

GRESHAM LOCALS

A small sum of money was found by two small boys in the yard of Roy E. Cannon on Monday. If the person who lost it can identify same and reward the boys for their honesty it will be gladly turned over, says Mr. Cannon.

When the bids for the new school bus for the Lynch school district were opened on Saturday it was found that the W. W. Metzger automobile agency of Gresham had secured the contract for the delivery of the new machine, although theirs was not the lowest bid in the competition. The car which has been selected by the Lynch school board is a Chevrolet school bus, Wayne body, with a capacity for 45 students. Other bids were submitted for machines of other makes, but the chairman of the school board considered the members had used good judgment in the type of machine selected. The Chevrolet was the unanimous decision of the board.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hopper and son, Howard, came from Lacey, Washington, Saturday. Mr. Hopper is returning to his work there in connection with a children's home, but Mrs. Hopper and Howard will remain at their ranch home on the Section Line road a mile east of Gresham. The latter, who has been attending high school at Olympia, re-entered Gresham Union high Monday morning and will complete his senior year in that school.

Mrs. Wendall Cleveland, of Heppner, is a guest for a few days at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland.

Miss Joyce Kidder was home from Willamette University over the week-end.

J. F. Barnes is planning to leave tomorrow for a week or ten days' recreational trip to Taft, Oregon.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Smalley, of Portland, visited Gresham friends over the week-end. They spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cathey and took Sunday dinner at the home of J. J. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, of Evansville, Indiana, who are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. Frank Peak and family, with Dr. and Mrs. Peak left Friday for a trip over Oregon highways. They first went to Bend, then from there over the McKenzie pass to Eugene where they spent a couple of days with Dr. and Mrs. V. L. Brooks.

Several Gresham people have registered for the University of Oregon's extension course which is being given throughout the school year in Portland. Miss Martha Hagberg has enrolled for the credits in banking course; Lyle Mason for public speaking; Mrs. E. B. Kirkwood, literature and English; Miss Helen Ankeorn, bacteriology at the medical school and nutrition which she takes at Lincoln high school; and Miss Marjorie Machen, mathematics and history. Four of the grade school teachers are also pursuing further lines of education, three of them with the extension course, Miss Alice Leekley, survey of English literature and sculpture; Miss Ruth Bowron and Mrs. Mary Krueger, physical education. Miss Rachel Chezem is taking up a commercial course at a business college.

Mrs. Marlon Johnson, who has been ill for the past week or longer, is now slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bushong visited over Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes at Albany. They were accompanied by their son James.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schoepfer, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinski were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs.

M. D. Kern is leaving for Vancouver, Washington, where he plans to make his future home with his son, W. R. Kern and family. Mr. Kern leaves many warm friends in Gresham where he and his wife resided for around fifteen years. He deferred his moving plans until after election day as he not only wished to vote but was employed as second judge on the election board. Mr. Kern's Vancouver address will be 1114 Ingles street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibbs entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davidson and son at Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Schlatterer, former residents of Troutdale, have rented the Vandermast house on the Section Line road.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Metzger and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Everts, the latter a sister of Mrs. Metzger, spent the week-end at seaside resorts. They drove Friday to Seaside and returned home through Tillamook and Garibaldi. They report beautiful weather prevailing down on the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilkenson moved in yesterday from the Little Sandy ranger station where Mr. Wilkenson has been employed during the past season. They are putting up a tent on their lot in Regner addition where they expect to reside temporarily.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Barnes on Friday, October 29, a daughter weighing eight pounds. Mother and baby are doing well at the family residence on East Powell Valley road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker entertained on Friday evening in their new home on Wallula Heights with a Halloween party. The Halloween spirit was carried out in the games and the luncheon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilberson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buziek, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Raker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Camp, Leo Bailey, Henry Lundy, Arthur Matches, H. V. Lake, Ernest Zenger, the Misses Marguerite and Leona Bailey, Marjorie Kendall Ardith Garner and Rosella Englehart, Miss Englehart, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker, recently arrived from Minneapolis, Minnesota, and is employed as private secretary at the First State bank.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shultz entertained the Areme club at their home Friday evening and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by a good sized gathering. The proceeds from the party will be devoted to the building fund of the future Masonic temple in Gresham.

The Rev. A. B. Calder, a retired Methodist clergyman who resides near Boring, was a caller at the Outlook office Saturday. He and his wife recently came to this locality from Shedd, Oregon, where he had served as pastor for two years. About 16 years ago Mr. Calder served the pastorate of Pleasant Home, Boring and Hiff. He now expects to preach at Sandy Methodist church each Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. W. S. Everett and Mrs. C. C. Yager called on Mrs. Pearl Mack Monday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. The time was spent pleasantly, followed by refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Davies and daughter Virginia of Grey Eagle, Minn., arrived yesterday to take up their residence in Gresham. They will live on Third street in Zenith addition. Mrs. Davies is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair and Mr. Davies, who is a printer, will be employed at the Outlook office.

Mrs. Roy Peterson was the hostess Wednesday afternoon, October 27, for a delightful miscellaneous shower given in honor of her sister-in-law, Miss Alice Peterson whose engagement to Albert Zenger was announced some time since. The affair was held at the spacious residence of Mrs. W. L. Balmer in Arboleda, which was beautifully decorated in Halloween colors. The time was spent in fortune telling and other games, which was followed by delicious refreshments.

