

Thanksgiving Services at Troutdale Sunday

A Thanksgiving service will be held at the Troutdale community church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. The pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, will preach on "Our National Blessings and Obligations." Sunday school will follow the morning service.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held Friday and splendid reports of the state Parent-Teacher association which was held at Salem, were given by Mrs. L. A. Harlow and Mrs. R. D. Hewitt, but on account of lack of time part of the reports are to be carried over to the next meeting. All who attended the meeting felt well paid. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. H. C. McGinnis and Mrs. Minnie Beiderman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGuire and baby of Kelso, Washington, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Spence last week.

Visitors at the A. D. Kendall home this week were Mrs. DeShea, Mrs. Dorne, Mrs. F. Palmer and Mrs. H. Rice all of Portland. Mrs. DeShea will be remembered by Troutdale people as Mrs. Barlow.

H. C. McGinnis and Jas. Spence left Wednesday morning by auto to visit relatives of Mr. McGinnis in Seattle and also to visit friends in Bellingham, Washington.

Thursday visitors at the L. A. Harlow home were W. B. Struble of Portland and Mrs. Harry Appleton of Seattle, Washington.

The dance given Saturday evening by the Troutdale Parent-Teacher association was well attended and all report an enjoyable time and it was also a financial success. The next dance will be given on Saturday evening, November 27. Good music will be furnished.

Mr. and Mrs. David Burns and children of Newberg spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Margaret Burns.

J. Spence has purchased a Halowat radio which he installed last week.

Mrs. Hattie Wilson has been on the sick list for the past week but is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Day of Aberdeen, Washington, spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. McGinnis.

Mrs. Minnie Beiderman left Tuesday for San Francisco where she will visit relatives.

POWELL VALLEY

Services at the Swedish Mission church next Sunday will be of special interest, as the Rev. J. Werthen from Sweden, a gifted speaker and also a musician of note, will preach. Services will be in Swedish. In the evening the sermon will be in English by the pastor, the Rev. Don Shogren, who will take for his subject "Satan's Banquet." On Saturday evening, November 20, the big offering program will be held in the church, beginning at 7:30. Addresses and music of very special interest will be given.

On Tuesday evening, November 23, the young people of the Powell Valley and Damascus Mission churches will unite in a service at the Powell Valley church. Choir rehearsal for the Mission church will be held on Wednesday evening.

A union Thanksgiving service in which the four Swedish churches of the vicinity, Saron Lutheran, Haley Baptist, Damascus and Powell Valley Mission will unite, will be held in the latter church on Thanksgiving at 10 a. m. Each church will contribute toward the music for the occasion. The Rev. John S. Nordell and the Rev. Enoch Sandeen will preach.

Services will be conducted at the Saron Lutheran church Sunday morning in the English language. The subject to be used by the pastor, the Rev. Enoch Sandeen, is "The Last Judgment." A solo, "Come Ye Blessed," will be rendered by Mrs. Sandeen. In the evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will give a Bible lecture on the subject, "A Good Ancestry."

Perennials for Sale.

Must sell a large number of my perennials and shrubs to make room for dahlias stock. They will go very cheap to those who will come for them. Mrs. Vera L. Tucker, phone Gresham 285x2.—Adv.

THE RIGHT WAY
Personal experiences in the details of interments, fortunately, are limited outside our profession. But as funeral directors we know that there is a right way, and in this way only do we render service. After our first interview the bereaved may dismiss from their minds every detail. From first to last we assume every responsibility.

ARBOLEDA

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Locke were hosts at a card party and supper on Saturday evening. The guests include Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Horn-ecker, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zenger, Mr. and Mrs. George Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Yerkins and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Skalsstad of Portland.

Mrs. J. C. Finnell entertained the Joker club recently at her home on Fern avenue. Honors went to Mrs. Peter Borgan and Mrs. B. H. Gable, and consolation to Mrs. H. C. Johnson.

The Lynch school district is proud of its shiny new school bus which was purchased recently and is taking the children to and from school. Ben H. Gable, who owns the Arboleda store, is the driver.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Y. Sater of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bourne and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borgan were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Halladay last Saturday evening. Cards were enjoyed during the evening.

A surprise party was given for Harry C. Bourne and Ben H. Gable Tuesday evening by Mrs. Bourne and Mrs. Gable at the Bourne residence, the occasion being both Mr. Bourne's and Mr. Gable's birthday. Both victims were kidnapped, taken for a ride and made to walk home, where they found a large group of friends awaiting them.

