. D. Kinder will render a violin solo, and a vocal solo will be given by Miss Alice Prindle, musical instructor at the high school. The Lota Stone whistling quartet, composed of the Misses Bernice Mulfen, Augusta Hahn, Doris Leithold and Gladys Cran accompanied by Zelma Merchant, will assist in the entertainment and a fancy dance will be executed by Doris Leithold.

Greetings will be brought from the P.-T. A., represented by its president, M. R. Beehler; the city of Gresham, through Mayor Charles Cleveland; from the patrons of the school through H. L. St. Clair; the Hi-Y club by W. J. Cooper; the Gresham grade school, C. M. Quicksall, and for Auld Lang Syne, Miss Eve M. Hutchison, a former member of the faculty. R. E. Cannon will make the response for the teachers.

CLEANING BUSINESS LOCATES IN GRESHAM

A cleaning and dyeing establishment, to be known as the Gresham Cleaners and Dyers, announces the opening of its shop with a temporary location upstairs in the Bank of Gresham building. Newell Edwards is in charge of the new enterprise and with his wife has lately arrived from Bend, Oregon. They are stopping for the present at the home of B. W. Emery. Mr. Edwards was in this line of business at Marshfield, Oregon, for three years and has been employed by some of the largest plants on the coast. He is planning to do all kinds of work pertaining to pressing and dry and steam cleaning, and in addition the equipment will include the dyeing of all kinds of fabrics. He also expects to do re-sizing of rugs as well as the cleaning of curtains. It is contemplated that the upstairs location will not be permanent, but quarters on a ground floor will be secured as soon as possible.

ROCKWOOD WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Lavina Isabelle Stockton died suddenly of heart trouble, on Thursday, October 21, at her home at Rockwood, at the age of 62 years. Funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, with interment following in Douglas cemetery.

Besides her widower, George Stockton, she is survived by four children, Mrs. Mamie Kuhlman, Rockwood; Mrs. Dora Hendrickson, Portland; Mrs. Della Taylor, Morton, Washington, and Albert Stockton, Tacoma, Washington. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Dan Robertson, Longview, Washington; Robert Robertson, Portland; Mrs. May McDonald, Minneapolis Minnesota; Mrs. Lillie Moore, Big Lake, Minnesota; Mrs. Grace Peterson, Troutdale; Mrs. Dora Peterson and Mrs. Harriet Moore, of Fairview.

COMING EVENTS.

Oct. 26, Reception to teachers at Gresham Union high school, auspices Patron-Teacher association.

You Want It.

A good daily paper and Twice-a-Week Outlook, at a saving—this month. See ad elsewhere.

REPUBLICAN RALLY TONIGHT.

At both Gresham and Troutdale tonight rallies will be held at which leading Republican candidates will speak. The list includes, I. L. Patterson, for governor; M. E. Crumpacker, re-election for congress: W. A. Ekwall and Martin W. Hawkins for circuit judgships. Music will feature the program at Gresham. At Gresham in the union high gym, at Troutdale in the city hall, 8 o'clock.

FIRE DEPARTMENT TO TEST PUMPER

The Howard Cooper corporation of Portland will demonstrate one of its latest type 450-gallon pumpers in Gresham on Sunday, October 24, at 9 o'clock. The pumper to be demonstrated is one of the class that is being considered in connection with the recent petition which was circulated in reference to the purchase of a pumping machine to take place of the present equipment which has proved to be entirely inadequate for the size of Gresham.

The demonstration will consist of taking water from a hydrant by the ordinary method of attaching a hose and then changing to adding the pumper to the hydrant. Ability to get from the fire house to the scene of a conflagration is also on the program. It is estimated that two-thirds of the time that it now takes the present machine to get to a fire can be saved by adding this new equipment.

All citizens interested in fire protection are asked to be present at the fire house in order to give this machine the once over. Before going ahead with the plans of purchasing a machine, several others of like caliber will be demonstrated in order to give the people an opportunity to investigate whether Gresham will proceed with a program of adequate fire protection or leave matters as they now stand.

LAST RITES HELD FOR MRS. ANDREW ANDRESEN

Funeral services were held from the Free Methodist church Tuesday afternoon for the late Mrs. Louise Andresen, who died at her home near Sandy on Sunday at the age of 59 years. The Rev. L. A. Skuzie preached the sermon and the Revs. W. T. Klotzbach, of Portland, and S. F. Pitts, of Gresham, friends of long standing, were seated on the rostrum. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers, the offerings of love from friends and relatives.

The deceased is survived by her widower, Andrew Andresen, and five children, Willie, Lief, Harry, Olivia and Louis and other relatives. The interment was made in Sandy cemetery, a short distance from the family home. At the conclusion of the services a picture was taken of the flower-mounted grave. The pallbearers were Thurston, Harry and Sig Erickson, Alfred Sandblast, Elmer Schutte and George Gunderson, nephews of Mrs. Andresen.