In a witch's caldron were secreted gifts for the bride to be. Those present beside the hostess were Mrs. Hazel Beers, Mrs. Galen Fancher, Mrs. Joe Marriage, Mrs. Orville Davidson, Mrs. Glen Davidson, Mrs. Adolph Zenger, Mrs. May Bozeman, Miss Alice Peterson, Miss Esther Peterson and Miss Mildred Kummel.

The county agricultural agent, S. B. Hall, wishes those who desire to order pyratol, (stumping powder) to place them at once as orders for the second car are now being made up and must be in by Friday of this week.

Mrs. H. C. Larsen entertained the members of her Sunday school class, 15 little Japanese, at her home on Saturday evening. The spirit of Halloween prevailed in the games and lunch which was served and all had a merry time.

W. C. Burch returned from Roseburg Saturday where he had been visiting his three children and their families. While in southern Oregon he made an excursion into the Siskiyou mountains 32 miles from Grants Pass where he has mining interests. Mrs. Burch also returned from Roseburg a short time ago where she had visited their children.

Ed Fletcher and wife from Grand Forks, B. C., have rented and moved into the James Lawrence house on Metzger avenue.

Chicken Dinner and Bazaar

By the Evangelical Women's Union
MASONIC HALL, GRESHAM

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 10

Dinner served at 6 o'clock

Music. Pictures of Mt. Rainier and Switzerland at 8 p. m.
Adults 50c Children under 12, 35c

BIG SALE and Grand Opening of the Newberg Packing and Produce Co. Store No. 3 in the Bank of Gresham Building, Main Street, Gresham.

THURS., NOV. 4

$2000 Grocery Stock at Cost!

Some lines as low as 75 cents on the dollar. We are putting out no leaders, all must go at cost. Is all first class goods with a few packages a little soiled by moving them so many times while store was remodeled. We have installed a first class meat market where we will sell meat at Portland and Yamhill street prices and as good a meat as Oregon can grow. One trial will convince you. A full line of fruit, vegetables, feed, hardware and delicatessen goods will be installed in the store. Come early Thursday morning, November 4, and get the choice of this stock. Watch this ad in Friday's issue for prices.

NEWBERG PACKING & PRODUCE CO.

Store No. 3 Main St., Gresham T. R. Howitt, Mgr.

CLEARANCE SALE

Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6

Entire Stock of Felt Hats

$3.50 each

Miss Halsey

First State Bank Bldg., opposite telephone office, Gresham, Oregon

A new fabric

unusual in texture, unique in wear, absolutely guaranteed fast color

GENUINE

Tinker Bell

REG. PAT. OFF.

32" wide. Fine and woolly to the hand, being a cotton fabric finished by a newly-discovered process.

The finish is permanent and the colors in the large range of glorious patterns are absolutely guaranteed.

For the children's school and play frocks, for beautiful garments for women—this is an ideal fabric. Price per yard.

59c

W. R. HICKS CO.

GRESHAM Phone 2221 OREGON

When you come in for your new suit and overcoat this Fall, you can depend on us to render thorough satisfaction.

That's what we are in business for—to give every man a better clothing service, better fabrics, better style, better value.

2 Pants Suits

$25 $35 $45

Student's Suits $17.50 to $25

OVERCOATS

$15 to $40

Aylsworth & Martin

MEN'S WEAR SHOES GRESHAM

Crockery Clean-up Sale

New shipments of crockery are due to arrive at once and to make room and clean up all our old stock of dishes we have decided to sell them this week at the following prices:

Cups and Saucers English seconds in white 15c	PLATES 7-inch Dinner Plates in English seconds Each 10c	CUPS ONLY Plain White Heavy Japan Cups Coffee size Each 8c
--	--	---

42-Piece Sets

Beautiful Decorated Ware in new designs
Special, Set

$5.98

42-Piece Sets

Stafford Design Beautiful Decorated Ware
Special, Set

$7.98

Also in this sale many odds and ends of broken lines, odd pieces, slightly damaged goods at prices too low to mention.

Imported Teapots

Many Beautiful Patterns and Shapes.
Our regular $1.00 value this week at

79c each

ROASTERS

Sheet Iron. Large size and heavy.
A limited number

89c each

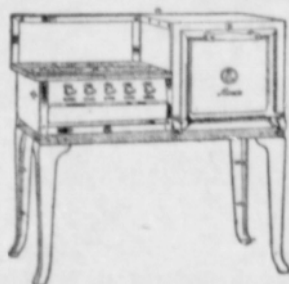

And in the Tool Department

POTATO FORKS, 6 tine $1.75	PRUNING SHEARS, 20-inch handle $2.25
POTATO FORK HANDLES, each 65c	WINCHESTER DOUBLE BIT AXES $3.00
MAYNARD SHOVELS, all styles $2.00	STABLE BROOMS, Large size $1.45
POTATO SCOOPS, D-handle wire scoop $2.75	BARN SHOVELS, Long handle 85c

A. W. METZGER & CO.

Quality and Service

Phone 1451
Feed 1281

WHY

we recommend Acorn Ranges to our customers

The scientific construction, the sturdy build and the beautiful finish of the Acorn line is the result of long years of successful manufacturing—you are buying a definite, tried and true product when you purchase an Acorn range.

Let us tell you and show you why you will be delighted with your purchase of an Acorn for your kitchen.

Acorn Sales & Service Co.
Phone 1253 Gresham