The Arboleda Improvement club held its regular meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerwin. The work on the new club house is well progressing and the club expects to occupy its new home before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ecklund and John Meyers of Portland were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Locke last Sunday.

The ladies of the Arboleda Improvement club will hold a bazaar and rummage sale sometime during the first part of December. Much time is being spent at present in making many useful and fancy articles for the bazaar. Further details will be announced later.

CAMP HILL

The next meeting of the Camp Hill Woman's club will be held on Tuesday, November 23, at Mrs. R. H. Confrey's, Laurel Acres. A 1 o'clock luncheon will be served after which 500 will be played. All members are asked to notify the hostess if unable to attend. A card party for the members and their families will be held at Mrs. Geo. Steel's on Powell Valley road Saturday, November 27.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Columbian High Has Various School Affairs

(By Rosetta Henkle.)

Myrtle Carter, a first year student in typing, made a record of 20 words a minute in a 15-minute speed test. This test was made with only three errors.

The Rooter's club has been holding student body yells. New yells have been practiced by the students.

Marjorie Bush and Pearl Chamberlain attended the Saturday matinee performance of "The Bohemian Girl" at the Medig theater.

Verna Jenny, who was last year a graduate from the Bridal Veil grammar school and who is now a freshman at Franklin high school, visited Columbian classes.

A surprise birthday party, to which all freshmen were invited, was given for Flossia Parsons, a freshman, at her home Monday evening.

The freshmen gave the annual return party Friday night. Many interesting games with prize awards were played. The boys were given an opportunity to show their artistry at dressmaking. After the games the guests went to the domestic science room. The tables were very attractively decorated in the class colors of blue and gold. Mr. Moody, the principal, acted as toastmaster and speeches were made by the class presidents and alumni president.

The P.-T. A. is giving a country fair at the high school on the evening of November 23. The high school classes and grade school rooms are preparing various attractions as candy booths, fish ponds and hunting fields.

Dolores Morgan, Horace Evans and Burton Bush were home from Oregon Agricultural college over the week-end.

Bert Parsons, a former student of the high school, is home on a month's furlough from the U. S. S. "Nitro" in San Diego harbor, San Diego, California.

Clothes left on the line until the dew falls are much nicer to iron than when dampened by hand.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The schools east of the Sandy will give a party at the Columbian high auditorium on Tuesday evening, November 23. All patrons and friends of the schools are invited to attend.

Miss Gertrude Ederle and her party of swimmers almost as famous as she, dined at Crown Point chalet on Thursday as an incident to the trip to Multnomah falls.

SPRINGDALE

Sunday, November 6 Mrs. Connie Smith and son Esson, Mrs. Olla Woodard, Mrs. G. Babbitt and son Halbert visited Mrs. Carrie Gill at Hermiston, Oregon, and returned the same day.

Floyd Coreyell, nephew of Mrs. Nettie Northway, visited her for a few days. He returned to his work as a pianist at Eugene Oregon.

The members of Pacific Woodman lodge of Springdale camp No. 11 are beginning on their lodge hall to be built here in Springdale on the ground purchased from the Henry Christenson estate. About 20 men turned out to help clear up the ground Sunday, also three Portland lodge members. The ladies of the Woodmen circle served a nice dinner for the men on the grounds.

The Springdale Needle club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Zilm Wednesday.

The school board has had a cement basement put in the schoolhouse and now will install a large stove, tables and benches for the convenience of the pupils.

Bert Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parsons, is home on a month's furlough from the U. S. S. "Nitro" in San Diego harbor. He has visited many of the important cities of the United States since his enlistment in the navy a year and a half ago. His boat was in the big hurricane which lately lashed the shores of Cuba, about 40 miles off coast. He states that they rolled some, but not to any great extent. One of their engines was seriously damaged between Panama and San Diego, although their trip through the canal was a pleasant one.

Rubbing the hot cake griddle with a freshly cut potato eliminates the necessity for greasing the pan.

FAIRVIEW

A Thanksgiving service will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church with a sermon by the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted, on the subject, "Our National Blessings and Obligations." Sunday school will begin promptly at 10 o'clock.

A potato peeler saves both time and material in paring carrots and parsnips, as well as potatoes.