Mrs. Andresen was a woman of exemplary life and character and lived in an element of kind words and thoughtful deeds in behalf of others.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends who gave us their sympathy and help during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, and also for the beautiful flowers.

Andrew Andresen and Family.

Gresham Undenominational

There will be preaching services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and again in the evening at the Undenominational temple by the pastor, the Rev. S. F. Pitts. Sunday school hour is at 10 a. m. and prayer meeting is held each Tuesday evening and young people's meeting on Friday evenings. The Rev. A. M. Anderson and wife, of Seattle, for some years missionaries in India, will be present Tuesday evening and will speak instead of the regular prayer meeting.

WOMAN'S TEMPERANCE UNION ENDS HELPFUL SESSION TODAY

Delegates and Visitors in 4-Day Session Study Moral Issues.

The Oregon Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention came to a close at 4 o'clock this afternoon when the assembled delegates and visiting friends rose to their feet and sang, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and the beautiful white ribbon benediction of the organization was repeated in unison. The past week has been one of the busiest, the most helpful and the most enjoyable that has come to the people of Gresham as a whole for years. Possibly never before has such an assemblage been seen here,—whole-souled activity and unflagging interest in a cause of the magnitude of the temperance question.

If the weather had been ordered ahead and a perfect brand solicited for the occasion, it could not have been more nearly ideal,—almost summer temperatures prevailing during the day with just enough crispness to the evenings to make them delightful and remaining at home not to be thought of.

Some pessimistically inclined said it couldn't be done, that is, the entertainment, but it was put over and there were more rooms than were needed and at different times those asking for delegates to entertain were turned away with the reply that there were none unprovided for.

To show that the kind-faced and gentle-mannered ladies who made up the delegation to the convention were appreciated would be to relate a little incident concerning a well-known family near Gresham. The head of the house is more or less of a shut-in and he requested that they be sent some delegates who could talk, those who were well informed and could contribute some interesting information to the conversation. The ladies visited the home and the aged gentleman was more than pleased with the guests and only wished their number might have been greater.

On the other hand, the ladies of the convention were loud in their praise of the hospitality and courtesies extended to them during the four days spent here. For many of them it was a real treat to visit the town that is often spoken of as "lying in the shadow of the great city." It is safe to say their recollections of Gresham will be but pleasant ones.

Pathos was not unmixed with the various incidents of the convention. A dear little woman who attended the banquet Wednesday evening came from a town up the valley. She exhibited her hands to a friend who sat next. Both hands were discolored with what appeared to be a dye. She explained that she had gathered walnuts and sold them to obtain funds with which to meet the expenses of the trip to the convention. She was so interested and was evidently enjoying herself so thoroughly that it was plain to see the self sacrifice had not been wasted.

One of the most interesting sessions of the gathering occurred on Wednesday afternoon when the counties of Benton, Columbia, Clackamas, Coos, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Hood River, Jefferson, Lane, Linn, Multnomah, Sherman, Wasco, Marion, Polk, Umatilla and Yamhill were represented by their presidents and a four-minute address given on the best things of the past year in the county. Here, too, some of the reports were almost pathetic. Of course, some of the ladies are the wives of prosperous business men and farmers and have means at their disposal to assist them in their work, but other reports indicated that the opposite of this prevailed when they told of long walks over muddy roads to reach their local meeting places or to get in touch with some who might assist financially or otherwise in the cause which they were representing.

The reports of the county presidents were full of enthusiasm and pep. Many of the speakers stressed the fine cooperation they enjoyed from the officers of the law and the hearty support given them by citizens of their locality. The time could be easily recalled by many present when the cause of temperance was a most unpopular one. Instead of the loyal aid now bestowed on the White Ribboners, they were dubbed "eccentric," and cranks and in some instances their life and liberty had been in jeopardy.

The following are the names of the delegates as they appear on the convention register. The names of Mrs. Mary Mallett, Portland, state president; and Mrs. Lulu Horning, Gresham, Multnomah county president, and possibly other county and state officers, were not on the register;

Benefit Banquet in Aid of Children's Farm Home Pleasant Feature.

Convention Banquet Success.

One of the fine events of the state W. C. T. U. convention which came to a close this afternoon was the 300-plate banquet which was held at the Masonic hall on Wednesday evening. In addition to the splendid menu which had been prepared by a painstaking committee of ladies, there were delightful surprises during the evening which were not on the program. One of these was the presence of the governor of the state, the Hon. Walter Pierce, who also slipped into the audience at the church earlier in the day for a few minutes.

