Columbian High

(By Rosetta Henkle, Editor.

Columbian high boys' basketball team will play the Parkrose team, Friday night, January 21 at the Columbian gymnasium. The Alumni team will play the Parkrose Alumni.

Last Tuesday night at Parkrose, the Columbian boys won by a score of 16-11.

The Newberg Academy basketball team played the Columbian high team last Friday, January 14. The score was 30-6 in favor of the local team. The preliminary game between the "Dodos" and "Birdies," of Columbian high, resulted in a score of 11-9 in favor of the "Dodos."

The Freshmen girls played the grade school girls and won by a score of 38-6.

Members of the world history class attended the movie, "Bardley's, the Magnificent," at the Columbia, on January 13.

Agatha Harding, '24, now attending O. A. C., received a Barometer pin for one year's work on the Barometer staff.

The moving picture show "Cohens and Kellys" given at the high school, on January 12, was well attended. Mahlon Evans and Kenneth Bramhall are proving to be competent operators of the moving picture machine.

The domestic science class entertained Mrs. H. L. Moody, Mrs. George Lusby and the women teachers of the grade and high school faculties at a lovely luncheon, Tuesday, January 18.

Bella Reed, who attended the high school conference held at Eugene last week, gave an informational and interesting discussion of her trip to the student body assembly.

Marjorie Bush and Pearl Chamberlain attended the matinee performance, Saturday, January 15, of "Blossom Time," at the Heilig theater.

COTTRELL

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mundlin and family, formerly of Portland, have moved to this place. Mr. Mundlin is manager of the 20th Century grocery at Lents.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler visited relatives in Portland Monday.

Howard and Wilber Booth have been quite sick for the past two weeks.

Harvey Griffin is improving after his accident, although he is still unable to walk.

Richard, Jay, and Bob Mundlin are new students at the Cottrell school.

The basketball boys played the first game of the season at Sandy high school Thursday evening, January 20. They displayed their new suits on that occasion.

Ed. Blue of eastern Oregon visited Mr. and Mrs. George Smith the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ruckner and two children arrived from California recently and will visit Mrs. S. E. Jones and family. Mrs. Rucker was formerly Miss Grace Jones of this place.

The picture show which was announced for January 21 at the schoolhouse has been postponed one week until January 28.

TROUTDALE

The Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted will preach at the Troutdale community church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the theme, "The Return of Christ." Sunday school will follow at 11 o'clock.

PLEASANT VALLEY

County Agent S. B. Hall was in this vicinity on matters pertaining to work, on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wing, their daughter Miss Mabel and son Joe, were Valley visitors last Sunday.

B. E. Turner made a trip into the Sandy country on business last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand were in Portland on business matters Tuesday.

The Parent-Teacher association which met at the schoolhouse last Tuesday evening was not very well attended.

Pleasant Valley grange will meet in regular session at the grange hall next Saturday evening, January 22. A good program is assured. A. P. Anderson is lecturer.

The interest in the Sunday school is growing, as is evidenced by the increased attendance from Sunday to Sunday. Increased attendance at church services likewise is noted. Sunday school convenes at 10 o'clock, followed by church services at 11.

ROCKWOOD

James Conrad is confined to his home with a severe cold.

Services next Sunday will be in charge of the pastor, the Rev. J. F. Dunlop.

Andy Stone has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, but is reported as improving.

The well being drilled for the Rockwood Water District is now down over 200 feet, and at last account prospects for an ample supply of water were not so good. The depth of water was not increasing proportionately with the drilling.

It is reliably reported that Wm. McKeown has leased his ranch for a term of years for a modern dairy. New buidings are being constructed, electricity for pumping plant installed, with everything modern and up-to-date.

Rockwood grange has paid off its debt and expects the burning of the mortgage to be an event at its next regular meeting the first Wednesday in February.

Mr. McCann has installed a new pump at his filling station.

