

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers and son, Arnold, spent Sunday at Monmouth with their daughter, Miss Avis Rogers who is a student at the Oregon state normal. Miss Rogers is enjoying her work at the normal very much.

A trio of new baby girls has recently made their appearance at the Timmerman nursing home on Fifth street, two of them arriving the same day. A nine-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, of Boring, and an eight-pound girl arrived to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Thompson, of Portland on October 15. On October 22 a six-pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Husband, of Gresham. The three babies with their mothers are doing well.

The Rev. Miss Nathalia Koeber, pastor of the Free Methodist church near Linnton, and her mother, called on the Rev. L. A. Skuzie and family on Wednesday.

Frank Jones was successful in landing the contract for installing a new septic tank at the Orient school. The work is practically completed and the tank will be connected up with the pipes the coming Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland have returned after spending a few days at their cottage at Seaside. They report the beach delightful at this time of the year with warm and balmy weather.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen gave a dinner party Saturday evening at their home in honor of the first wedding anniversary of their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Hill of Longview, Washington. Their granddaughter, Mrs. Walter Decker and her husband from Portland were also present. The occasion was the birthday of Mr. Hill as well.

The Rev. S. F. Pitts accompanied the Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson to Pendleton on Wednesday where Mrs. Anderson has a brother who is ill. They are expected back today and will conduct the services at the temple this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, of Newport, returned to their home Friday after spending several days with Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. L. Radford.

Charley Wheeler and Fred Hoss recently enjoyed a hunting trip 25 miles southeast of Bend. They each secured a deer but gave them to some needy families residing in the vicinity.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson has purchased a Whippet from the Hessel Implement company which proved itself very satisfactory on a recent trip over the highway to Government Camp. Alfred Stafford, a Cedar resident, has also purchased a car through the Hessel agency, an Overland six.

About a dozen boys are signed up for the work in the beginners' class of the Gresham band which is to be formed between now and the middle of December. Dr. H. C. Johnson, instructor and leader of the band, hopes to secure a class of at least 20 before commencing the preliminary instruction. The Gresham band has done excellent work during the past summer and new members are looking forward to the time when they can appear in the regular concerts.

Dr. J. W. Mahood and daughter, Miss Etta Mahood, of Pacific Palisades, California, were the guests of Mrs. Marion Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Johnson Saturday. They enjoyed a highway trip during the afternoon as far as Government Camp.

Mrs. Mary Faught is moving back to Gresham from Vancouver, Washington, where she has spent the past six months at the home of her son.

The many friends of E. H. Kelly are glad to see him back on the job after an absence of four weeks, much of which time he has spent in bed as the result of a fall which he suffered October 1 through an opening in a sidewalk. He began his official duties Thursday and is gaining in strength daily. Mr. Kelly is a candidate for re-election for the office of marshal.

The officers of the Gresham W. C. T. U. met Thursday afternoon at the library and discussed plans for the coming year. They expect to soon have programs outlining the year's work. Also at the meeting yesterday the officers expressed their deep appreciation to those who so kindly extended their hospitality to visiting guests, thereby contributing to the success of the convention.

Members of a Wallula Heights family reported yesterday that on Wednesday evening they cooked their dinner over the fireplace and ate it by the light of a lantern. This is explained by the failure of the electric current to function at about the dinner hour. A blown-out fuse is blamed for the inconvenience.

The Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet in the parlors of the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. Geo. F. Honey will be the leader and Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. A. McManus and Miss Mina Gilbert will serve.

F. L. Thurber, of Hoquiam, Washington, was in Gresham today looking over the country with a view to locating. He was looking up some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Nelson who live near Anderson station. They were former residents of Hoquiam.

C. A. Rogers brought into the Outlook office this morning a fine cluster of large ripe strawberries picked from the ranch of Dick Williams east of Gresham. Mr. Rogers reports that the vines are covered with strawberries in all stages of development, from blossoms to the ripened fruit, as thick as in June.

WHAT IT WOULD MEAN.

When the Housewives' Council tells voters that "the state" is liable for the bonds required to start their hydro-electric and irrigation spree, it means "you," the taxpayer, who is liable. You are to be exploited, your property and your credit. Responsibility for meeting the indebtedness lodges directly upon the general fund. You are the creator and the source of that fund.

"The state" means two different things under this amendment. In the matter of liabilities, it means you. When it comes to spending money and incurring debt, "the state" would be the super-powerful board of control, into whose hands would go the entire proceeds of bonds sold and mortgages issued, without restraint, responsibility or accountability to any legislative or executive branch of state government.

For purposes of operation, management, employment and construction, the self-starters of this constitutional amendment have taken care to guard against any possible check on their movements. They have provided themselves with all materials for a huge political machine, with an army of appointees, heads of departments, clerks, mechanics and laborers. They contemplate a monopoly more complete than any private concern ever could organize, because the board's monopoly would be above the control or supervision to which private industry, large or small, is always subject. The difference is between the state's present right to control and supervise as it deems necessary, and an uncurbed political dictation in the name of the state, by this self-selected board.

Free Methodist Services.
Sunday is temperance day at the Free Methodist Sunday school, and the lesson will be illustrated by a cartoon, "Who wants light wines and beer?" The eighth sermon in the series of fundamentals of the Bible at 11 o'clock will be based on the theme, "The Gift of the Holy Spirit." These sermons are very instructive and interesting.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the parsonage and the young people's society will meet on Friday evening, November 5, at 7:30.

Gresham Undenominational Services.

The Rev. A. M. Anderson and wife, who had charge of the services Tuesday evening, will also be present tonight, the young people voting to give them the evening for a further account of their experiences in South Africa which was so much enjoyed by all who heard them last Tuesday. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Sunday school will begin at 10 o'clock and there will be preaching at 2 in the afternoon by the pastor, the Rev. S. F. Pitts, and preaching again in the evening at 7:30. Prayer service is held each Tuesday evening and young people's service the following Friday evening.

Man may learn to fly like a bird but he'll never be able to sit comfortably on a barbed wire fence, says Jed Hopple.

WHIPPET USED IN 1800 MILE SAFETY DRIVE

Will Hessel, of the Hessel Implement company, local Overland and Willys-Knight dealers, proudly calls attention to an 1800 mile safety run recently made in a Whippet car. The run is the more noteworthy because it was not a speed breaking, law breaking record but just a run as any careful driver might make while taking his family on a safe and sane pleasure trip. Yet it demonstrated the dependability and gas-saving qualities of the newest Overland which has jumped to a high pinnacle of popularity in a few months.

The run was made in October to the Mexican border, a distance of about 1800 miles over the Pacific highway and all speed laws in country and cities were observed. The car for the drive was a stock car furnished by the Willys-Overland company and the run was observed and checked by road officials all the way. The full report of the trip, with all details was given in the Oregon Journal by the automobile editor who accompanied the driver all the way.

The motorogue of the trip is given in an ad in this issue by the Hessel Implement company who request the readers to observe the details as there given.

Otherwise Right.
You're all beaten up again. Have another row with your wife?

LAW ENFORCEMENT TO SHOW IN GRESHAM

The law enforcement film, "Lest We Forget", said to be one of the most powerful dramas ever presented through motion pictures, will be shown Sunday evening, October 31, at 7:30, in the Gresham grade school auditorium. The film will be run under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon. Those who have seen it pronounce it a wonderfully realistic and dramatic portrayal of the tragedies of the old saloon days. The president of the league, E. A. Baker, is expected to be present and deliver an address on the subject of "Prohibition" in connection with the pictures. No admission will be charged.
