

TROUTDALE

Miss Marguerite Bailey and Mrs. J. T. McGinnis gave a miscellaneous shower Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. McGinnis in honor of Miss Marjorie Kendall. A large group of friends and relatives attended and many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the bride-to-be. The house was decorated in pink and white. A dainty lunch was served to about 60.

The Sunday school will give a Christmas program at the Troutdale community church Sunday, December 26, at 10:30.

The Troutdale school will give a program and have a Christmas tree in the school auditorium Thursday evening, December 23.

The Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting December 19. W. C. Lawrence gave a splendid talk on free text books. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Bert Edmunson and Mrs. M. B. McGinnis.

The Troutdale Parent-Teacher association will give a masquerade dance on New Year's eve, December 31 at the city hall.

Miss Nathalie Selling of Portland spent the week end visiting friends in Troutdale.

The many friends of Mrs. J. R. Knarr will be pleased to know that she is rapidly recovering from her recent operation.

FAIRVIEW

The community was saddened to hear of the death of Emil Loser who passed away at Aberdeen, Washington, Dec. 10, due to an operation for appendicitis. Emil was born at Ellis, Kansas, September 2, 1903, and came to Fairview with his parents when a small boy. He graduated from the Fairview grade school in 1918, then attended the Gresham Union high school from which he graduated in 1922. At the time of his death he was employed as bookkeeper for the Saginaw Shingle mills. Emil was a young man of fine character and leaves many friends in this locality. The funeral was held Sunday morning, December 12, from the Skewes undertaking parlors in Portland. Interment was made in the family plot at Woodburn. He is survived by his father John Loser of Fairview, Mrs. Louise Davis of Troutdale, Mrs. Marie Okerberg of Aberdeen, Washington, Adolph of Nevada and William of Fairview.

The teachers and pupils of Fairview school are busy these days preparing their Christmas program which will be given Thursday evening at the school auditorium.

PLEASANT HOME

The Christmas program at the Pleasant Home Baptist church will be held Friday evening, December 24. The program will consist of two parts, the first, a mixed program by the primary department, the second a pantomime illustrating the story of Christ's birth and early life. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dailey and daughter Dorothy are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Anderson to remain during the Christmas holidays.

College students home for the holiday season are Wilma Chase, Charles McKinney, Wilbur Altman and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Nasshahn.

Mrs. Louella Lent has returned to her home after an extended visit at the McKinney home.

Miss Mabel Johanson is able to be out again after several days' illness.

Mrs. B. C. Altman came home from Portland Saturday, returning again Sunday to her mother's bedside. She reports Mrs. Stephen's condition to be somewhat improved, although she is still in a critical condition. Her many friends in this community are hoping for a complete recovery.

B. C. Altman met with a severe loss Sunday, when one of his fine horses died from staggers.

Wilmer Nelson returned Sunday evening from Springdale where he had been assisting J. W. Anderson in remodeling his cottage.

Mrs. Lucinda Wheeler fell during the icy weather and injured her left arm so severely she was forced to carry it in a sling for several days.