The long tables were beautifully decorated, lines of wisteria and marigold running through the center and at each place was a rosebud, the gift of the Mountain View Floral company. State President Mrs. Mary Mallett was toastmaster for the occasion and introduced the various officers of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, "the pet of the Oregon W. C. T. U." Judge Walter H. Evans, president of the farm home board of directors, spoke at length on the accomplishments and needs of the home and others present also briefly showed their interest in the project by relating incidents pertaining to the work.

Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, who has been an untiring worker for the home from its beginning, was able to be present, although her health has been impaired of late. Moving slides were shown of the cottages and school of the farm near Corvallis which proved of much interest. There are 245 acres comprised in the farm itself and six cottages which represent a total value of $219,000. The farm products for the past year were valued at approximately $6000.

A pleasant surprise not on the program was a solo by Dorothy Mallett, daughter of Dr. George Mallett, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. A. K. Siebrandt, of Oregon City.

Mrs. Mallett spoke of the banquet given in Los Angeles during the recent national convention of the W. C. T. U. at which 800 were present. She said the banquet of Wednesday evening compared wonderfully well with the one in California.

Mrs. Mallett Gets Re-election.

Mrs. Mary L. Mallett was re-elected state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union this afternoon at a prolonged session of the convention. This will be the beginning of the seventh year of Mrs. Mallett's service as state president of this organization.

CONVENTION NOTES.

The beautiful flag decorations of the church auditorium received unstinted praise from delegates and visitors. The magnificent flag back of the platform is the property of Mayor and Mrs. Chas. Cleveland of Gresham and was brought from Europe by their daughter, Miss Maude, who was among the first Red Cross workers to go from this country to the war zone and who remained many months after the close of the war, giving five years' service in France, Belgium and Holland. The flag had been in use by the army at the front.

The cluster of flags over the east window were those of Sweden, Canada, Peru, Brazil, Norway, Germany, Belgium, Italy, and the red and blue British ensigns. The tricolor of France stood near the platform. Some of these emblems were loaned by consuls stationed in Portland and some by F. F. Ellis, manager of the American Decorating company of Portland.

It was expected that resolutions would be acted upon this afternoon pledging renewed support to, and earnest effort for the enforcement of the 18th amendment, the endorsement of the Anti-narcotic Education association, the approval of education looking toward world peace, and a recommendation for federal control of motion picture films. Resolutions were to be presented voicing the appreciation of the convention for the work of the local W. C. T. U. and its committees and for the courtesies extended by Gresham business men and citizens.

A large number of delegates were given the pleasure of a trip to Multnomah Falls and return by Gresham business men on Thursday afternoon. Twenty-three cars were in the cavalade, and the services of a smiling motorcycle traffic officer, detailed by the sheriff's office, assured a minimum of danger on the trip. A delightful time was reported.

"It's in the constitution and it's there to stay" are the catchy words which imbedded themselves in the memory Thursday evening during the march of the membership drive of the ladies around the audience room at the church.

Law enforcement, the reading of the Bible in the public schools, scientific instruction along narcotic lines,—a few of the fine points stressed during the week.

There are more than 4,000 members of the W. C. T. U. in the state of Oregon. Over 700 were gained during the past year.

The address of Miss Maud Aldrich on "Determining the Future" given on Thursday evening, was pronounced a masterpiece.

Honor the noble band of crusaders,—Mrs. Monroe, of Portland, 28 years a member of Central union. She is more than 80 years old. Mrs. Ross of Sunnyside union is another. Mrs. Reynolds, president of the Arcade union, walked over the hills recently to raise money for the children's home. Mrs. M. E. Perkins, of Mt. Scott union, 73 years young, walks a mile to attend the Loyal Temperance Legion. Mrs. Blaine, of Albany, is another well along in years, and has belonged to the union since 1871.

POMONA MEET POSTPONED.

Word has been given the Outlook that the meeting of Pomona Grange which was announced for October 27 at Gresham has been abandoned and the Multnomah County Pomona will meet with Gresham Grange on Wednesday, November 17, in all-day session.

This change is announced by J. G. Kelly, master of Pomona.

It had been expected that various candidates and measures would be presented for the consideration of grangers and others at the proposed meeting and that was the reason for the plan to hold the Pomona meeting before election.

MORSE IS FAVORITE FOR COMMISSIONER

It is expected that Clay S. Morse, republican candidate for county commissioner, will be present at the republican rally tonight at the high school gymnasium.

Mr. Morse is a prominent business man of Portland, is a young, active man of affairs, and is being backed strictly on his merits without any moneyed or other interest or clique backing him. Of course he has his friends and business associates, and they are legion. This will give him strong support in Portland where the vast majority of votes are cast. The republican vote will be almost solidly for Clay S. Morse for commissioner.

Mr. Morse is very well acquainted in eastern Multnomah, is familiar with the needs of this section, is a friend of the Multnomah county fair, and these facts will gain for him a large vote in this end of the county.

Baptist Church Services.

