

POWELL VALLEY

"The Great Physician" will be the topic of the sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Mission church, of which the Rev. Don Shogren is the pastor. Services will be held in the English language Sunday evening at 7:30, the subject of the sermon to be, "The Prisoner." The young people will hold their meeting Tuesday evening at Damascus. The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday evening and on Thursday evening the regular prayer meeting of the church will be held.

The Deborah Ladies Aid will give a sale at the Mission church on Saturday evening, October 30, beginning at 7:30, to which all are invited. Articles of fancy work and other things will be sold and refreshments served.

Frank Gustafson has disposed of a 19 1/2-acre tract of land south of his farm to James Gordon who is planning to build and is already on the ground with the intention of preparing it for cultivation. The land is a part of the Battiefur tract and also of the old Palmblad place. K. J. Hagberg was instrumental in making the sale of the property.

School Notes.

The teachers of the Powell Valley school, the Misses Sue Hicks and Elsie Luoto, are in charge of an entertainment to be given at the Powell Valley schoolhouse on Friday evening, November 5, beginning at 8 o'clock. It is in the nature of a harvest social and an interesting program is being prepared consisting of music, a "snipping" party and a bake sale, concluding with the serving of refreshments. The proceeds of the social will be devoted to the benefit of the school. The tables used for serving are to be purchased later.

The two recent football games played with the Gresham high school freshmen and grammar grades proved victories for the Gresham boys. The Powell Valley team deserves credit, however, for spunk, initiative and fight. Powell Valley is to have two basketball teams, one of girls and one of boys. Miss Hicks is hoping to work up some enthusiasm along this line among the pupils.

Doris Palmblad was the winner of the spelling prize for October. This means perfect lessons for two months.

The pupils of Powell Valley school will be served with hot lunches, beginning Monday, November 1. Tables are being built by Mr. Andrews to seat the pupils. Donations of fruit and vegetables are asked by the Parent-Teacher association for use in the lunches.

The money raised from the two meetings of the Parent-Teacher association from the sale of popcorn has reached the $7.50 mark and is to be used to fit the school with an outside basketball court.

BORING

The Rev. E. W. Withnell, pastor of the Methodist church, will have for his subject Sunday morning, "God's Harvest Fields." The morning service will be at 10 o'clock followed by Sunday school at 11 o'clock under the supervision of Lester Boring. At 7:30 there will be young peoples' Bible study class, under the supervision of Rev. Mr. Withnell, all young people invited to attend. The regular state course of study will be taken up and all high school students who complete the course will receive one credit. The Boy Scouts will meet Monday evening at 7:30 and the orchestra practice will be on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

The entertainment and sale which was given on Friday evening by the Boring community club was well attended. The program was furnished by the pupils of the school, after which G. F. Peterson auctioned off the articles which had been donated by the patrons of the district. At the close of the sale pumpkin pie, cider and coffee were served. The proceeds of the sale will go toward fixing a floor in the playshed.

L. H. Mallicoat, O. M. Rich, F. O. Lake and Sam Gregson went on a hunting trip to eastern Oregon on Friday evening, returning Sunday. They brought back five birds after a drive of approximately 400 miles. John Thorp has leased the Palmer palace and has taken possession. S. E. Lyon is among those who are on the sick list.

Mr. Smith, who recently bought some property from Mr. Frycklund, is having a well drilled.

A new arrival at the home of Lewie Johnston is a baby boy.

Mrs. John Meyer has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Claud Danielson of Clatskanie.

Mrs. Mary Potter has gone to Portland to spend the winter.

Sam Gregson and Roscoe Knox are busy with their buzz saw cutting wood.

John Karland is doing some plowing for Mrs. E. J. Gregson.

The Boring Rebekah lodge will hold its annual bazaar Saturday evening, November 6, at the L. O. O. F. hall. A program is being prepared and lunch will be served.

CORBETT

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Lasley sold their farm in the Hurlburt district to Mr. Watts who came here in early summer from Arkansas. Mr. and Mrs. Lasley have resided on this farm for about 30 years and have improved it extensively. They have a very modern bungalow and a conveniently planned barn, and the land has, through Mr. Lasley's skillful management, been brought to a high state of cultivation. They are thrifty, painstaking people and most excellent neighbors, just the kind the neighbors regret exceedingly to see move from the community. They expect to move to Taft, Oregon, after November 2.

Mrs. L. Benfield was called to Portland by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. White.

Services at the Corbett Christian church for Sunday, October 31, will be Sunday school at 10:30, preaching at 11 by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Harriman of Portland, also preaching services in the evening at 8 o'clock.

The many friends of Richard Morgan regret to hear of his protracted illness.

Earl Pullium recently purchased the house and lots at Corbett station formerly owned by Clarence Deverall.

Mrs. Cowing has begun the erection of two buildings to be used in connection with her business at Wayfarer Inn.

Mrs. M. E. Reed came from Portland Sunday to spend a week at her bungalow at Corbett station.

HALEY

Evangelistic services conducted by the Rev. A. Wall, of Seattle, will be held in the Haley Baptist church every evening except Saturday at 7:30. The morning worship Sunday at 11 o'clock will be in Swedish and the service in the evening at 7:30 in English, the Rev. Mr. Wall speaking at both services. Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock. The Juniors, of which Miss Evelyn Ledine is the president, will meet at 7 o'clock. There will be special singing and the public is cordially invited to attend. The pastor of the church, the Rev. John S. Nordell, describes Mr. Wall as a fine speaker, true to the word of God and filled with the spirit of love.

GRESHAM STUDENT AIDS FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN

Stafford Dowsett, Gresham student at Oregon Agriculture College, is one of the solicitors in the Y. M. Y. W. C. A. financial campaign from October 18 to 22.

The work of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. on the campus includes housing and employment problems, as well as original Christian life on the campus. Open forums are conducted under leadership of such men as Dr. J. Stitt Wilson, Dr. Norman F. Colman and Dr. Harold Leonard Bowman, and actual Bible study is promoted in houses, halls and independent groups. Twenty groups were conducted last year. The financial drives are conducted annually among the students, faculty, towns-people and friends through the state.

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET

Stand by Your Party

Frederick Steiwer

FOR U. S. SENATOR

Would you scrap Oregon's direct primary law? Would you surrender the important committee chairmanships now held by Senators McNary, Smoot, Borah, Johnson, Jones, Warren and Oddie, all Western men? Would you repudiate the policies of President Coolidge?

The fight for the U. S. Senatorship is between the democratic nominee and Frederick Steiwer, republican. No Independent has ever been elected to the U. S. Senate.

If you believe in the direct primary—if you want the West to retain its power in national affairs by reason of republican control of the senate—if you believe in the policies of Calvin Coolidge—

Vote, 15 X Steiwer, Frederick

I. L. Patterson

FOR GOVERNOR

The republican party of Oregon is fortunate in having Mr. Patterson as its candidate for Governor. Successful business man and farmer he is equipped to meet and solve the problems that will confront him as Governor. Economy, he has practiced in private life; economy he will practice as Oregon's chief executive.

The only real pre-election promise Mr. Patterson is making is that he will not follow established precedent and spend the people's time and money traveling about the state making speeches.

If you want a Governor who will be on the job attending to business—
