Numbers will be given by the orchestra, a piano solo by Miss Florence Honey, a solo by William Elliott, a whistling solo by Miss Augusta Hahn and a clarinet solo by Guy Robertson, accompanied by his sister, Miss Marian Robertson. A reading will be given by Miss Euphemia Fairweather, a dialog by the Greenwood girls and a play entitled, "Four A. M." by Ruth Landersback, Fred Marshall and Herman Walters. The admission charges will also include refreshments.

ROCKWOOD

The Rockwood Parent-Teacher association held its monthly meeting October 15. Beginning with next month the children will be served with hot lunches at a nominal charge. The P.-T. A. wishes to have the pictures of Washington and Lincoln placed in each classroom. The association entertained the fathers with an enjoyable Hallowe'en party Friday evening.

FAIRVIEW

Lillian Heslin of Fairview is a member of the O. A. C. club, an association formed to conduct the advertising work of various organizations on the campus. The present work of the club is being devoted to advertising for the local chapter of National Collegiate Players. Two groups have been appointed who will compete in planning advance notices and placards and working out original ideas for a complete campaign for the local presentation of "Mr. Pim Passes By," as well as for the plays given on the road trips later. Miss Heslin is a junior in the school of commerce. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, social sorority.

BORING

The articles which will be sold at the Rebekah bazaar on November 6 are on display in the window of William A. Morand's drug store. The program, bazaar and lunch will all be given in the evening.

SANDY

The Rev. A. B. Calder, of Boring, will preach each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Sandy Methodist church and will also assist in the preaching service.

SANDY BLUFF

Mrs. G. S. Wilkenson entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wilkenson and baby.

A. J. Ault narrowly escaped death Sunday morning while putting the harness on one of the horses. The horse became frightened and crushed Mr. Ault against the wall, rendering him unconscious and only for the presence of his wife at the time would have been killed by the animal, but she turned the horse loose getting him out of the stall before he tramped Mr. Ault. While it is not thought he is seriously injured he was cut under the chin and one ear so badly that stitches were taken.

Buckly Corly, who was operated on for appendicitis a week ago is getting along nicely and expects to be able to come home soon.

A. C. Browning came down from the mill Saturday and went on to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Haight, Sajena Haight and their mother, Mrs. Simmons visited Sunday with their sister and daughter, Mrs. H. H. Watkins. Mrs. Simmons remained out for a few days.

LUSTED RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Nellie L. Jackson, wife of Allen Jackson of the Lusted neighborhood, passed away October 30 at the home of Mrs. Annie E. Miles from a lingering illness of several weeks. Funeral services were held at the Undenominational temple in Gresham Monday afternoon by the Rev. S. F. Pitts, interment following in Douglas cemetery.

Mrs. Jackson was born in New York June 2, 1855, and had lived in the neighborhood of Lusted for the past 12 years. She was well liked and had been a patient sufferer during her last illness. Her family has sustained the loss of a good wife and a faithful mother. The deceased is survived by her widower, Allen Jackson, two sons, Nelson W. Jackson, of Gresham and Allen R. Jackson, of Jackson, Michigan, a brother, George Pattison, of Los Angeles and a sister, Mrs. Clara Davis, in Michigan. The sympathy of friends and neighbors was expressed at the funeral services by an abundance of beautiful flowers. Walter Pattison and wife and daughter, of Newberg, cousins of the deceased, were present at the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy, also the nurse who so tenderly cared for our dear wife and mother, and for the beautiful flowers that covered her last resting place. Allen Jackson, Nelson W. Jackson.

CORBETT

A few of the ladies of the Corbett church met at the church Friday afternoon and formed a society, which they decided to name the "Dorcas" society of the Christian church. Mrs. Fred C.