With the strong conviction that every boy and girl, in fact every individual in Gresham and vicinity, needs spiritual as well as mental and physical culture, the Baptist church invites all those not in regular attendance at other churches to enroll as members of the Bible school and to attend the services of the church. The Bible school begins at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages and the morning church service at 11 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. E. G. Judd will preach and his topic will be "Left-Handed Men."

Miss Elsa Sharp will lead the B. Y. P. U. which will commence at 6:30 p. m. and the topic will be "Our B. Y. P. U." At the time of the regular evening service, which begins at 7:30, Mrs. W. E. Rambo who has spent several years in and about Palestine, will give an illustrated lecture with moving pictures showing present conditions in the Near East. Her topic will be "Experiences in Bible Lands." There will be special music by the best of home talent in both morning and evening services and all are invited.

Zion Evangelical Services.

Sunday school will convene Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Zion Evangelical church. A spirited contest is on between the "Reds" and the "Blues" in bringing new pupils to Sunday school. This contest will end on the last Sunday in October and the losers will treat the winners to a Hallowe'en party. Additional new pupils are expected the last two Sundays of the contest. Those not attending Sunday school elsewhere, are welcome at the Evangelical school.

The sermon topic for the preaching service at 11 o'clock is "Followers of the Gleam," a message which will be helpful to all. The attendance is increasing gradually and all are invited to attend.

All members and friends of the junior league are urged to attend the business and social meeting which will be held tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Mullenhoff.

Boys and Girls Work for Livestock Show

Now that the state fair has come to a close, the boys and girls of the county clubs are turning their attention to the exhibits to be placed at the Pacific International Livestock exposition which will be held in Portland from October 30 to November 6. O. M. Plummer, manager of the big show, is doing a great deal for club work, and the county agents are cooperating to the fullest extent possible. Approximately 52 head of livestock will be entered by the Multnomah county clubs and this is to be the very best from that selected at the county fair.

The demonstration and contest work is becoming larger each year at the Pacific International and very fine prizes are to be awarded for the various contests which will compete for the northwest championship. There will be a table-setting demonstration showing each step of the proper process, a bread-making team, a potato grading team, a farm accounting demonstration team, a livestock judging team and two poultry judging teams. The seven states to compete in the contests are Oregon, Washington, California, Idaho, Utah, Montana and Nevada.

A lot of concentrated work is being given the various demonstration teams. Miss Helen Cowgill will be in the county two days this week working with them. County Club Agent Kinder had the livestock judging team at Salem for two days last week working on some of the finest stock in the state of Oregon.

There will be approximately 150 breeds in the poultry show, also eight or ten good potato exhibits from this county, all of which will be of better quality than last year.

HUDSON-ESSEX DEALER ANNOUNCES REDUCTION

A price reduction of $100 is announced by the Hudson Motor Car company on all closed models of Hudson and Essex cars. The new schedule, says M. C. Webster, Hudson-Essex dealer, brings these cars to the most favorable prices at which Hudson and Essex cars ever have been offered the public.

Mr. Webster is more than enthusiastic over the economy and attractiveness of the new cars he is demonstrating. The beauty and stability of the new steel Essex 6 is a great factor with buyers in this territory.

"The new coach", said Webster, "has a rich, lustrous finish, nickeled radiator, new upholstery, the body two inches lower, the rear quarters rounded and many other improvements in appearance, so that the Essex for 1927 is easily the best looking car in the Essex line at the price ever offered by the company.

"The new line of Hudson Super-Sixes in rich, warm colors and with new body lines and marked chassis improvements is proving extremely popular, too, it is reported. New Hudsons include the Coach, the Brougham and the Sedan. Added gasoline mileage without reduction of its famed performance-qualities is obtained by mechanical changes."

FAIRVIEW WOMAN DIES AFTER YEAR'S ILLNESS

Private funeral services were held this afternoon at the chapel of the Gresham Funeral parlors for the late Mrs. Julia Borgerson who died Wednesday afternoon, October 20, at the home of her brother, John Peterson of Fairview at the age of 64 years. Death was not altogether unexpected as Mrs. Borgerson had been ailing for nearly a year. The deceased is survived by eight brothers and a sister, Peter Peterson, of Troutdale; John, of Fairview; Severt, of Minnesota; Ellis, Louis, George, William, Frank and Miss Anna Peterson, residing in Illinois. She also leaves a stepdaughter, Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, of Los Angeles. Interment was made in Douglas cemetery.

DEPREDATIONS MADE ON WIHLON FARM HOME

The farm home of the late A. C. Wihlon, now the property of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wihlon, located on the Pipe Line road five miles east of Gresham, has been entered recently by unknown parties and considerable damage has been done. Windows have been broken, furniture and fixtures destroyed, light fixtures pulled off, and "no trespassing" signs removed.