Mrs. Minnie B. Altman, principal of the Rockwood school, is planning to take her eighth grade to Salem to give the youngsters an opportunity of seeing the legislature in action and thereby showing at first hand the law-making body at work.

We are continuing the work of the late P. F. Black in representing the celebrated Nash tailored $23.50 suits. Fine assortment samples. Mrs. Edna Black, 4824, 92d street S. E., Portland, phone SUnset 4253. —Adv.

BORING

The regular services at the Methodist church on Sunday will be preaching at 10 o'clock by the Rev. E. W. Withnell, Sunday school at 11 o'clock. The Sunday school is on the increase. Last Sunday the attendance was just seven below the total enrollment. There is a large class of young people of high school age, with L. H. Mallicoat as teacher but there is still room for more, and the pastor and superintendent invite all who do not attend elsewhere to join with them in trying to improve the community.

The moving picture entitled "Lest We Forget," which was to be given at the church on Thursday evening under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League, was postponed on account of the snow storm. It will be given at a later date.

The sale on Tuesday given by E. A. Anderson was well attended. There were about 80 autos parked on the road. Besides this, some came in wagons and others on foot. The articles offered for sale all brought a good price. There were 280 Leghorn pullets and they were bid in at $1.65 apiece. One lady took all of them. The highest price paid for a cow was $105. This was for a Holstein. Mr. Anderson left the evening of the sale for Sherwood, where he expects to visit with a brother for a while.

Mrs. Hunt, whose home is at Estacada, has been visiting the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. G. F. Peterson.

Mrs. Claud Danielson, whose home is at Clatskanie, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. John Meyer. She was accompanied by her two small daughters.

Oscar Harris and wife have moved into the Chris. Anderson house, which was recently vacated by R. C. Riggs. Mr. Harris is employed on the R. L. Sabin farm.

The Hood Camp gave a card party at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday evening.

The Damascus grange will hold its regular meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall on Saturday. This being the first meeting since the installation, the new officers will begin the performance of their duties and start to pilot the old ship on its voyage for the year 1927.

Rosco Knox is starting to build a barn on his property.

Old King Winter has once more visited us and has left a blanket of snow eight inches on the level.

A. B. Calder, a retired minister who moved on to property east of town, is doing some improving. At present he is building a cow stable.

SANDY

A dance will be given at the Sandy grange hall tomorrow evening, January 22, under the auspices of the Catholic ladies.

FAIRVIEW

"The Return of Christ" will be the theme of the sermon Sunday morning at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church at Fairview at 11 o'clock by the pastor, the Rev. E. R. D. Hollensted. Sunday school will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. On Sunday evening at 7:30 there will be a union service at the church under the auspices of the Billy Sunday Gospel team of Portland.

5-Acre Tract.

Two and one-half miles from Gresham, 400 feet from Mt. Hood highway. New three-room plastered dwelling, bath, basement, new garage. One acre loganberries, Bull Run water, on good rock road. Priced to sell. $1000 will handle. B. W. Thorne, Gresham, phone 2751.—Adv.

SANDY

The Sandy Pioneer and Early Settlers' society, which was organized a few months ago, will hold a meeting at the Sandy grange hall on next Sunday, January 23. An impromptu program will be arranged to start at 10:30 in the morning. If the weather conditions are favorable George H. Himes of Portland, curator of the Oregon Historical society, will be present. All pioneers or early settlers of Sandy or other near-by communities are invited to bring lunches and participate in the enjoyments of the day. Coffee will be furnished free for the basket dinner.

Sandy high school basketball teams won in a double header with Milwaukie last Friday night.

Saron Lutheran Services.

The Sunday morning service of the Saron Lutheran church will be in English. Baptismal services will be connected with the Sunday morning worship. In the evening an illustrated lecture in the series, "A Journey Through the Bible," will be given, accompanied by colored slides. The subject for Sunday evening will be, "The Six Days of Creation and the World God Created."
