

Gresham Locals

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday evening, January 31, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. H. Metzger for the regular meeting.

A change of salesmen will be made in a few days in the local store of the Twentieth Century chain. Jesse Thomas, who has been employed as an assistant to E. M. Ward for the past year and a half has been transferred to the Twentieth Century at Forest Grove and will begin work there the first of February. His successor will soon be named.

The electric washer and ironer demonstration, which was announced for the entire week at the Portland Electric Power company's office in Gresham has been indefinitely postponed on account of the weather. R. L. Gibbs of Portland, a demonstrator of the vacuum cleaner department of the electric company, was in Gresham yesterday and showed the cleaner before a meeting of the Ladies Aid at the home of Mrs. W. J. Ott. He plans to visit this district several days each month.

School resumed Thursday morning at both high and grade schools after a week's vacation at the former and vacation of three days at the grade school. The roads, which have been entirely impassable on account of drifts are now rapidly getting into normal shape again due to the rising temperature and light rain which began falling yesterday morning.

A week of special meetings is being planned at the Baptist church beginning Sunday, February 13. The Rev. E. A. Gottberg, pastor of the Baptist church at Astoria, will deliver a series of illustrated addresses.

Henry L. Gerdes, otherwise known to his Gresham friends as Heinie the butcher, has been setting a worthy example to his fellow townsmen in the matter of improving thoroughfares otherwise closed to traffic on account of the snow drifts. He is such an energetic person that he must have his daily exercise. On Tuesday, being unable to take up his duties with meat saw, knife and cleaver, he organized a band of volunteers and, arming them with shovels, led the attack on a large snowdrift on south Roberts avenue. Under his expert and able supervision a road was soon cleared, slightly crooked but entirely serviceable.

Roscoe Southard has lately entered the employ of the Walter Metzger automobile agency as an assistant in mechanical work. Harry Spath began work recently at the same place as a worker in the shop.

Mrs. A. E. Kessler, who moved from Gresham to Sherwood about two years ago, has received several attractive prizes on her birds in a show held in Seattle recently by bird fanciers, according to an article in the Sherwood Valley News. She was awarded a silver cup for the best Seifert Roller in the show, the special prize for the best tour bird in the show, also first, second and third prizes. One of her prizes was a grand Roller male, Ben Hur, from the Queen City Aviaries. Ben Hur's sire won champion sweepstakes at Kansas City in 1924 and honors in Seattle last year. His mother was Oregon Rose, sold last summer by Mrs. Kessler to the Queen City Aviaries.

The Young People's society of the Baptist church will meet at 6:30 on Sunday evening. The topic, "Redeeming the Red Man," will be discussed with stereopticon views as a special feature of the meeting. Group 2 is in charge and extends a hearty welcome to any who wish to attend.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. B. L. Walrad on Wednesday afternoon, February 2, at 2:30. Mrs. James Sterling will read the chapter from the study book, "Our Temples Hills", which will be dramatized by the members. This book deals with the problems pertaining to rural religious life. Mrs. Harry Ott will sing, and a piano duet will be rendered by Florence Stanley and Elizabeth Thom. Those assisting the hostess are Mrs. C. J. Lundquist, Mrs. C. E. Johnson and Mrs. J. R. Horr.

Mayor Charles Cleveland on last Tuesday was appointed by Governor Patterson a member of the state fair board to succeed Horace Addis, a former resident of Portland who moved to Idaho some time ago. Mr. Cleveland, a retired farmer and stockman and active in organization and civic work, is chairman of the building committee of the Multnomah county fair board.

S. B. Hall and W. D. Kinder are in Corvallis for the week and possibly longer in attendance at a conference of the county club agents and the county agricultural agents being held in the interests of the extension service. Mrs. Kinder accompanied her husband.

Miss Elizabeth Baldwin returned Wednesday after spending a week at the Zigzag ranger station where she was the guest of Mrs. Raymond Smith whose husband is in charge of the work of the station during the winter. Miss Baldwin also spent some time at Government Camp where she enjoyed skiing and other winter sports in that vicinity.

Mrs. J. T. Horr expects to leave tomorrow for Helena, Montana, to visit her daughter Mrs. G. M. Roberts.

She will probably be away for a month.

One of the most interesting souvenirs in all probability ever received at the local postoffice is that which came to Mrs. Theodore VanDonick a few days ago from her husband who is spending a month at Palm Beach, Florida. This is an entire coconut, shell and all, on which is tacked the name and address. No other covering was needed for the long transportation save the natural coconut shell. At the same time she received a most unique souvenir from him, but this was carefully packed in excelsior. A coconut had been cut in two through the center, the white meat taken out and a handsome electric light fixture constructed.

An auto accident at the corner of Third and Main streets this forenoon disabled the Chevrolet touring car of Louis Racine when he was struck by Harry Spencer who was proceeding north on Main. Racine was traveling south and attempted to make the turn into third near the Gresham Service station when Spencer also made the turn in the hope of missing the other machine. The cars came together but the one driven by Spencer was able to leave under its own power, while Racine's sustained a crippled wheel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cooper of Portland are the guests for a day or two of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hastings and family. Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Hastings are sisters.

O. A. Eastman went to Salem and McMinnville Wednesday on business affairs.

Verne Cole has been employed by Lewis & Son as the driver for the bus which they have put on this week over the Section Line road between Gresham and Portland.

About a dozen members of Gresham lodge of A. F. & A. M. visited the East Gate Masonic lodge in Montavilla Thursday evening.

H. S. McMurry has returned to his work after being laid up for nearly a week with an attack of the flu.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamblet, who left January 13 for southern California on a motorcycle, that they made the trip through in five days. They state they encountered some bad weather en route.

The next meeting of the Gresham Union High School Parent-

Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse on Wednesday evening, February 2. A good program will be arranged for the occasion.

Oliver Stromquist of Portland, for a number of years pressman of the Outlook force, was a welcome caller at the office yesterday.

A scientist at Philadelphia traces man back to a primitive fish. And sometimes we think that most of us haven't got far away from the home even yet.
