

Gresham Locals

The Areme club dance to be given on the evening of February 11 at the Masonic hall will be a masquerade. Prizes will be given for the best character costume, the best couple and the best comic. Special decorations are being planned for the hall. Gligray's orchestra will furnish the music and a good time is assured. The unmasking will take place at 10:30.

Veal Howell was a Gresham player in the junior symphony orchestra which rendered a highly creditable program Saturday evening at the public auditorium in Portland. This was the second appearance of the orchestra in public concert this season. Musical critics spoke well of the performance, an interpretation of a Japanese ballet scene, "The Death of Kin Sei."

The concert to have been given by Robert Blair on February 25 at the Methodist church for the benefit of the Home Missionary society has been postponed until March 4 to give those who wish an opportunity to attend the Fritz Kreisler concert in Portland.

Announcement has been made of the arrival of an 11-pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Otto White of Bull Run, the former a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. White of Gresham. The baby, who was born on January 25, has been named Elmer Otto, Jr. The mother and baby are with her parents at Hubbard. Mr. White is working for Cameron & Hogg at Bull Run.

The regular meeting of the Rebekah Welfare club will be held on Monday, February 7, at the home of Mrs. George Lane. All are requested to bring a flour sack to hem for the Odd Fellow Home.

Mrs. W. D. Kinder has returned from a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Zimmerman of Eugene. She spent part of the time there while her husband was in attendance at the State Annual Extension conference at Corvallis.

A coming event of interest to poultrymen of the locality will be the poultry extension conference to be held in Gresham on February 25. This will be in charge of Dr. W. T. Johnson of the Oregon Agricultural college state experiment station, assisted by H. E. Cosby. Dr. Johnson will be remembered by farmers of the vicinity for much valuable advice given them three years ago on poultry diseases which saved poultry for many of them. He was also in Gresham a year ago. This meeting, which will be held under the auspices of the local O. A. C. extension service, is free to all. The meeting place will be announced later.

Mrs. Ivan Swift has been on the sick list for several days. Her malady was a severe attack of the grip which is so prevalent now.

Word has been received of a slight improvement in the condition of Mrs. Frank Gibbs' sister, Mrs. Anne Schoepfer, who is seriously ill in Emanuel hospital. While for several days she was not expected to live, the attending physician now gives some hope of her recovery.

A joint meeting of the Baptist Ladies Guild and the missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. A. J. W. Brown Tuesday, Feb. 8. The mite boxes will be opened at this time and a short program and refreshments will follow. All members and friends are urged to be present promptly at 2 o'clock. The church dinner, which was postponed on account of weather conditions, will be held on Friday, February 11.

Miss Joyce Kidder, accompanied by her roommate Miss Dorothy Ryan of Sumner, Wash., is home from Willamette university for the week-end. The girls are enjoying a brief vacation due to the mid-term exams.

Mrs. Gus Donley had the misfortune on Thursday of last week to slip outside her door, breaking the large bone of the forearm just above the wrist and slivering the smaller bone. The injury is responding to treatment in a satisfactory manner.

J. T. Shilton, who is recovering from a long severe illness, was out from Portland Wednesday afternoon greeting Gresham friends who are pleased to learn that he is regaining his health.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brandt and son George Jr., of Toledo, Ore., returned home this morning, after a week's visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ida Williams visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Leslie, on Sunday.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. John Metzger. The time will be spent in sewing.

The play, "Sunshine" will be given by the young people of the Pleasant Home Baptist church at the Gresham Union high school gymnasium on the evening of February 11. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of a piano for the Baptist church at Pleasant Home.

Free Methodist Services.

On Sunday morning at the Free Methodist church the pastor, the Rev. L. A. Skuzie, will preach from the subject, "Workers Together With Him," and in the evening, "The Great Salvation."

This will be the last Sunday before the beginning of the special meetings and it is the desire of the pastor to have all members of the church present. On Sunday morning, February 13, the Rev. Ralph Milton will preach his opening sermon. Special singing will feature every service during the revival.

Baptist Church Services.

Next Sunday the services in the Baptist church will be held at the regular hours. The church choir will sing and special music will be rendered at both services. The pastor will preach at both morning and evening services. His theme for the morning will be the question, "What Does Christ Expect of the Local Church?" and in the evening "The Call to a Life of Faith." The church bell rings one-half hour before the Bible school begins in the morning and again when the school opens, also one-half hour before the young peoples' meeting begins in the evening, so that all may be there on time. A very interesting meeting will be featured by the B. Y. P. U. the topic to be "The Conquering Christ."

START THE CHILDREN IN BUSINESS

Financial experience should be secured as early in life as possible.

Many parents realize this and have started their children in business by investing in a savings account at the FIRST STATE BANK.

This is as truly a business as any other. It pays 4% and the principal is safe.

That is more than can be said for many other lines of business.

The men who own the U. S. federal bonds (22 billions)—get no more.

The great American railways pay but little more.

Think of it! We offer the babe in the cradle as fine a business investment as is enjoyed by the great financiers of America!

Start your babies in business at the FIRST STATE BANK.

MARY PAROUNAGIAN HOME FROM ABROAD

Miss Mary Parounagian, who was formerly a resident of Gresham where her father was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, has returned to Portland after an absence of eight months abroad. Miss Parounagian, an instructor in Latin at Grant high school, was given a leave of absence and, while away, visited 11 countries of the old world, including a trip to Greece and Armenia, the native land of her father, the Rev. M. B. Parounagian of Salem.

The traveler left Portland last morning at 11:15 at the Pleasant

June, visiting first in Paris with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes. Mr. Barnes is connected with the Paris branch of the New York Herald. Later she went to Rome where she studied in the American Academy.

Miss Parounagian says that France and other European countries are recovering from effects of the late war. She reported her visit in Greece and at the Corinth orphanage as especially interesting.

PLEASANT HOME

"The High Calling" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday morning at 11:15 at the Pleasant

Home Methodist Episcopal church, of which the Rev. E. W. Withnell is the pastor. The junior church will convene at the same hour. Epworth League will meet at 7:30 in the evening. Sunday school will convene at 10 a. m.

The young people of the Baptist church will go to Gresham Sunday to participate in a rally with the B. Y. P. U. at that place. Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock and the pastor will preach at 11. The Happy Hour class will meet again at 3 o'clock. Weather conditions made it impossible for the children to meet the last three weeks but it is hoped they will be able to attend now.
